A DUEL ON A LARGE SCALE.—A letter from Baden contains the following, which illustrates the state of feeling in the lesser German States:—

"Last week 40 students arrived at the Castle of Durbach, near Offenburg, from Freiburg, accompanied by a surgeon. They were armed with rapiers, and retired into the interior of a forest, where they selected a suitable spot for fighting duels on a large scale, 20 to 20. They fought for a long time, inflicting wounds on each other in the face and arms. One is said to have had his life endangered. What was the origin of this battle? Politics. 20 were for Austria and 20 Prussia.

ASHES ON POTATOES.—Hard wood ashes are one of the most valuable kinds of manure. Chester Belding of Orange county, New York, writes that he applied "unleached ashes to the potato hills after first and second hoelings, at the rate altogether of about 15 barrels per acre. Two rows through the centre which were not ashed, yielded at the rate of 197 1-2 bushels per acre, while the others produced at the rate of 280 bushels per acre. There was no perceptible difference between rows ashed once and those ashed twice."—Agriculturist.

ECHOES.—What must be done to conduct a newspaper right?—Write.

— What is necessary to a farmer to assist him?—System.

— What would give a blind man the greatest delight?—Light.

— What is the best piece of counsel given by a justice of the peace?—Peace.

— Who commit the greatest abominations?—Nations.

— What is the great terrifier?—Fire.

FROM BEECHER'S ROYAL TRUTHS.—I think you might dispense with half your doctors, if you would only consult Doctor Sun more, and be more under the treatment of those great hydropathic doctors, the clouds!

LOVE AND ITS ENDS.—Remember what purpose you were born for, and through the whole of life, look at its end. Consider, when that comes, in what you will put your trust.

— An Austrian prisoner in the Prussian capital lately said, "Our Benedek is a clever fellow; in fact he must be a prophet. He said to us, 'Children, in fourteen days you will be in Berlin,'—and here I am."

— London Punch has written to Mr. Darwin, the well-known author of the "Origin of Species," asking him if it is possible under his theory of development, for a bay pony ever to become a sea horse.

— If we are loved by those around us, we can bear the hostility of all the rest of the world—just as, if we are before a warm fire, we need not care for all the ice in the polar regions.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837, 78 State Street, cor. Kilby Street, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to those which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

WAS THE BOAT SAVED?—A writer in the Christian Watchman, (Baptist paper) mentions an amusing incident which occurred under his own observation in Northern Vermont, in which the effect of a solemn discourse was destroyed by the question, "Was the boat saved?"

Rev. M. G. Hodge had preached a very able and pointed sermon on the character, condition and prospects of the impenitent. The interest and solemnity of the audience increased from the commencement, and culminated in a closing illustration designed to meet the charge of a want of sympathy and charity in such severe doctrines. The preacher said: "A boat's crew were unable to reach the shore because of the fierce surf that rolled its huge waves between them and the beach. With difficulty the crowded boat was kept afloat. The crew could see people gathered on the shore, some of them running hither and thither, apparently devising means for their rescue. Presently a cannon was brought to the water's edge. In a moment it was pointed towards the boat. What could it mean? These could not be friends. The hearts of the crew sank within them. They felt that there were enemies on the land as relentless as the fierce waves of the sea. But friendship is not always apparent either in the acts of men or of God. This supposed cruelty was the greatest kindness, for the design of the cannon was to throw a rope to the shipwrecked men, by which they could be drawn to the shore."

Leaving the illustration when his purpose in using it had been gained, the preacher began to make the application, when a venerable and esteemed father in the ministry, unable to disguise his sympathy for the mariners, exclaimed, "Was the boat saved? Bro. Hodge, was the boat saved?"

Mr. H. sat down amid the smiles and whispers of the audience, fully aware that any solemnity of impression produced by the sermon was entirely effaced by that untimely remark.

— Some people are as careful of their troubles as mothers are of their babies; they cradle them, and rock them, and hug them, and cry over them, and fly into a passion with you if you try to take them away from them; they want you to fret with them, and to help them to believe that they have been worse treated than anybody else. Their trouble makes them selfish — they think more of their dear little grief in the basket and in the cradle than they do of all the world beside; and they consider you hard-hearted if you say "don't fret." "Ah! you don't understand me—you don't know me—you can't enter into my trials."—Blind Amos.

"Do you know who I am?" said an officer to a fellow whom he had by the collar. "Not exactly, sir," replied the fellow; "but I think you must be the malignant collarer."

PUBLISH THIS DAY,

"SHERBROOKE."

By H. B. G., Author of "Madge." 1 vol. 12 mo. Cloth. Price $2.00.

The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and ennobling; at the same time the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. 'Aunt Lydia' and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. 'Hope,' the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for 'Sherbrooke' an immense sale."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 18, 1866.

☞ Senator Doolittle, in the course of his Buffalo speech last Wednesday, being interrogated on the subject by an irrepressible radical, gave the following double-edged reason why suffrage should not be extended to the freedmen, the cogency of which (says the democratic N. Y. Atlas) no one who has ever traveled in the South will deny.

"In the Southern South there is a mass of colored population, among which nine-tenths of the men have no sense of family and family ties, and the women no sense of virtue; and the man who would build the foundations of human society upon a population like that, knows nothing of republican government."

Mainly true, no doubt; but what shall we think of those would perpetuate and extend the cause of all this degradation—"the sum of all vallainies"—slavery?

☞ Walter Brown, the Portland carman, writes as below to Josh Ward of the Hudson river. It will be remembered that Brown defeated Ward at Worcester; and this letter is in answer to Ward's challenge to row a single-scull race for $500 a side at Cornwall, N. Y., the Portlander to be allowed $100 for expenses.

To Joshua Ward:—In answer to your challenge to row one for $500 at Cornwall, N. Y., I will say that, first, the amount you wish to row for would not pay me; second, the amount you wish to allow me for expenses is not sufficient; and third, I would not like to row at your favorite course, as the odds are more than you would be willing to give. I did intend to quit rowing altogether, as it is a very expensive amusement to train and travel all over the country; but as you wish to regain your lost laurels, I will row you a race two or three miles, on the Hudson, at the Elysian Fields, or Staten Island, for $1000 or $2000 a side, and take $200 for expenses; or I will give the same amount and row in Portland harbor, in three weeks from signing articles. Respectfully yours, WALTER BROWN.

SUPREME HARMONY.—The Philadelphia special of the Boston Herald says:

The great Convention has passed into history. It was in session but a few moments over five hours in all, and was a remarkable convocation in view of the fact that, beside the presiding officers, not a single member made a speech exceeding three minutes in length. The most supreme harmony was exhibited throughout.

No one could utter a more biting sarcasm than this.

☞ A New Orleans dispatch of Aug. 16, says:

An extra has been issued containing a card from the official military authorities in regard to the late riots, which puts down the total number known to be killed at thirty-eight, and the severely wounded at ninety-eight.

Judge Howell, pro tem president of the convention of 1864, is out in an address to the loyal people of Louisiana, endeavoring to show the loyalty of that body, but says nothing regarding its re-assembling.

☞ One of the hardest hits at Secretary Seward, since his defection from the Union party, is the following resolution, adopted at a meeting at Kankakee, Ill:

"Resolved, That we sypathize with Secretary Seward in and on account of the suffering he underwent at the hands of rebel assassins, it being accidentally done by his friends, they not then knowing him."

☞ Five robbers entered the house of Martin Danning, a banker, at Camanche, Iowa, Thursday night, Aug. 9, at midnight, seized and bound the family, took Mr. D. into the bank adjoining, and compelled him to open the vault. They got $6000 or $8000—mostly in bonds—and got off.

☞ The little ship Red, White and Blue, only two-and-a-half tons, from New York, arrived on the English coast Aug. 15, after a 37 days' passage. All (two men) well.

☞ The Canadians are preparing to resist another Fenian invasion, as 15,000 armed Irishmen are to be at Grand Island to-day, on a picnic.

— Judging from the appearance of the style of gentlemen's coats, the clothing-dealers will do a large retailing business next Fall.

— The receipts of the theatres and other places of amusement in New York last year were over $3,000,000. Barnum's Museum made the largest return.

— The Chicago papers, now that the cholera has fairly made its appearance in that city, assert that the disease has prevailed there ever since the early part of June, but that the physicians, to avoid creating a panic, have called it by a milder name. The condition of the river, which has become a stagnant bayou at that point, is assigned as a principal cause of the virulent outbreak of the pestilence.

— The Commissioner of Pensions at Washington has about one hundred family bibles and other books containing family records, which were forwarded to the Pension Office as evidence in claims preferred for pension and bounty lands. The Commissioner has no information relative to the residences of the owners, and it is desired that persons owning such property should apply for it at once.

—— Horace Berney's store, in Grafton, was broken open one night last week, and some provisions stolen, by a Frenchman, who was found in the woods, with the articles stolen, and who is in Haverhill jail.

—— Wm. Downing, Luther C. Welch, and Geo. Shaw, all of Hopkinton, are in Concord jail, having plead guilty of an aggravated assault on Chas. E. Clark, last Wednesday evening. They would be at home in the State Prison.

—— The New Hampshire officers in the Philadelphia Convention, were Daniel Marcy one of the Vice Presidents, and E. S. Cutler, a Secretary. On the Committee of Resolutions and Address, Bowers and Bingham; on Finance, Marcy; National Union Executive Committee, Edmund Burke and E. S. Cutler; to wait on the President, J. Carley and J. H. Smith.

HOW THE LIES LIVE.—Governor Orr, in his speech at Philadelphia, had the hardihood to say, "The South seceded, and with the North appealed to arms." The Boston Transcript well says this bold-faced attempt to fatten upon the patriotism of the free States a share of the responsibility for the war brought on by the conspiracies and overt acts of traitors, was listened to without rebuke, probably with entire assent, by men who just at this moment claim to be loyal. Is anything more needed to show that copperheadism is to be in the ascendant, even if behind the scenes and managing the noncommitalism of the Convention. By the way, as Governor Orr admits that nullification and secession are exploded, and that the Federal debt should not be repudiated, why does he object to saying as much in a Constitutional amendment?

FROM EUROPE, Thursday Aug. 16, at noon.—In Paris it is officially stated that the French Government has receded from its demand made upon Prussia for the extension of the French frontier to the Rhine. France does this in the interests of peace, which she desires far more than territorial aggrandizement.(?) The hope is also expressed by the official journal (Moniteur) that Prussia will not extend her projects of annexation to the German States south of the Maine. At the Bank Court a reduction was made in the rate of discount of the Bank of England from 10 to 8 per cent. In Liverpool the cotton market is buoyant under the peaceful news and the reduction in the Bank rate.

☞ Information has been received at Washington, of a combination of speculators in New York, whose object is to run gold up to two hundred, and it is believed they could carry out their purpose were the Secretary to reduce the amount of gold in the Treasury, as suggested by firms of bankers and financiers at New York last week. Sec. McCulloch, however, didn't see it,—but rather thought he would hold on upon the gold, enough to break down the market at any time when he thinks the gold traders are going a little too fast.

☞ In New York City, Thursday morning, a fire broke out in Hegeman's drug store, on Broadway, totally destroying his stock. Loss $80,000. Rogers Brothers, silver platers, and Corbett & Co., fur and wool dealers, also suffered; the latter $20,000. Others also lost more lightly. The total loss is put at $125,000.

— A cockney's conundrum—Who is the best chopper in the United States? President Johnson. He's 'Andy with the baxe.

— Sharks have made their appearance in the bay, and in the North and East rivers around New York, and bathing has become dangerous.

— The order of Sec. McCulloch for refunding the temporary loan certificates will put in circulation currency to the amount of $70,000,000.

The London News says, "It is not to be denied that ritualistic practices are alienating from the Church of England large numbers of its most enlightened and sincerely attached members."

— A little boy seven years old, son of Peter Peters of Calamus, Wis., was attacked by a vicious boar in the public road, and so badly wounded that he died in a short time. The brute was shot.

— Bishop McIlvaine of Ohio reports for the last year 539 candidates confirmed by himself, and 287 by Bishop Bedell, making in all 825. Six admitted to the order of deacons, and four presbyters. He laments the small number of candidates coming forward to the ministry.

— The Christian Watchman, of Mississippi, states that the Roman Catholics have resolved to revise their English version of the Bible and circulate it freely among the people. They have also begun in New York city the publication of tracts on a large scale, which they are to spread throughout the country.

ONE STEP MORE.

What though before me it is dark,
Too dark for one to see?
I ask but light for one step more;
'Tis quite enough for me.

Each little humble step I take
The gloom clears from the next;
So, though 'tis very dark beyond,
I never am perplexed.

And if, sometimes, the mist hangs close—
So close, I fear to step,
Patient I wait a little while,
And soon it clears away.

I would not see my further path,
For mercy veils it too;
My present steps might harder be,
Did I the future know.

It may be that my path is rough,
Thorny and hard and steep;
And knowing this, my strength might fail,
Through fear and terror deep.

It may be that it winds along
A smooth and flowery way;
But, seeing this, I might despise
The journey of to-day.

Perhaps my path is very short,
My journey nearly done;
And I might tremble at the thought
Of ending it so soon.

Or if I saw a weary length
Of road that I must wend,
Fainting, I'd think, "My feeble powers
Will fail me ere the end."

And so I do not wish to see
My journey, or its length—
Assured that through my Father's love,
Each step will bring its strength.

Thus step by step I onward go,
Not looking far before;
Trusting that I shall always have Light for just "one step more."

Communication.

PLAIN TALK.—As an Assembly of the Democratic Party, the recent gathering at the Philadelphia Wigwam was not only numerous, but very respectable; but as an assembly of Republicans it was contemptible. For example, take our own State: Capt. Marcy, and Mr. Smith of Dover, Edmund Burke, and rest of that company, were representative men, with a constituency back of them: they were appointed by the Democratic State Committee, who were chosen by the regular convention of a party that threw 30,000 votes last March. But the miscalled Republican delegation were delegated,—by whom? By a dozen or a score of men, half of whom were drawn together by the hope of future offices, and the other half drawn or dragged together by the threat on fear of losing good offices which they now hold. Not to say one word for or against these men, or those whom they sent to the wigwam,—they really represent nobody but themselves; surely they represent no existing party,—and the new one that they are to make, is a chicken that has not yet got out of the egg. Again, no one doubts that the delegates of the Democratic party in New Hampshire desire to have South Carolina come back with three times as many Representatives as we have, in order to restore them to power and give them office. But the miscalled republican delegates cannot hope for this, and do not really desire it. Any pretense of the sort is sheer hypocrisy, assumed to flatter and deceive the President, and thereby get or hold office for two or three years! The Republicans of New Hampshire do not wish this inequality—for they have already ratified the Amendment to the contrary.

A. B.

PENNSYLVANIA.—The Union State Central Committee [Republican] of the State of Pennsylvania, call a meeting to be held in Philadelphia, Monday, Sept. 3, and say, the Union men of the entire Commonwealth are cordially invited to honor the occasion with their presence, and to enable all to confer together upon the present and future of our imperilled country. They send greeting to the brave Union brothers of the South, and extend to them a hearty welcome on the occasion of their meeting. It is also suggested and recommended that our friends from the other States send delegates on this occasion, not to sit in convention, but to cheer and co-operate with these tried champions of liberty from the South. The National Hall has been secured for the sitting of the convention of the Southern Unionists. The National Union Club invite delegates as they arrive to call at their rooms at No. 1105 Chestnut street, and register their names. The Club place their rooms at the use of the convention as their headquarters. Gov. A. J. Hamilton of Texas and Thomas J. Durant of New Orleans have already registered their names.

☞ Dan Sickles is the only volunteer officer retained in important command.—The order re-assigning him to the Department of the South gives him his full rank, while Hooker, Schofield, Ord, Cooke, McDowell, Pope, and Terry, all graduates of West Point and old officers of the regular army, lose their volunteer rank and are assigned as brigadiers, and brevet major-generals, the rank they hold thus becoming inferior to that of Sickles. It is rumored that the fortunate Daniel is soon to receive the commission of a Brigadier-General, and be immediately brevetted a Major-General in the regular army. [Why?]

WHY ARE THE DENTISTS?—Use Sozodont daily, and your teeth will seldom or never need scraping or filling, for they will never be defiled by unwholesome concretions, or be honey-combed by decay. 37

— If you are so far behind the times as not to have used Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, put it off no longer, but go immediately and purchase a paper. Everybody who has ever used it proclaims its good qualities. It takes less in quantity, is a saving of flour and shortening, and will make weak stomachs strong. Do not fail to try it. Most of the Grocers and many of the Druggists sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York. 44

— The idea of producing a dramatic effect by coupling the delegates of Massachusetts and South Carolina, and introducing them to the Philadelphia Convention, originated with Richard S. Spofford, Esq., of Newburyport.

— A writer in the Church Journal says of Ecce Homo, "The manuscript is said to have been placed in the publisher's hands through the agency of Dean Stanley, one of the leaders of the Broad Church party; and is it reported that Dean Stanley says the author is a curate."

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FUNCTIONS are most astonishing. Or, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

Is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE. In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER

after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved its itself worthy of THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken in cases of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. auldawlm

The Guide to Health and Beauty,
JUST PUBLISHED.
It teaches how to remove Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Blotches, Moth Patches, sallowness, Eruptions, and all impurities of the skin; how to enamel the skin, leaving it white and clear as alabaster; how to produce the fullest developments of the female form (as practised by the French,) causing the bust to grow round and full, and if the form has been lost by padding, being or maternity, restoring it to more than its original fullness, firmness and beauty. It teaches how to reduce in size the hands and feet; produce corpulency or the reverse; remove superfluous hair; cure Corns, Bunions, Warts, and Moles; renew your age; cure Rheumatism, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, &c., how to fascinate and gain the love and affection of any person you may choose, together with other useful and valuable information. No young Lady or Gentleman should fail to send their address to the undersigned and receive by return mail a copy of this valuable work in sealed envelope free of charge. Address

MADAME REMINGTON, the world-renowned Astrologist and Somnambulistic Clairvoyant, while in a clairvoyant state, delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychometrope, guarantees to produce a perfect and life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, with date of marriage, occupation, leading traits of character, &c. This is no imposition, as testimonials without number can assert. By stating place of birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, and enclosing fifty cents, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture by return mail, together with desired information.

Local.

☞ Mr. George Clark Abbott of this city, boatswain in the U. S. Navy, and for a year past an officer in the Freedmen's Bureau in Texas, it now appears was murdered by a man named Floyd, at Hampstead, Texas, on the 14th of this month. Abbott was in Texas at the commencement of the rebellion, and ran the rebel blockade, joined the U. S. steamer Brooklyn off South West Pass, and served during the war with distinction. The murder will not be likely to render the new "policy" more popular in Portsmouth.

☞ Will our Boston and New York exchanges please notice that the yacht Alice, whose recent remarkable passage across the Atlantic has excited so much comment, was not built in Boston, as most of them state, but was built in Portsmouth, N. H., by Mr. John E. Townsend, to whom is justly due all the honor appertaining thereto.

☞ A great improvement by a small outlay,—is the paving of the space near the sidewalks on Market Square, where the horses stand in front of the stores, and where their splashing in the great puddles for which they dig holes, has too long been an intolerable nuisance.

POLICE COURT, August 17.—Sarah J. Moors, for night walking, was sentenced to hard labor for one month in the House of Correction, and to pay costs $4.97.

John Sheehan, for assault upon Bartlett Wallace, was fined $10 and costs $5.74, and ordered to give $50 bonds to keep the peace. Sent to House of Correction.

The same gentleman, was further considered guilty, on a second charge of being a common drunkard, for which he received a couple of months additional at Philbrick's, and is ordered to pay costs $4.80.

Olive Austin, common night walker, was sent to House of Correction for one month and ordered to pay costs $5.74.

Wm. Rodman, for drunkenness, and Julia Day, for the same offence, were each assessed $6.86.

THE LOST TRIBES.—Rev. M. R. Miller, of the Presbytery of Zanesville, Ohio, recently delivered a lecture on the the ancient mounds in the vicinity of Newark, Ohio. He exhibited, says the Presbyterian Banner, "fac similes of the inscriptions on three of the stones, which are in the ancient Hebrew characters now in use, while the inscription on the fourth, which is a defective copy of the Ten Commandments, is in a Hebrew character whose form is probably older than the days of Ezra. The position in which these stones were found, proves that they must have laid there for ages." The inference is that the ten tribes, or some portions of them, reached this country, and have disappeared from history.

[Books and pamphlets published fifty or sixty years ago maintained the belief that the ten tribes, or a portion of them, came to this country: some writers saw traces of them in the Indians; others imagined the Indians exterminated them.]

MURDER.—On Monday, 13th, the quiet community of Jerusalem, Lancaster county, Pa., was thrown into a state of the wildest excitement by the mysterious murder of Mrs. Mary Emerson, wife of one of the wealthiest citizens in the county. She was found in the nursery, her child in her arms, with a dagger in her heart, around which was twined a cord. She had been nursing her child when the fatal blow was struck, and the dagger passed through one cheek of the infant, pinning it fast to her bosom. Mrs. Emerson, when discovered, had probably been dead about an hour. The wound to the child was not serious. There is not the slightest clue to the murderer. The affair is wrapped in profound mystery.

EMIGRATION.—According to the tables of the English Emigration Commissioners, during the fifty-one years that have elapsed since 1814, there have left the United Kingdom 5,901,513 emigrants, of whom 3,597,780, or nearly 61 per cent., have come to the United States. During 1865 the emigration amounted to 309,801, of whom 17,211 went to British North America, and 147,258 to the United States. Since 1848 the emigrants to the United States have sent back the enormous sum of £13,176,537 to their friends in the United Kingdom.

— The Fall River News says that the house of Mr. Walter Paine was broken into for the second time on Saturday night. A servant girl gave the alarm, and was nearly killed by a fragment of a rock which was hurled at her by one of the burglars in the darkness. They then fled without obtaining any booty.

— Gen. Miles has been appointed to a colonelcy in the regular army, and assigned to the 40th regiment of infantry. This regiment is one of the many about being organized, and is to consist of colored troops. It will be recruited immediately. Gen. Miles is now in Washington, but has not yet accepted the appointment.

— Loving hearts are like beggars—they live on what is given them.

NASEBY A PROPHET.—The Worcester Spy thus happily hits off the opening scene of the Philadelphia Convention: Mr. Nasby's vision of the entrance of President Johnson into the Philadelphia convention—"Gen. Buel holdin over him a federal flag, and Gen. Henry A. Wise a confedrit flag, both wavin em to the music uv two bands, one a playin Dixie, and the other Yankee Doodle'—of course suggested to the managers at Philadelphia the dramatic spectacle with which their proceedings opened. With a little change in the persons to whom the leading parts were assigned, Mr. Randall's scene was essentially a copy of Mr. Nasby's and was copied without acknowledgment—which was very wrong in Mr. Randall.

— Among the recent "inventions" in France, which have been brought to light by the discussion of the needle-gun, is one that fires twenty balls a minute and has a musical box in the butt, thus doing away with the necessity of regimental bands.

— Thirty years ago a widow, named Patty Polk, was murdered in Cecil County, Maryland. The perpetrator was first discovered last week by his own confession on a sick bed. Much to his consternation he is getting well.

— The Portland Advertiser says Boston has seven daily papers—only one-half as many as ten years ago.

Elegant Residence for Sale.
[On account of removal of owner.]
The well-known and beautifully situated CURTIS HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.
The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.
The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first-class wine cellar. The House is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.
The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.
If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.
The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery.—And is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

SOWING AND REAPING.

Sow with a generous hand,
Pause not for toil and pain,
Weary not through the heat of summer,
Weary not through the cold spring rain;
But wait till the season comes
For the sheaves of golden grain.

Scatter the seed, and fear not,
A table will be spread;
What matter if you are too weary
To eat your hard-earned bread?
Sow while the earth is broken,
For the hungry must be fed.

Sow:—while the seeds are lying
In the warm earth's bosom deep,
And your warm tears fall upon it—
They will stir in their quiet sleep;
And the green blades rise the quicker,
Purchased, for the tears you weep.

Then sow: for the hours are fleeting,
And the seed must fall to-day;
And care not what hands reap it,
Or if you shall have passed away
Before the waving corn fields
Shall gladden the sunny day.

Sow, and look onward, upward,
Where the starry Hope-bow bends—
Where, in spite of the coward's doubting,
Or your own heart's trembling fears,
You shall reap in joy the harvest
You have sown to-day in tears.

A SWEET TEMPER.—No trait of character is more valuable in a female [or male] than a sweet temper. Home can never be made happy without it. It is like the flowers that spring up in our pathway, reviving and cheering us. Let a man go home at night wearied and worn by the toils of the day, and how soothing is a word dictated by a good disposition. It is sunshine falling on the heart. He is happy, and the cares of life are forgotten. A sweet temper has a soothing influence over the minds of a whole family. Where it is found in the wife and mother, you observe kindness and love predominating over the natural feeling of a bad heart. Smiles, kind words and looks characterize the children, and peace and love have their dwelling there. Study, then, to acquire and retain a sweet temper. It is more valuable than gold; it captivates more than beauty; and to the close of life it retains all its freshness and power.

A WONDERFUL ESCAPE.—Seventeen person in Montrose, Ala., last week were buried beneath the ruins of a house in which they dwelt. The house was occupied by two families—that of Mr. M. Saucier, photographer, and that of Mr. E. Festorazzi, confectioner. Most of them were sitting on the front balcony, and in one of the front rooms when suddenly the piles on which the building rested gave way, and the house fell with a crash. None of the inmates were seriously injured. They immediately crawled out from among the ruins and were cared for by the neighbors. A child, three years old, was lying asleep on a bed, which was thrown entirely across the room without awaking it.

— A fine public school building, with its contents valued $40,000, at Adrian, Mich., was destroyed by fire on the 9th, the work of an incendiary.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time and attention to the cure of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, inflicting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotles, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three or $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important to Females

IN DELICATE HEALTH.

Dr. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

By a New England Lady.
A New Novel by the Author of 'Madge.'
D. APPLETON & COMPANY,
443 & 445 Broadway, New York,
PUBLISH THIS DAY,
"SHERBROOKE."
By H. B. G., Author of "Madge." 1 vol. 12 mo. Cloth. Price $2.00.
The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and ennobling; at the same time the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. 'Aunt Lydia' and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. 'Hope,' the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for 'Sherbrooke' an immense sale."

Ayer's Pills.
ARE you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed to health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and deranges its natural functions. These, if not relieved, re-act upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in this condition, take Ayer's Pills and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trifling common complaint is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body they are rapidly and many of them surely cured by the same means. None who know the virtue of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness, Constipation, Heartburn, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Worms and Suppression, when taken in large doses.
They are Sugar Coated, so that the most sensitive can take them easily, and they are surely the best purgative medicine yet discovered.

Ayer's Ague Cure.
For the Speedy and Certain Cure of Intermittent Fever, or Chills and Fever, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in bilary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.
This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it prejudice health or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse this assertion.
Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Dealers in Medicines everywhere. jy2

THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.

Mr. Raymond of New York, in behalf of the committee on resolutions read an address to the people of the United States.

THE ADDRESS.

The address speaks of the events which have occurred since the meeting of the last national convention six years ago. It urges that at this dangerous period it is a difficult duty to cement and perpetuate the Union. They were here to devise measures for that purpose. The shock of war has ceased; the jurisdiction of the government has been established, and the citizens of different sections may again meet in friendship.

Our duties are now those of peace, and not of war. Our work is not one of passion and hate. We must accept all the political results of the war which has established the supremacy of the national government and the eradication of slavery. Both these questions were at issue during the war, and this is the result.

The Government by the war sustained its old Constitutional power, but it gained no new power. The government fought on the defensive to maintain its power, but not to gain new power. The Constitution is as much the supreme law of the land as it was before, and the rights of the States have not been abridged.

Congress more than once asserted that whenever resistance to the government should cease the war should cease. But since the war has closed we hear for the first time that the government has acquired the right to the entire control of the States in rebellion, or to exclude them at the pleasure of Congress from participation in the government, or from the privilege of electing their own officers or making their own laws. The claim of Congress, if enforced, would involve an overthrow of the Constitution and a change in our form of government. Under the principle now announced by Congress, that body may at any time exclude any State it pleases from representation in Congress, and for any cause it pleases. This policy is at war with the Constitution, and endangers the permanency of our free government.

The action of Congress in excluding States from representation is absolute and unwarranted tyranny. There is no right in any State to withdraw from the Union, and there is no right to exclude. The right of representation was suspended by insurrection, but only during the time of the insurrection. When that was overthrown the right of representation returned. The right to dispose of the territory of the conquered under the laws of war is claimed, but this right exists only in cases of foreign wars.

Nations have the right to subject conquered territory to its own laws, but in this case the territory was subject to our laws before the war. The war gave no additional power to the government of Congress. It is within the power of the people to change the Constitution but it can only be done in a constitutional manner. To change the Constitution without allowing the States to have a part in the work, would be usurpation and intolerant tyranny.

Referring to the assertion that the people of the South are disloyal in sentiment, the address argues that we cannot deprive them of their rights on any such pretence, even if the facts were as represented; but in reality there is no resistance to the government at the South, and no wish to overthrow it. There are local disturbances and occasional scenes of violence there, but they are confined to the cities, and are caused by unwise political action. History affords no instance where so powerful a people, after such a war, has accepted so willingly the result of a defeat. This was due to the liberal and wise treatment received from the President.

If the people there were less loyal than one year ago it is solely due to the purpose of Congress to reduce the Southern States to the condition of conquered provinces. Such treatment would impair the loyalty of any people, and they would not be worthy of freedom and participation in the government if they accepted such usurpation without complaint. [Immense applause greeted this declaration, which was read a second time at the call of delegates.]

Resentment of injustice proves a people to be worthy of freedom. It should be remembered that the great mass of the rebels acted either upon the conviction that they had a right to do what they did or acted under compulsion. They have suffered ten-fold more than the North by the war. These facts do not excuse them, but should be taken into consideration by the government in its dealings with them.

They accept in full the results of the war; they renewed their obligations to the government, and pledge themselves to help pay the national debt. We call upon you, the people, this fall to surrender, and to share the burdens and renown that brings back peace and concord to jarring States. The peace has opened the way for unity of principle in action for all time to come.

The address closed as follows:

When this shall have been done the government will have been restored to integrity, and the American Union will have again become what it was designed to be,—a Sovereign Nation. Then may States go on in harmony and fraternal spirit, and common purpose, to the perfection of our republican institutions.

The address was adopted unanimously, and on motion of Mr. Tilden, of New York, three cheers were given for Mr. Raymond.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE CONVENTION.

Resolved, That we hail with gratitude to Almighty God the end of the war, and the return of peace to our afflicted but beloved land.

Resolved, That the war just closed has maintained the authority of the Constitution with all the powers which it confers, and the restrictions which it imposes upon the government; and that it has preserved the Union, with the equal rights, dignity and authority of the States perfect and unimpaired.

Resolved, That representation in the Congress of the United States and in the Electoral College is a right recognized by the Constitution as abiding in every State, and is a duty imposed upon its people fundamental in its nature and essential to the existence of our representative interests, and confers no authority or power to deny this right to any State or to withhold its enjoyment under the Constitution from the people thereof.

Resolved, That we call upon the people of the United States to elect to Congress members hitherto known to deny this fundamental right in representation, and who will receive loyal representatives from every State in allegiance to the United States, subject to the Constitutional right of each House to judge of the election, qualification, and return of its own members.

Resolved, That the Constitution of the United States and the laws made in pursuance thereof are the supreme law of the land, anything in the constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding. All the power not conferred by

Portsmouth N. H.

MONDAY, AUGUST 20, 1866.

A BRIEF NOTE OF FORMER DAYS.—In Concord, New Hampshire, on the 4th of July, 1864, when Franklin Pierce made his speech about the Mausoleum of Hearts, a portrait of Vallandigham was hung in front of the platform where Pierce stood while speaking.—Mr. P. used this language:—"It is made criminal for that noble martyr of free speech Vallandigham, to discuss public affairs in Ohio."

Now the noble martyr has been slain a second time, in the house of his friends, Johnson, Doolittle, Raymond & Co.,—but is perhaps to come to life again, and advocate "My Policy," and vote for the new men who do so. This seems a part of the new programme,—and perhaps it will be played out,—but then perhaps it will break down. An old Buchanan Democrat says to us, as we write this,—"The Convention don't amount to any thing!" He despises the snobs who coaxed and crowded Vallandigham and others out, to please the hypocritical Johnson republicans and war-democrats,—and says, "I can't support Mr. Johnson's policy, for I don't know what it is." He thinks, evidently, that a man who will lie on one side, may possibly lie on the other. U. T.

DOG PIE.—The Philadelphia Bulletin was a little prophetic on Monday evening. It published a burlesque programme for Tuesday, in which it represented one of the Southern magnates as about to "announce that the Southern delegates are reconciled, and propose that the Convention be organized on a conciliatory basis, to wit: 'The Union as it wasn't and the Constitution as it isn't,'" adding:—

The Massachusetts delegation will then be introduced and will eat in the presence of the Southern delegation a dog pie. At the close of the repast the chairman of the delegation will read the Constitution of the United States and the proclamation issued by Jefferson Davis on the fourteenth of August, eighteen sixty one!

"Eat a dog pie" is more expressive than appetizing, but the significance of the phrase will be appreciated. The Proclamation of Jeff. Davis, of which Tuesday was the "happy" (?) anniversary, was that in which he ordered every male citizen of the United States of the age of fourteen and upwards, to leave the Confederate States within forty days, or "they will be treated as alien enemies." Of course the happy family kept this and other unpleasant things out of sight.

The Daily Advertiser correspondent furnishes the following counterpart to the "dog pie" feast:—

As showing the wholesale manner in which dirt is being eaten at the shrine of Southern chivalry, it may be worth mentioning that the Iowa delegation made a formal call upon Rousseau this [Tuesday] morning, and complimented him on his treatment of Grinnell; extended to him their individual and collective congratulations and invited him to visit their State, assuring him of a favorable and enthusiastic reception.

☞ A New Orleans Dispatch of Friday says the Military Governor has returned to his own headquarters, leaving the City Hall to the full occupancy of the city officers.—No official order remitting martial law has yet been promulgated. The deaths from cholera for the 24 hours ending that morning were 27.

Governor Humphreys has called a special session of the Legislature of Mississippi to meet on October 15, to revise the legislation of the recent regular session.

☞ A New York dispatch of Saturday says there were 10 new cases and 8 deaths by cholera on Friday. Reports from Brooklyn showed no change in the epidemic.

A St. Louis special dispatch says the soldiers and citizens buried a dead house near the Arsenal Thursday night, consuming five bodies lying there. Cause—fears of cholera.

A Chicago special dispatch says there were 11 cases of cholera Friday, two of which were fatal.

OUT OF SEASON.—A day or two since two ladies from the country on a shopping excusion to the city dropped into a hardware store where agricultural implements are sold. They had read John's advertisements, and therefore innocently inquired for cradles. The storekeeper said it was rather late in the season for the article, and he had sold all he had purchased. The ladies looked at each other wonderingly, and whispered, laughingly, when one turning to the blushing John remarked, "Out of season! I thought babies were always in season."—New Bedford Standard.

—— A mine of amber, used for paint, has been discovered at Walpole, and the lands purchased by New Yorkers, who will work the mine.

—— The N. H. delegation that visited the White House in Washington on Friday, were Hon. Daniel Marcy, Hon. Henry Bingham, James M. Lovering, N. H. Clement, E. A. Hibbard, Dr. J. H. Smith, E. W. Webber, Ira M. Clark and John Hosley.

—— Union Stores are now quite common:—and in Concord, a Union Stable has just been erected, to accommodate eleven horses. It is erected and is to be managed at the joint expense of the owners, who will hire the groom to take care of the horses, harness them, &c. Ex-President Pierce is one of the owners.

—— Senator Cragin reached home quite comfortably Saturday, Aug. 11, and was so as to ride out on Sunday. The journey, proved too much for him, and he is now suffering from a slight relapse of the fever, and is confined mostly to his bed. It is hoped that under the influence of our pure Northern air, he will speedily recover.—Lebanon Free Press.

—— The dwelling house, barn and outbuildings of Mr. Charles S. Davis, Effingham Centre, were entirely destroyed by fire on Thursday. A little boy of Mr. Davis' went into the barn with a match; igniting it he set fire to a straw, threw it upon the floor and in a moment found himself almost enveloped in flames. He made his escape, but got a little singed. There was but little saved from the house. Estimated loss $3000, upon which there was an insurance of $1500.

—— REV. E. M. WHEELOCK, formerly of Dover, is now Superintendent of Education of Refugees and Freedmen, in the State of Texas, and resides at Galveston.—In his report dated June 30, he states that there are 100 Freedmen's Schools in Texas, 47 of which are Day; 24 Night; and 29 Sunday Schools. The enrolled attendance for the month was 4,447; the number of teachers 65. These schools have been organized and sustained without aid from Northern charity, and without cost to Government, the entire expense being defrayed by a monthly tuition fee of $1.50, paid to the teacher by the scholar. This is paid with general promptness and suffices to support the teacher. The general condition of these schools is prosperous and satisfactory.

GRANITE STATE MILITARY AND COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.—The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of this Institution in our advertising columns. It is warmly commended by Gov. Smyth and other prominent men in the State. The military discipline and drill afford just the physical training our boys require, and we are glad to know that the Institution justly stands high in the public favor.

☞ A girl named Ella Furbish, of Webster, Me. had a narrow escape from being accidently shot, a few days since. A boy about fifteen years of age carelessly aimed a gun, supposed to be unloaded, at her head, and snapped it. Proving to be loaded, the gun was discharged; but fortunately the girl dodged just as the gun was discharged, and the charge just grazed her head, burning her neck slightly. It would seem as though the frequent accidents of this character, ought to put a stop to such criminal carelessness.

☞ A young man named Hay, near Warner's station, Syracuse, N. Y., has recently been insane on the subject of religion, and would frequently get out of bed at night and walk two or three miles to some clergyman, to be prayed for. On Saturday, while hoeing corn in a field, he threw down the hoe, started down the railroad, met the engine face to face and was cut to pieces.

☞ The Nashville Press and Times says two attempts have been recently made to burn down the office of the Jonesboro' (East Tennessee) Flag. Its proprietor, Captain Grisham, was in the Union army for four years, and it is said that the effort to fire his office was made by rebels.

REWARDS.—The President has appointed John L. Swift, Naval Officer at Boston; Gen. Gordon U. S. Marshal for the District of Massachusetts, and Nathaniel S. Howe Collector of Internal Revenue for the Sixth District of Massachusetts.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE DELEGATION instructs President Johnson!—The N. H. delegation to the Doolittle Convention, or a portion of them, called on President Johnson, Friday, when Mr. Bowers delivered a flattering address, and read the following resolution which had been prepared by the delegation:—

Resolved, By the united delgation from the State of New Hampshire to the National Union Convention, now in session in this city, that the present crisis demands the earnest efforts of both the administration and the people, to rescue the country from the perils now impending over it.

Therefore, we frankly declare to the President of the United States that if the conservative party cannot be sustained by the whole power and patronage of the administration, it will be a useless effort to attempt to sustain its policy in the coming contest with the real enemies of the Union, and we feel confident that with the earnest co-operation of the Executive Departments of the Government, we can return three conservative members of Congress at the next election.

Mr. J. made a gracious reply.

The Boston Journal's correspondent gives some of the conversation that followed.—The delegates explained the condition of political affairs in New Hampshire. It was believed the State could be carried in favor of the policy of the administration if proper judgment shall be exercised in the disposition of government patronage.

A Democratic member believed he spoke the unanimous sentiment of the Democratic party in New Hampshire, when he declared that he did not desire office for the Democrats. He preferred the offices should be bestowed upon conservative Republicans. The Democratic party would sustain the President without regard to the offices; they did not desire a general decapitation of office holders, but did hope the Federal office holders in New Hampshire who maligned the President and opposed his policy, should be removed. They wanted some assurance from the Executive.

Mr. J. replied, we have now a policy recognized by the most intelligent, able and patriotic body of men that has been convened since the days of the Declaration of Independence. A recognition of this policy and principles would be required of those who receive office and patronage from the Government.

The delegates expressed themselves highly gratified with what the President had said, and assured him that they would now go home with confidence in the success of the administration party in that State.

[We never expected to see the Great Democratic party of New Hampshire go down on its knees in Washington before a President whose election as Vice they opposed—and there beg crumbs of corruption to elect Representatives to Congress! nor to bear them say it is a useless effort to carry the State unless you help us! But here it is in black and white, in the above resolutions. Read it for yourselves, New Hampshire men, and say what you think of it.]

VALLANDIGHAM'S LETTER.—The New York News is grieved at the forced withdrawal of Vallandigham and Fernando Wood from the Philadelphia Convention, and says:—

"In originating and organizing a movement confessedly for the purpose of harmonizing all the elements that can be opposed to Radicalism, it is a most injudicious policy to begin with ostracising any of the friends of that purpose."

But this transaction, however inconsistent and absurd it appears on the face, is only a "show" for temporary purposes. Vallandigham's letter proves this. The Ohio delegation, in their resolution (which was the means of extracting him from the Convention) expressly concede his rights as a delegate, and indorse "the purity and patriotism of his motives and his fitness in every way to a seat in said Convention;" but they rather think it would tend to promote the objects of the Convention to have him withdraw. And to this view he yields, and does withdraw. Thus it appears that Vallandigham and the Convention are in entire harmony, and now the latter is adjourned, he is to give the cause his services and his vote. Only the wire-pullers have deemed it of immense consequence that they should be able to say to the people of the North that Vallandigham was not allowed to act as a member of the Convention—just as though the people could not read and understand the whole thing as well as these managers themselves.

—John Tabor has caused a decided sensation by starting the New Orleans Herald, a small five-cent daily paper, the only paper in that city that is sold for less than ten cents a copy. The other newspapers refuse to allow the Herald, or any other paper that is sold for less than ten cents, to have the associated Press dispatches, the newsboys refuse to sell the papers on the street, and the first number was published without a paying subscriber or advertiser.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken in cases of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. aul4awlm

It teaches how to remove Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Blotches, Moth Patches, Sallowness, Eruptions, and all impurities of the skin; how to enamel the skin, leaving it white and clear as alabaster; how to produce the fullest development of the female form (as practised by the French,) causing the bust to grow round and full, and if the form has been lost by padding, lacing, or maternity, restoring it to more than its original fullness, firmness and beauty. It teaches how to reduce in size the hands and feet; produce corpulency or the reverse; remove superfluous hair; cure Corns, Bunions, Weak and Roloes; renew your age; cure Drunkenness, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, &c., how to fascinate and gain the love and affection of any person you may choose, together with other useful and valuable information. ☞ A fine specimen of a pink pond lily may be seen at the bookstore of Mr. J. H. Foster. This is a rare and exquisite flower indeed—mostly of a clear rose color, but with the interior leaves variegated white and red, and very fragrant. This specimen was kindly sent us by express from Rochester, N. H., by an appreciative admirer of the beautiful; and though not at all common, yet this tinted lily is by no means so rare as the Boston Transcript talked about a few days since, for we have often heard of them at Rochester, and they can be plucked almost any time in their season, on Charles River, Mass., near Waltham for instance, where we have more than once got them.

POLICE COURT, Aug. 18.—John Norton, common drunkard, was sent to House of Correction for two months, and ordered to pay $5.57 costs.

George W. Moore, for drunkenness, was assessed $6.89, and failing to produce that small amount of filthy currency, was consigned to the House of Correction.

Communication.

☞ Our California friends Mair & Winchester, still remain in this vicinity, enjoying their visit east with zest, and dispensing hospitality to all their friends. On Friday of last week a party of thirty or forty friends and relatives were entertained at their residences on Lafayette Road, the gentlemenly hosts vying with the accomplished ladies of the families in rendering the occasion one of rare enjoyment. A visit to the stables of these gentlemen,—stocked with harnesses of the best manufacture and finest mountings, robes of the richest and most rare qualities; with carriages new, modern and stylish, and matched horses who have the "go" in them—teams that astonish the old fogies who have never seen the truth of the fact that money can be made a better means of enjoyment than by being "salted down" without being used,—well repays the visitor. A couple of fine new Dorchester buggies of Brown's make, each to be drawn by a span of horses, with barely room for two to sit in them comfortably and better adapted for but one rider, attracted our particular notice and take the shine from every thing in the shape of carriages in this vicinity. The stables in which the horses are kept are fit for dwelling houses, being kept constantly clean and neat—none too neat however for the noble animals who are domiciled there. We hope Messrs. M. & W. may remain amongst us for many months—or better still become permanent residents of this city—and wish them a continuation of the great prosperity they have experienced, because well merited. G.

HOURS AT HOME for September, comes to hand from Mr. J. Hiller Foster, with a good table of contents. Scribner & Co., publishers, New York.

GOV. FENTON of New York has requested Senators Morgan and Harris to attend the Convention of Southern Unionists in Philadelphia, on the 3d of September, and to re-assure these true and tried friends of the Union and Constitutional freedom that the Union party of New York fully appreciate their continued self-sacrificing efforts to place the States lately in revolt upon a just and stable basis; that it sympathizes with them and sincerely desires the re-establishment of loyal self-government in the communities lately in rebellion as soon as it is consistent with safety and future peace; that the Union party is anxious to see their respective States represented in Congress as early as a full assurance can be had that the power of the States will not thereby be placed in rebel hands, and that it will cordially co-operate to these ends.

☞ On the 12th instant, at Salisbury, Delaware, a young man named John Humphreys was escorting a lady relative to a funeral, when her husband, a man named James Cooper, met them and threatened to shoot Humphreys if he proceeded one step further, whereupon a brother of the lady, named Purnell Johnson, a very worthy citizen, said: "If you want to shoot any one, shoot me." Cooper instantly drew a revolver and shot Mr. Johnson through the heart. Mr. Josiah Ellingsworth, one of the most respectable as well as peaceable citizens of the State, attempted to restrain Cooper from further violence, whereupon he (Cooper) turned upon and shot him through the back, killing him in about five minutes. Another of the bystanders knocked Cooper down with a chair and tied him securely, with the assistance of the people present. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper had separated, and the latter had been living with her brothers for the last three or four months, and had applied for a divorce from her husband for alleged ill treatment.

— The New Orleans correspondent of the Houston Telegraph, after detailing at length the occurrences in the recent New Orleans riot, closes his letter by saying:—"Every one thinks this is but the beginning of a wide-spread and fearful contest, and in consequence the gun shops are doing a rushing business."

THIEVES CAUGHT AND CAGED.—It does not seem to be generally known, that persons who find lost money or goods, and do not advertise such property within six days, are liable to a fine. Yet such is the law in New Hampshire, and we suppose in other States.

In Portland, a thievish family of this kind have come to grief, as we perceive by an item in the Advertiser, from which it appears that about three weeks ago a lady lost twenty-two dollars. Nothing was heard of it until Friday, when officer Gerts received a hint that it had been picked up by a boy named Flaherty and given to his mother. Two officers arrested the boy, who confessed that his mother had the money. They went to the house and accused the mother. She at first denied having it, but finding denial useless delivered it up, and as an excuse said she was "only keeping it safe for the owner." They proceeded to search, and under the bed found a large box filled with goods to the amount of two hundred dollars stolen from Davis and Baxter's store; also a large lot of goods stolen from a store on Middle street. On the bed were found ten blankets, which Mrs. Flaherty claimed had been given her by the Relief Committee, but as her family only numbered four persons, the officers concluded they had been stolen or procured under false pretence, took possession of four of the blankets and the other goods.—They arrested the husband. Patrick was indignant; he only took the goods to get his just due; Baxter had hired him on the night of the fire with the agreement to pay him four dollars per hour, and as he did not receive it, he had concluded to pay himself. The officers could not see things in the same light as Patrick did, and he now lies in the lock-up awaiting trial.

— Thaddeus Stevens was on Wednesday re-nominated for Congress by the Union Republicans of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania.

— As one of the results of the war, it may be stated that there are at the present time in the United States no less than 25 manufactories of artificial legs.

— The sum of $2950 has been raised at Trenton, N. J., for the wife and children of the late Wm. Wright, formerly editor of the Press, of that city. Most of it was invested in a house for a home for them.

— The proprietor of Lloyd's Newspaper, in London, has just imported 279 tons of Esparto grass from Algeria, for the manufacture of paper for that journal. The cost of this kind of paper is one-half that of the linen fabric.

— It was announced on Wednesday, by Judge Barnard of the Supreme Court, New York, that all the Judges of that Court in the District coincided with him in the opinion that the excise law, passed by the Legislature in April last, is constitutional, and hence a valid law, which will be enforced and which must be obeyed.

Elegant Residence for Sale.
[On account of removal of owner.]
The well-known and beautifully situated CURTIS HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.
The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.
The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first-class wine cellar. The House is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.
The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.
If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.
The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery,—and so constituted as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

the Constitution upon the general government is prohibited by it to the States and the people thereof, and among the rights thus reserved to the States is that of prescribing the qualifications for the elective franchise, with which right Congress cannot interfere. No State or combination of States has the right to withdraw from the Union, or to exclude through their action in Congress, or otherwise, any State or States. The Union of these States is perpetual and its government is of supreme authority within the restrictions and limitations of the Constitution.

Resolved, That such amendments to the Constitution of the United States may be made by the people thereof as they may deem expedient, but only in the mode pointed out by its provisions, and in proposing such amendments, whether by Congress or a Convention, and in ratifying the same, all the States in the Union have an equal and indefeasable right to a voice and a vote thereon.

Resolved, That slavery is abolished and forever prohibited, and there is neither desire nor purpose on the part of the Southern States that it should ever be reestablished upon the soil or within the jurisdiction of the United States, and the enfranchised States should receive in common with every inhabitant equal protection in every right of person and property.

Resolved, That we regard as invalid and never to be assumed or made binding by obligation incurred or undertaken in making war against the United States, so holding the debt of the United States to be sacred and inviolable, and we proclaim our purpose to discharge this and all other national obligations and to maintain unimpaired and unimpeached our honor and faith of the Republic.

Resolved, It is the duty of the National Government to recognize the services of the federal soldiers and sailors in the contest just closed, by meeting promptly and freely all the just claims for the service they have rendered to the United States, and by extending to those who have survived and to the widows and children of those who have fallen, the most generous and considerate care.

Resolved, That in Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, who in his great office has proved steadfast in devotion to the Constitution and laws and the interest of his country, unmoved by persecution and undeserved reproach, we recognise a Chief Magistrate worthy of the United States and equal to the great crisis upon which his lot is cast, and we tender to him in discharge of his high and responsible duty our profound respect and assurance of our cordial and sincere support.

The Resolutions unanimously adopted, and the Convention dissolved.

From the Portsmouth Journal

THE UNIONISM OF VICE PRESIDENT STEPHENS.—There is a disposition manifested just now to "write up" the rebel Vice President into a place in the popular estimation, to which he has very little claim. At any rate, it will do no harm to call to mind the language of Mr. Stephens, in the United States House of Representatives, on the passage of the odious Nebraska bill, as a specimen of the fire-brand that ten years ago were scattered by such "Union" foxes as the captive Vice President:

"Well, gentlemen, you made a good deal of clamor on the Nebraska measure, but it don't alarm us at all. We have got used to that kind of talk. You have threatened before, but have never performed. You have always caved in, and you will again. You are a mouthing, white-livered set. Of course you will oppose; we expect that; but we don't care for your opposition. You will rail, but we don't care for your railing. You will hiss, but so will adders. We expect it of adders, and we expect it of you. You are like the devils that were pitched over the battlements of heaven into hell. They met up a bowl of discomfiture, and so will you. But their fate was sealed, and so is yours. You must submit to the yoke, but don't chafe. Gentlemen, we have got you in our power. You tried to drive us to the wall in 1850, but times are changed. ○ ○ ○ You went a-woeling, and have come home fleeced. Don't be so impudent as to complain. You will only be slapped in the face. Don't resist. You will only be lashed into obedience."

HENRY A. WISE ON SLAVERY.—Ex-Governor Henry A. Wise of Virginia, in an address lately delivered at Norfolk in that State for the benefit of the Southern churches devastated by the war, argued that the rebellion was brought about in the providence of God for the destruction of slavery, but that it was wrong to punish individuals for acts clearly committed in accordance with the design of the Almighty. Governor Wise said:

"He is, I fear, an infidel who doesn't see that the fire and sword of this war were sent from heaven. God knew that we could be torn away from our black helots, slavery only by fire and blood and the drawn sword of the destroying angel of war. He sent them and we ought to praise the Most High that he did not send worse plagues, like those of Egypt, against whatever weakness or wickedness we clung to like Pharaoh. But I appeal to Christian charity, and to every known law, whether individual citizens and persons ought to be indirectively punished by man or government for the acts of sovereign States and the inevitable interposition of Divine Providence."

If we recollect aright there was one John Brown hung in Virginia by the direction of the same Governor Wise. John Brown was most distinctly as important an "interposition of Divine Providence" for the destruction of Slavery, as any single act of the war. Will not the Gov. begin to look upon the martyr as St. John Brown?

SAD CALAMITY.—A minister burned to death.—A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, writing from Tipton, Mo., under date of August 5th, has the following:

It is with sorrow I inform you of a terrible accident which happened here on the 28th of July. Rev. Harvey Chapin, Presbyterian minister, aged sixty years, and late of Michigan, was burned to death by the accidental catching fire of his dwelling house. Himself and three children were at one time safe from danger, but in his anxiety to reach a trunk sitting in the hall of the stairs, and containing a small amount of gold, he fell with the burning stairs and in a moment more the entire roof fell upon him. He was burned to a black crisp in sight of his three now orphan children. Spectators were unable to render any assistance towards his rescue on account of the great heat.

The Richmond Examiner, in commenting upon the hisses and groans given by the reconstructed rebels of Kentucky for Grant and Sherman, says:

"Not only in Kentucky, but throughout the Union and the world, Grant and Sherman will decline in estimation, while President Johnson and General Lee will be recognized in all their purity, good greatness."

This tells its own story, and therefore requires no comment.

It was rumored in Norfolk that the property of Henry A. Wise had been restored to him. It is situated near Drummondtown on the eastern shore of Virginia. It is said that the freedmen occupying it have been ordered to vacate it, and that an agent has been sent from Washington to put Mr. Wise in possession.

☞ The following letter from William Cullen Bryant will be read with pleasure by all who wish success to the introduction of GOOD DOMESTIC WINES:

NEW YORK, March 20, 1866.

DEAR SIR:—I am glad of the opportunity of saying that the California Wines introduced here by PARKINS, STERN & CO., seem to me of excellent quality and perfectly pure from any foreign intermixture. The kind which bears the name of California Port, in particular, meets with very general favor. Some time since I received from the Portuguese minister a box of Port directly from Oporto, of very fine quality, and this California Port is nearer to it in flavor than anything I have met with since.

I am, respectfully yours,
(Signed) W. C. BRYANT.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857, 78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Reissues, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Examines into the validity of Home or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters appertaining to the same. Opinions of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, with a complete collection of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made to me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such uninterrupted success argues talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of receiving the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

APPLES—PREMATURE GATHERING.—It is a subject of general remark among farmers, (says the Roral New Yorker,) that apple orchards are much less reliable of late years than they formerly were. The reason of the change is generally found in or referred to an increase of insect enemies of fruit—especially of the apple. There is some truth, we are inclined to think, in this theory, but it hardly suffices to account wholly, or even principally, for the decreasing productiveness of the apple orchards.

It is well known that the last thirty years have witnessed unlooked for changes in the circumstances of the country—mutations brought about by the introduction of the railroad system. The consequence is that towns and cities have sprung up all over the land, making a hundred local markets now where one could scarcely have been found thirty years ago. These new places have become marts for farm products, mature and immature, to say nothing of the great and increasing demand for them in the Atlantic cities. The greatly multiplied facilities of transportation—the rapidly increasing population of towns and cities—and the consequent augmented demand for farm products, especially for the apple, have led to premature gathering of this crop. In former years the apple tree was allowed to perfect the growth of fruit till it fell from the pendant boughs by the action of autumnal winds, aided occasionally by manipular vibrations. In those days there was no complaint of a lack of apples, for the ripening influences of nature were not interfered with by an over hasty greed for farm products.

Now, however, the case is changed. The proximity of markets leads to premature assaults upon the apple orchards. The trees are stripped of their half ripened fruit, often by persons who care nothing for the health and perpetuity of the trees; hence it is, that when the operation of stripping is complete, the ground under and around them is literally covered with the small twigs or branches from which the pedicle of the fruit proceeds. This is believed to be wrong, nor need it be a matter of surprise if orchards subjected to this harvesting process show decreased productiveness, become sickly in appearance, and in a few years cease to bear, or die in consequence of the treatment received.

This may be an error, but our impression is the reverse, and it would be well, perhaps, for orchardists to assume its correctness and act accordingly. A more lenient treatment of the apple tree can certainly do no harm, while there is a chance that positive good may result from it.

☞ It seems scarcely credible that a country like England should pay to foreigners in one year a sum nearly equal to half a million sterling for such an item as onions. It appears, however, by the latest statistical issue of the Board of trade, that Holland sent 290,812 bushels; Belgium, 115,312 bushels; France, 106,663 bushels; Portugal, 102,969 bushels; and various other countries 13,821 bushels. The total value being set down at £490,973, the average price varying from 5s. 6d. to 17s. 10d. per bushel; the former having reference to the produce of Portugal, the latter to that of Belgium.

— Two wealthy citizens of Pittsfield have each signed a bond for $500 that they will not drink any intoxicating liquor for one year.

By a New England Lady.
A New Novel by the Author of 'Madge,'
D. APPLETON & COMPANY,
443 & 445 Broadway, New York,
PUBLISH THIS DAY,
"SHERBROOKE."
By H. B. G., Author of "Madge." 1 vol. 12 mo. Cloth. Price $2.00.
The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and ennobling; at the same time the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. 'Aunt Lydia' and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. 'Hope,' the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for 'Sherbrooke' an immense sale."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 21, 1866.

THE PRESIDENT of the United States has issued a proclamation, dated Aug. 20, recognizing the new civil government of Texas, and reciting Resolutions of Congress, Presidential Proclamations, &c.—The closing paragraphs are as follows:—

And whereas, adequate provision has been made by military orders to enforce the execution of the acts of Congress and civil authorities and secure obedience to the Constitution and laws within the State, if a resort to military force for such purposes should at any time become necessary.

Now, therefore, I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and declare that the insurrection which heretofore existed in the State of Texas is at an end, and is to be henceforth so regarded in that State as in the other States before named on which the said insurrection was proclaimed to be at an end by the aforesaid proclamation of the 2d day of April. And I do further proclaim that said insurrection is at an end, and that peace, order, tranquility and civil authority now exists in and throughout the whole of the United States of America.

A FOUL LIBEL.—A New England paper (more's the shame) speaks in the following terms of Gen. Howard, chief of the Freedmen's Bureau, a brave officer and noble christian man:

Its head, sitting here at the seat of government, surrounded by a sanctimonious air of piety and benevolence, permits the whole machinery to be used to undermine the government and defeat its policy.

What does this mis-called democrat mean by "the government"? Are we under a Monarchy? We had always supposed, till recently, that there were various branches of our government, and that it was a Republic, in which the Legislature had something to say about the policy to be pursued. Gen. Howard, so far as he has been suffered to act freely, has done as well as any man could do under such circumstances. And because he has done so, he receives the abuse of the base and vile.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says further efforts have been made for the release of Jefferson Davis. The intervention in his behalf comes from leading men both of the North and South, who lay particular stress upon the fact that, if not soon set at liberty, he will be beyond all human power or human relief. The President, however, is careful not to commit himself with respect to his intentions.

[Well: he is the President's prisoner; he doubtless supports the "policy,"—and the President holds the pardoning power; and can do as he sees fit about exercising it. But we don't feel sure that Jeff. is about to die;—and if he should happen to expire in the fort,—(where he has every thing he wants, except "wine and cigars" as his wife says—and no doubt has them by this time,) what then? Is he better than our poor boys who died by starvation in the prison pens at Andersonville and elsewhere, while Jeff. & Co. reigned in Richmond? He could have released or relieved them: Mr. Johnson can release him, if he pleases.]

MISSOURI.—Governor Fletcher has issued a proclamation bearing upon the present and prospective condition of the State, in which he says that the combined power of the National and State Governments will be used to enforce obedience to the laws of the nation and State, until such laws are modified or repealed in a constitutional way, or declared void by a competent court; that the present Constitution is the supreme law of the State; that the registration law will be enforced and elections conducted in conformity therewith; that the annual enrollment of the militia will be made according to law and irrespective of the political status of opinion; that no arrests will be made except as authorized by law, but that when the civil process cannot be executed with the assistance of an ordinary posse, the officers will call for the aid of the militia, and that no armed or organized body of men will be allowed to appear at the polls, or peaceful assemblages of the people, except by order of the Governor or Department Commander. All citizens are urged to aid the constituted authorities in the maintenance of good order.

☞ The troubles at Drummondtown, on the eastern shore of Virginia, have again broken out between the whites and blacks. A company of troops—Co. F, 12th U. S. Infantry, Lieut. Keys commanding—fifty in number, was sent, and will be stationed on the eastern shore.

☞ In Philadelphia, the National Hall on Market street has been engaged for the meeting of the Loyal Southern Convention on the 3d of September. The building is one of the largest in the city, and not far from the centre of business.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Records of Hillsboro' County have been removed from Amherst to Nashua.

—— Chase's great steam tannery, at Bakersville, near Manchester, was burnt Friday night, for the second time within two years. Loss $12,000 or more. Cause, friction of the bark mill. The vats were partially filled with hides. What condition they may be in, as they were under the building, has not yet been ascertained.

—— Major George H. Chandler of Concord, has been appointed clerk of the commission lately raised to revise and codify the United States statutes. Major Chandler is at present a student in the Cambridge Law School. He graduated at Dartmouth College in 1860, and during the war served with distinction in the 9th New Hampshire Volunteers.

—— The House of Reformation, which was partially destroyed by fire the 20th of December last, has since been re-built and repaired, substantially upon the same plan of the old building, and will be ready for occupancy in about three weeks. The Insurance Companies preferred to put the building in as good condition as before the fire, rather than to pay the amount it was insured for.

—— The editor of the Manchester Mirror, says he saw this year at the farm of the House of Reformation, for the first time, a second crop of fodder corn from the same stalks. They commenced in July cutting this corn up for the cows, a wagon load a day, which has been followed since. Where the cutting first commenced, the corn is now some three feet high, and we noticed some of it just sending out spindles. A few rows looked pretty even. Then it begins to fall off where it was cut later, and continues to fall off until it comes to where it don't start at all.

FIRE IN BOSTON.—Cook & Jordan's coal, lime, wood and lumber wharf, on New Albany street, was the scene of a most fierce and destructive conflagration from twelve o'clock Saturday night until three o'clock Sunday morning.

The fire, it is thought, originated in the engine house, and the flames communicated to about five hundred barrels of lime, and double that quantity of plaster and cement, which were stored in close proximity to a bark lying a few yards beyond. The heat was so intense that the gas generated produced a combustion of the lime, which was followed with loud reports as the compact masses exploded.

From this place the flames spread to a barque and schooner which were lying at the wharf aground; the upper rigging caught, fell through the lower rigging to the decks, setting fire to everything. The bark was loaded with coal, and the schooner with wood; both burnt to the water's edge, so rapidly that the crews barely escaped with their lives.

The stable upon the wharf, which contained sixteen horses and about two tons of hay, was also burned. Four of the horses perished in the flames. The coal shed, which was a wooden structure about three hundred feet in length, and fifty in width, was entirely consumed. Two families were burnt out. Whole loss $100,000.

☞ At Jersey City on Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, a fire broke out at Valentine's oil yard, and spread to the house, which was full of oil, destroying all in the house and yard. It then spread to the California Steamship Company's dock, destroying one ship and bark, and also about twenty lighters and canal boats lying adjacent to Valentine's oil yard. The Erie Railroad Company sustained considerable loss. Twenty cars were burned, mostly loaded with grain, and a small portion of the new coal coal pier. It is supposed that three men who were on board a canal boat asleep perished. The fire originated in an oil laden lighter from the striking of a match. Loss of vessels and cargoes, $400,000; docks, $210,000; cotton, $70,000; railroad cars, $80,000; oil depot, &c., $300,000. Whole loss, between one and two millions.

STEAM BOILER EXPLOSION.—Mr. H. L. Macomber, watchmaker and jeweler in Castine, Me., while running a miniature engine under a heavy pressure of steam last Saturday was blown over the counter by the bursting of the boiler, totally blinding him for the while with steam and ashes from the furnace. The explosion also strewed the floor with limbs of unfortunate soldiers, and other toys of every description, reminding one of the sad havoc wrought by steamboat explosions, but with less serious results. As usual, "no blame attached to the engineer."

A RICHMOND VIEW.—Senator Doolittle said in his speech in Philadelphia, "the South has been punished, and in my judgement sufficiently punished, to make her feel most keenly the enormity of the crime which there originated." The Richmond Enquirer forthwith read him a lecture, and said, "what he calls punishment, we feel to have been an outrage, and when he speaks of enormous crime, there is not a Southern man whose judgement does not lay the epithet at the door of the North itself."—[There's harmony!]

PRESENTATION TO THE PRESIDENT.—Last Saturday, the event in Washington was the coming together of President Johnson and the admirers of his policy who were delegated by the Philadelphia Convention to wait upon him and present a copy of the proceedings of that body.

The interview took place in the East Room, which was more than half filled by the Committee. The President entered in company with Reverdy Johnson, Senator Doolittle, Secretary McCulloch and Secretary Welles. Then followed the delegates to the Philadelphia Convention, to the number of about five hundred, completely filling the room, Hon. Reverdy Johnson proceeded to deliver the proceedings of the Philadelphia convention, and made a speech laudatory of President Johnson and his policy. The President replied in his usual egotistic style. Mr. Seward was not present, but Gen. Grant was.

At the conclusion of the President's remarks three cheers were given for Andrew Johnson, and three more for Gen. Grant. The President and General then retired arm-in-arm, and the committee and the audience dispersed.

The Boston Herald says:

The presence of Gen. Grant, who accompanied the President and stood upon his right hand, is regarded as significant, and the radicals are much chagrined at what they regard as the practical endorsement by him of the reconstruction policy in opposition to Congress.

So we should think, if this is what it means,—and not only would be chagrin among radicals, but grief and indignation among thousands of freemen who never supposed they were radical. But it may mean something else.

MAGAZINES.—Ever beautiful, ever pleasing, "Our Young Folks" is a great favorite. September number received from the publishers, Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

With increasing years Godey shows no decrease of ardor in catering to the tastes of the ladies in his "Lady's Book." The September number has a fine steel engraving—"Resting at the Well"—with numerous other illustrations.

Peterson's Magazine, published by Chas. J. Peterson, and the Lady's Friend, published by Deacon & Peterson, Philadelphia, come to perplex a poor bachelor with their many details of female apparel and ladies' work in general.

"The Galaxy" for September 1 begins the second volume, having achieved a decided success during its first. Published fortnightly, at $5 a year, by W. C. & F. P. Church, New York.

BOWERS.—Some readers have inquired what Bowers is it that has represented New Hampshire at the Wigwam and White House. We could not answer, but a correspondent of the Boston Journal gives the answer. He states that—

"C. D. Bowers," whose name figures as chairman of the New Hampshire delegation has lived in New Hampshire only since last winter, does not possess a foot of soil, never cast a vote or paid a dollar of taxes there, and yet he assumed to pledge the State for three "my policy" members of Congress, provided the President will place the Federal offices therein appertaining at their disposal! The laugh comes in, when it is understood that the temporary residence of this "representative man" is in the stanch Republican town of Claremont, good any day for 400 Republican majority.

A SIGNIFICANT PREDICTION. — The Louisville Journal—whose wishes certainly run counter to its predictions—says:

"The shouts for Jeff. Davis, Lee, ect., which have been heard at many a gathering in Kentucky during the late canvass, were heard at the Court House in Louisville, on Friday night last, and again, boisterously, for Lee and Johnson at Fest Hall on Saturday night, and on the streets of Louisville, after the Duvall triumph on Monday, following the riot in Memphis and the late riot in New Orleans,—will in all human probability lead to a train of events that will establish negro suffrage throughout the whole Southern States within two years and a half or three years at the furthest."

☞ H. Rives Pollard, the editor of the Richmond Enquirer, who regretted that the rebels should not succeed "for the sake of the moral distinctiveness, well known superiority in civilization, political scholarship and high standard of individual character of the people of the South over those of the North," has been indicted for whipping a woman at Richmond. He started for Washington after being put under bonds for $1000, and this amount has been forfeited.

☞ We see it stated that Hon. Joseph A. Gilmore, who is still in feeble health, has permanently retired from the Superintendency of the Concord Railroad. No successor has been appointed, but Mr. James R. Kendrick, late Assistant, is very acceptably performing the duties. No man in the State has shown greater public spirit and energy, or better appreciation of the power and importance of the press, than Mr. Gilmore, and none has been more liberal and courteous to the craft than he. We wish him speedy restoration to health, and long enjoyment of leisure—it indeed such a high-pressure business man as he can ever enjoy leisure at all.

THE LATE REV. MR. HORTON.—A dispatch from Rev. Thomas W. Conway, dated at New York, says: "The remains of Rev. Mr. Horton, murdered in New Orleans by rebels, are on their way to Boston on the steamer Gen. Grant, which left New Orleans Monday last. The citizens of Boston and especially the members of the Baptist denomination, should dispose of the remains with becoming solemnity and honor. Mr. Horton was an officer of the Freedmen's Bureau under me and was a faithful Christian man, a lover of the flag and died a martyr to liberty."

THE ATMOSPHERE OF LOVE is a pure, sweet breath. This desideratum is one of the results of using SOZODONT, which not only invigorates and preserves the Teeth, but renders the mouth as a fragrant as a rose. 33

SYMPATHY.—Sympathy is a lovely and beautiful thing, for it exhibits the angelic part of human nature. We deeply sympathize with those who cannot obtain Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, for they are deprived of one of the greatest luxuries the world affords. But we have no sympathy with any family who will use any other Saleratus or soda, if this article can be purchased. We see most of our Merchants have it. One trial will convince any one. Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York. 1

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Annual Session, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles, and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FORCES is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

HYGIENIC WINE
is moreover
MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE. In the second place it should be MILD. PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken in cases of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaint, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as at almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. auldawlm

☞ Some miserable scamp of a thief stole lanterns and other costly fixtures from two or three nice Hacks at the Stone Stable and Sides & Co.'s stable at the West End—worth little or nothing others than the owners, but a hundred or two dollars to them. See the advertisement of the same. Much other such property has been stolen from the stone stable and other places within a few months.

☞ An additional gas light has just been placed at the junction of Church street and Market Square. That's good enough for you, Tebbets—and will help show folks the way into your nice new saloons.

☞ We judge that the large amount of business transacted in the Police Court of late has thinned the ranks of the "common drunks," as Judge Odell's matinee was unattended on Monday.

☞ We had supposed all the mules in this vicinity to be those used in the mill, but on Monday we saw a white specimen of this long-eared animal driven through our streets in harness.

☞ Can any of our exchanges who are advertising for Simonds & Co., Fitzwilliam, N. H., inform us if that firm pays its bills?

☞ Josh Ward accepts the offer of Walter Brown to pull a three-mile race in Portland harbor for $1000 a side—Ward to have $200 for expenses. The race to be rowed some day of the first week in September next.

☞ In Chicago, a fire took place on Sunday morning, originating in Van Horn, Murray & Co.'s tobacco warehouse, destroying that and adjoining property valued at $500,000; insured $300,000, mostly in New York companies.

CHOLERA.—At St. Louis, reports from the different cemeteries in the city for the week ending on Friday, show that there were 768 burials, of which 532 were from cholera. In addition to these, there were 127 interments made in the regular city cemetery, of which 116 were from cholera. These returns do not include the deaths at quarantine, or those at the small pox hospitals in the various wards. Sanitary committees are energetically at work, and the Board of Health reports the disease abating.

At Cincinnati, 69 deaths from cholera were reported on Saturday, and 54 on Sunday.

At New York, Sunday, fourteen new cases of cholera were reported, and 14 in Brooklyn.

☞ With the number for September 1st, "Every Saturday" will be changed from 32 to 40 pages. The great success of the journal justifies and demands this enlargement. The conductors will hereafter introduce as a feature Serial Stories, in compliance with a general desire. They will select only those of a first-class character, and of readable quality. "Silcote of Silcotes," by Henry Kingsley, has just been begun, and others will follow shortly. Every Saturday will continue to present the most readable, interesting and valuable Stories, Essays, Sketches and Poems from the foreign journals and periodicals. Translations from the French periodicals will form a regular and important feature. A most thrilling story, from the French of Edmund About, will be given in September. Ticknor & Fields, publishers, Boston.

A HOUSE SAVED BY A DOMESTIC FIRE ENGINE.—The following, from an English paper, conveys a useful hint to housekeepers:—

A fire broke out in a bed-room at Cassiobury, the seat of Lord Essex, on Thursday night, but was soon extinguished by a process which is worth calling attention to. Lord Essex keeps on each floor of his house a small engine on wheels, always charged and in good order. In this case he says: "In two minutes I was in the room with one of them. It was like a furnace. The curtains, shutters, casements and cornices of both windows were burning and crackling from floor to ceiling. I was quite alone at the moment, yet before assistance arrived (most of the servants having gone to bed) I had completely subdued the fire of one window without exhausting the engine, and very soon extinguished the other. So fierce was the fire that the lead of the casements was melted, and the casements themselves were burned off their hinges. I will only add that, by God's mercy, the house was saved by this small engine. Had it not been at hand in order, most assuredly Cassiobury would now be a heap of ruins. The engine, even when full, runs so light on the floor that any woman might draw it and also work it."

— Science is to have full toleration in Spain, so long as it is not made an instrument of political propagandism, or for attacking the religion of Spain.

— Sch. Oconee, Pierce, engaged in the shore mackereling business, arived at this port on Monday, with 240 bbls of mackerel, which she obtained in three seinings. At the third haul it was estimated that there were 500 barrels in the seine, and the pressure was so great that it burst while drawing it up, and a large portion of the mackerel escaped. They succeeded, however, in saving about 140 barrels, all large and fat.—Gloucester Advertiser.

— A Washington special dispatch states that Mr. Stanton will soon be appointed Minister to Spain, and Gen. Steadman Secretary of War.

— A few days ago two men were signalled for to go to the assistance of a mackerel schooner at the Pool, near Saco, and were promised shares for their assistance in helping to haul in an overloaded net. Their labor lasted during one night, and their shares were sold for $144 each. A good night's work this.

Ayer's Pills.
ARE you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and derranges its natural functions. These, if not relieved, re-act upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in this condition, take Ayer's Pills and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyancy of feeling or health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint is also true in many of the dangerous and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely cured by the same means. None who know the virtue of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness, Constipation, Heartburn, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Worms and Suppression, when taken in large doses.
They are Sugar Coated, so that the most sensitive can take them easily, and they are surely the best purgative medicine yet discovered.
Ayer's Ague Cure.
For the Speedy and Certain Cure of Intermittent Fever, or Chills and Fever, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.
This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse the assertions.
Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Dealers in Medicines everywhere. Jy2

Elegant Residence for Sale.
[On account of removal of owner.]
The well-known and beautifully situated CUTTS HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.
The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market. Also,
The stable is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first-class wine cellar. The house is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.
The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.
If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.
The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery.—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

THE WORLDING.

The bluest skies, the softest airs,
The sweetest odors, all the day,
And morning lays her loveliest snares
To lure the wording on his way.

Here from ten thousand flickering leaves
Her breezy fingers shake the dew,
That while a shadow net she weaves,
Large flakes of splendor sifting through.

The sweeping fields are starred with gold—
Bright glimpse of Nature's garnered wealth—
And there the sweet-breath'd buds unfold
To take his heedless heart by stealth.

There deftly stretched on grassy spears
The spider's curious web outlies!
A marvel hung with heaven's own tears,
It catches not its rovers eyes.

Amid the elm-tree's feathery spray
The tireless robin whistles clear,
And from the woods that skirt the way
With verdure constant all the year—

Hark—deep within their deepest hush,
Divine calm and rapture-sweet,
The singing of the hermit-thrush
Fills and o'erflows his blest retreat.

On glancing wings, the butterfly
Hints how the soul, new-born to bliss,
For the wide freedom of the sky
Forsakes her narrow chrysalis.

He knows, he hear, he does not see—
The worlding wrapt in worldly schemes;
What wonder, then, that such as he
Count faith's most glorious visions dreams?

If all that he might see and touch
Be lost upon his grovelling soul—
If Nature's little heart-throbs, such
Can he receive the sacred Whole?

Stay! lest our judgment set a board
For him who notes the sparrow's fall,
Who, in a loving, endless care
Of imperfections cares for all.

He in the form of man restored
The blind, the deaf, the dumb, of old:
As then men cry: "Have mercy, Lord!"
Still clinging to His garmented fold.

Nor these alone He patient heeds;
But still the stubborn knee He bends;
Still gently answering all their needs,
Wins foe and stranger for His friends.

Pass on, poor worlding! unaware
That self-rebuked for judging thus,
I track thee with a silent prayer
To Him who gave my sight to me:—

Reveal Thyself, O Christ the Whole,
And Nature's Part shall glorious shine;
Flash all Thy beauty on his soul—
Thy beauty is indeed divine!

Reveal Thyself, O Lovely One,
And he shall count creation cough
But the fair robe Thou put'st on—
A robe of light with wonders wrought.

—HARRIET M'EWEN KIMBALL.

ARKANSAS.—An Englishman named George Russell, traveling on foot in Arkansas recently, was seized by some men whose horses had been stolen, and who supposed that the stranger must have taken them. He protested his innocence, but they threatened to hang him if he did not instantly tell who his confederates were. He still denied all knowledge of the matter, and they placed a halter round his neck, hung him up to a tree, and cutting him down after he had grown black in the face, again threatened him unless he confessed. Again he told them he could not, and again they hanged him till he was almost dead, and took him before a magistrate, by whom he was put in prison. He remained there a few weeks, was tried and acquitted, and started on foot for Memphis, Tenn., where he was found dead on the bluff soon after his arrival. He died from want and exposure, the jury said. The Memphis Avalanche says he was a refined gentleman, and having heard glowing accounts of Arkansas, visited that State, but his means giving out, and no remittances reaching him, he was compelled to walk and work his way; and that the treatment he received, and unaccustomed labor and exposure, killed him.

An old offender was recently introduced to a new Country Justice, at John Simmons, alias Jones, alias Smith. "Well, try the two women first," said the Justice, "bring in Alice Jones."

The Chronicle.

VIRTUES OF COLD WATER.—John S. Colton, Fall River, Mass., has drank nothing but cold water for thirty years, and all that time has been clear of sick headache, which he had suffered from previously. He says, "I make no use of the following articles: Rum, brandy, gin, wine, beer, tobacco, cigars, snuff, tea, coffee, chocolate and butter. I draw my beverage from the well. I am 71 years old, and if you can find a man who has had better health than I during the past 34 years, I wish to see him. I never drank a glass of spirit in my life, and but little wine."

— A rattlesnake was killed near Bellerville, Texas, recently, which was fourteen feet long, six inches thick, and had forty-two rattles. Three men, armed with fence rails, had a desperate combat with it.—Ex.

[A great snake, or a very great story: probably the latter.]

— The work of church building is being rapidly pushed forward at this time by various denominations in Washington. The Lutherans are in the act of erecting a church that will cost $75,000; the Baptists have nearly completed one costing $100,000, and one man has paid it all. The Wesley Chapel Society is making efforts to secure $200,000, in order to erect a "Metropolitan Church." The Episcopalians and Roman Catholics are also moving in the same direction.

— The Italian journals report a frightful catastrophe at Piacenza. A small powder-mill blew up, and communicated the fire to a factory of catridges, which likewise exploded. About sixty young women, some soldiers, and several civil laborers who were employed on the premises, were all buried in the burning ruins. The exact number of the dead and wounded is not known.

— A captain of a sail-boat on the Potomac the other day got very drunk, and fell into the river. Not knowing that he was in the Potomac, but believing that he had fallen into the hold of the vessel, and that it had filled with water, he cried out, "Come here, Jemmy, and steer the boat, while I bail her out." He was rescued.

— A resident of one of the rural districts hearing something said about the German dist, inquired what was meant by this diet. "Oh," said a bit of a wag, "it is one glass beer, one pretzel and one bologna." The countryman acknowledged himself entirely satisfied.

— "Mother," said little Ned, one morning, after having fallen out of bed, "I think I know why I fell out of bed last night. It was because I slept too near where I got in." Musing a little while, as if in doubt whether he had given the right explanation, he add ed: "No, that wasn't the reason; it was because I slept too near where I fell out."

— In Adrian, Mich., a lady observing a dilling with a steeple, asked her gentleman attendant, "What church is that?" The gentleman, after reading the sign, "Deluge No. 3," replied—"I guess it must be the Third Baptist."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

By a New England Lady.
A New Novel by the Author of 'Madge.'
D. APPLETON & COMPANY,
443 & 445 Broadway, New York,
PUBLISH THIS DAY,
"SHERBROOKE."
By H. B. G., Author of "Madge." 1 vol. 12 mo. Cloth. Price $2.00.
The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and ennobling; at the same time the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. 'Aunt Lydia' and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. 'Hope,' the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for 'Sherbrooke' an immense sale."

A LESSON FOR US.—A New England paper, strange to say—holds this language:

The question of England towards Ireland is very much like the policy of the North toward the South in this country—that is, as much alike as similar questions can be under a monarchical and republican government. Only Ireland is sore with generations of injustice, while in this country the question has just opened. The discontent of Ireland, under various form, has continued ever since its conquest by England, and it is likely to continue until Ireland is admitted to an entire equality with the other component parts of Great Britain, or has achieved its independence. Is there not a lesson for us in the history of Ireland under British rule?

Truly there is a lesson for us:—exactly like that which our fathers of the revolution placed at the beginning of their Declaration of Independence, viz, "That all men are created EQUAL"—and that while this is denied and the right withheld, there must be trouble, as there ought to be; but when it is acknowledged, and the right is given, the trouble may cease.

It is not true, however, as the above extract suggests, that the North holds, or wishes to hold, the South in an unequal union, or to make the South inferior. On the contrary WE of the North, have been held, for three-quarters of a century, in unfair, unequal union, whereby votes for three-fifths of all slaves were always represented in Congress by the slaveholders! and now the Congress of the United States (more than two-thirds of both houses) have voted to remove this inequality, and the People of "the North" mean to ratify it.

But this equality is opposed, by corrupt men in Washington and in Philadelphia, by pen and press and convention;—and in New Hampshire by some men who beg for bread [and butter, and by others who beg the President to give them votes whereby they hope to get into Congress.

Congress and the People propose to equalize the scale in some measure:—but the policy party propose to have the balance more unequal than ever before—and to keep it so just as long as their Southern Masters please. U. T.

☞ The Boston Herald's Washington correspondent of Monday says:

The pressure against the retention of Secretary Stanton in the Cabinet is so strong that it is now universally conceded he is about to go out. Western influence is being brought to bear very strongly in favor of Gen. Frank P. Blair as his successor, but Gen. Steedman is regarded as the one most likely to obtain the position.

The interview of the Missouri delegation to the Philadelphia Convention with the President at noon to-day was of an important character. They represented that they are tyrannized over by the present State Government, and unless the General Government and the military sustained them, it was doubtful if a man in the State dare take sides with the Administration! They stated that the Federal appointments in Missouri were in the hands of the enemies of the Administration. The President assured them that justice should be done them, and that Gen. Hancock, at present commanding that military department, and who was on the spot, would faithfully perform his duty.

[There's something queer in the announcement from such people that a State Government can tyrannize!—and stranger still for such wonderful State Sovereignty men to call on the "Central Despotism" to give them military aid in an election.—But then Justice shall be done, says the President, i. e. he will turn out the present U. S. officers, and fill their places with policy men.]

TERSELY PUT.—Through all disguises, and over all forms, the great issue before the American people is, shall the Union be governed by the men who have preserved it, or by those who attempted to destroy it? Shall we intrust our highest and most precious interests to our friends or to our enemies?—Providence Journal.

☞ Chaplain Horton, one of the victims of the New Orleans massacre, was a lineal descendant of General Joseph Warren.

— The Times says "Bath is a queer place. Every one knows more of every body's else business than they know themselves." Bath is not the only place troubled with the same nuisance.

— The body of a man named George Grassell was found in the woods behind Sharpe's rifle factory, Hartford, Conn., on Saturday morning. He had committed suicide by shooting himself. He was 55 years of age, a married man, and by occupation a gardeer. Intemperance and family troubles consequent led him to commit the act of self-destruction.

— The local editor of the Hannibal Daily Courier is the wealthiest newspaper man in the West. He sums up his worldly possessions in this wise: Mrs. Local (par value) $1,000,000; one five years' old Local, $500,000; one seven weeks' old Local, $250,000; cash on hand, 43 cents; due on account, $1; sundries, 12 cents. Total, $1,750,001.55.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Amos Lawrence of Amherst, has founded a $1000 scholarship in Dartmouth college.

—— The Dover Inquirer speaks of "the Northern Railroad as one of the best examples of skillful railroading in the country, whose stock has, under the management of Mr. Stearns, risen in the market from $40 per share in 1858, to $106.

—— Lieut. Daniel Eldredge, of Ossipee, has just been honorably discharged from the U. S. service in the Veteran Reserve Corps. He enlisted in the 3d reg. N. H. V. in August 1861. He was wounded in 1864.

—— The Hedding (Methodist) Camp Meeting at Epping, is to commence Monday, Aug. 27, and continue till Saturday.—Trains on the C. & P. Railroad take passengers to and from the Camp Meeting for one fare, with five cents added for U. S. tax.

—— A correspondent of the Boston Journal sends to that office the remains of a toy India rubber balloon, stating that it was shot down at Seabrook, N. H., on Sunday at noon, when floating in the air, at an altitude of some fifty yards, by Francis C. Beckman of that town. A bit of brown paper tied to the mouth of the balloon has written on it with a pencil the words: "East Boston, August 19, 10 A. M." Seabrook is distant about fifty miles from Boston; so that giving no allowance for turning corners, and changeable winds, the tiny balloon made its voyage at the rate of about twenty-five miles an hour.

THE PROSECUTION OF EX-GOV. EYRE. The English papers publish two letters from the widow of the late Hon. Wm. Gordon, of Jamaica, addressed to the parliamentary committee on the insurrection in that island in which she declines to become the prosecutor against Ex-Governor Eyre, but declares it is not her intention to interfere in case the "committe consider it advisable, on the grounds of the public interests and public justice, and especially with reference to the future security of the black race, to take proceedings for the vindication of these great principles, so outraged by Mr. Eyre and his coadjutors." Mrs. Gordon gives the following reasons for her course: "I shrink from the step suggested. My martyred husband, shaping his course in private life by his Christian profession, died forgiving his enemies. My earnest desire is to follow his example, and I feel that in doing this I am only acting in harmony with the sentiments he expressed in his last letter to me, and with the precepts of the Divine Master whose faithful servant he was. "While yielding up my heart in gratitude for the grace which has been vouchsafed to me, and which alone has sustained me under this grevious affliction, I leave Mr. Eyre and those who have aided him in his cruel proceedings in the hands of 'Him who judgeth righteously.'"

THE "WIGWAM."—The Building Inspectors of Philadelphia on Friday notified the contractor for the "Wigwam" that it had been put up in violation of the ordinance of the city prohibiting the erection of wooden buildings. The penalty for the violation of the ordinance ($75) was paid. The structure has to be removed within 30 days, or another penalty of $50 will be imposed.

☞ A Washington dispatch to the Boston Advertiser says that considerable pressure has been brought to bear against Gen. Howard by a certain class of Southern delegates to the convention; but such men as Orr and Manning of South Carolina, Stephens and Johnson of Georgia, and Judge Hill of Mississippi, oppose any change in the management of the bureau, and are desirous to co operate with its present head in settling the social, relations and industrial interests of the South upon a secure basis, which they believe will be found if Gen. Howard's ideas are carried out. Many of these men have had conference with the General upon this subject within the past few days.

At a meeting of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Union, of Washington, resolutions were adopted in favor of a national convention composed of delegates selected by all who have rendered honorable service in the Union army or navy, during the late war for the suppression of the rebellion, said convention to be held at Pittsburg, Penn., Sept. 24, 1866.

— F. W. Titcomb of Garland, Me., sold his horse "Titcomb" to parties in New York, for the sum of five thousand dollars, on Friday last.

— The Meadville (Miss.) Journal records the death of Mr. Frederick Cruider in that county, in his one hundred and eight year. He had been a soldier both in the Revolutionary war and in that of 1812, and enjoyed health and vigor to a remarkable degree up to the time of his death.

— The St. Paul (Min.) Press states that measures are now being taken to establish a newspaper printed in the Swedish language for the use of the Scandinavians in the Northwestern States. The whole number of Norwegians and Swedes in the Upper Mississippi valley, in the States of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois, is estimated at about 200,000, of which 40,000 are in Minnesota. They are an intelligent and a reading people and make the most industrious and valuable emigrants.

OFFICIAL ACCOUNT.—At last we have a reliable account of the loss of life at New Orleans. Dr. Hartsuff, the Government medical officer detailed to make an official report of the killed and wounded, represents that of the members of the convention there was one killed and eight wounded, or one-third of the members present; white citizens attending the convention, two killed and nine wounded; total number of whites killed and wounded, twenty. Colored citizens attending the convention, killed thirty-four; wounded, one hundred and nineteen; total of colored killed and wounded, one hundred and fifty-three.

Of the police, there were ten slightly wounded, most of whom were on duty the next day. One white citizen with the police was killed. The evidence shows that the man was accidentally shot by the police; also, that in the excitement many of the police were wounded by their comrades. In addition to the above, the Doctor reports ten colored men killed and twenty wounded, whose names he could not ascertain; but it is certain that many were killed and wounded whose names have not been reported.

A New Orleans paper of the 18th instant says the list, so far as completed, shows a total of three hundred and seventy-eight killed and wounded of the conventionists and their friends.

These things plainly show who used the violence;—and they need no comment.

☞ A New Orleans dispatch of Saturday, Aug. 18, states that Gen. Baird's official Report of the massacre has been forwarded by Gen. Sheridan to Gen. Grant, with a respectful request that it be made public. The request is reasonable. The public ought to have the document, and also to have the whole of Gen. Sheridan's former dispatch, which has been published only in part, as nearly all accounts say.—Perhaps these publications might damage some scheme or plot which has been formed in Washington;—but if the wire-pullers think so, they should consider that such attempts at concealment always stimulate curiosity, and make people believe that something very bad is kept back.

NEW YORK ITEMS.—The reports for Monday show a continued decrease in the number of new cases of cholera in that city. Eight cases and seven deaths were all that were reported. The deaths in public institutions and in the city from cholera last week were 145, being 105 less than the week before. In Brooklyn the disease also appears to be abating. There were 78 deaths from the disease in that city last week.

Seven lives are now known to have been lost by the Jersey City fire. The loss in tobacco was $273,000. About 400 men are thrown out of employment by the destruction of Valentine & Co.'s oil sheds.

Matamoras correspondence says the American colonists in Mexico are begging transportation to the United States again.

HENRY A. WISE, in a recent address, makes the Sovereign States and Divine Providence responsible for the war; and deems it hard that individuals like himself should be punished for the acts of these potent cause! He thinks heaven sent the fire and sword as the only means of tearing Virginians away from their idol—slavery! Notwithstanding his irreverent conjunction of Calhounism with the ordering of the universe, Mr. Wise has on several occasions been more foolish than in this, his last confession of faith.

☞ A New Orleans dispatch of Monday says: The city authorities are in full exercise of all their functions. There is no interference by the military authorities.

It is reported that in place of General Sheridan being ordered to report to the Lieut. Governor, he was given by the President plenipotentiary authority to suspend or dismiss any officer, civil or military, he saw fit. He removed no one.

The deaths by cholera Saturday, were twenty-eight, and on Sunday fourteen.—The disease is on the decrease in the city, but raging on the river plantations. The deaths are chiefly among the negroes.

AN INDIGNANT YOUNG LADY.—A young American lady, Miss F——, of one of our suburban cities, was riding in the Bois de Boulogne, Paris, with the daughter of one of our officials, when a gentleman drove past in a plain equipage, and, recognizing the coat-of-arms on the carriage, supposing she was one of the family, bowed very graciously. The young lady, not recognizing the person, stared at him, and in much confusion and indignation turned to her companion and said, "Did you see that impudent man bow to me?" "Oh, yes; that was the Emperor."—Boston Transcript.

Hygienic Wine,
Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.
Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.
This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from
PURE SHERRY;
Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in
Aromatic and Balsamic Principles, and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NEAVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.
HYGIENIC WINE
is moreover
MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,
Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an
Appetizer,
IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.
MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)
Is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.
All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with
"Muscat Perle."
☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above suspicion PURE. In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and it will well convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.
These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken in cases of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. auldawlm

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.
☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.
Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION.

☞ The new Lincoln Avenue, which is projected from Richards Avenue to Middle Street near residence of Mr. C. H. Mendum, has just been opened by joint action of the abuttors, through lands of Messrs. Elwyn, F. W. Miller, and T. H. Odion & Co., to the new Union Street, (which is a continuation of Anthony street,)—so that now the public can travel unobstructed from Richards Avenue to Middle street at Anthony,—and carriages drove through there for the first time on Saturday.

Messrs. Odion and others will continue this Lincoln Avenue towards Wibird street, as far as their land extends; and Mr. Mendum having agreed to extend the same through his premises, from the other side of Wibird street to Middle Street direct, this will speedily secure the opening of this fine new thoroughfare, all save a narrow field between Odion & Co. and Wibird street.

Mr. Mendum has also recently informed us that he shall soon extend Park street down through his premises, which will increase the value of the fine building lots he has there. And we also understand that a public movement is making to continue Wibird street over to South street, which would be another great improvement and public benefit, to accommodate travel and open good building lots for use. This western part of the city is decidedly the pleasantest portion of our lovely old town; the growth of which must be mainly in this direction, and can be encouraged or retarded, according as energetic public spirit or its opposite is manifested by all concerned.

☞ Mrs. Cheever, aged 94 years, recently walked one hot day, out from this city to the City Farm, a good mile, visiting the Alms House, and walked in again the same day, apparently all well. She is the widow of the late Benj. Cheever, and the mother of our present citizen bearing the same name. Some younger ladies are not better walkers.

POLICE COURT, Aug. 21.—John Lahan, for drunkenness, was fined $1, and costs $3.86. Cheap drunk.

☞ W. H. Rexford, late High Sheriff of Merrimack County, on Monday morning found a wallet containing $470 in a smoking car on the Boston & Maine Railroad. The owner was found to be Wm. Cutts, of Dover, who is fortunate that it fell into such hands.

☞ The Fenians that were to be tried at Buffalo, will go free—a nolle prosequi is to be entered in each case.

☞ A National Labor Convention now in session in Baltimore, are expected, when they adjourn, to send a committee to the President, begging him to urge on Congress the passage of an eight hour law.—Should he do so, and Congress should pass it, he would probably veto the bill. But if he should promise to do it, Moses might probably be turned into Pharaoh—as the rod was turned into a serpent.

GOLD, Tuesday, 147 1-2. Five-twenties in London are 69 1-2;—and $3,071,600 in gold arrived at New York from California.

GEN. GRANT AND THE PHILADELPHIA MOVEMENT.—The Post's report of the visit of the Philadelphia Committee to the President, says of Gen. Grant's presence, that "it seemed as if the great commander could scarcely have manifested a more generous feeling than in this quiet attendance upon the encouraging counsels that were now being tendered his Commander-in-Chief." This is probably going quite as far in the way of inference as the circumstances of the case would justify. When, therefore, the reporter professes to see Gen. Grant not his head "in undisguised acquiescence," and says "he evidently did not care to conceal the fact that the present occasion was far from being distasteful," we have every reason to believe that he draws on his imagination for his facts, and makes his wish as the father of his thought. When Gen. Grant sees fit to give his opinions on the political issues of the day, it will be time enough to assign him his relation to the contending parties. But we have no hesitation in saying that those who, considering the Constitutional amendment to be the leading issue of the day, assume that General Grant is opposed to that, will yet find that they are reckoning without their host.

Elegant Residence for Sale.
[On account of removal of owner.]

The well-known and beautifully situated CUTTS HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisite for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first-class wine cellar. The House is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thriffy shrubbery,—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

WAVE ON, OLD FLAG.

BY J. M. FLETCHER.

Wave on, old flag! the people's pride,
The emblem of the free!
Wave on, whatever may betide,
Over fertile vale and mountain side,
Proclaiming liberty!

Thy rays are not the fleeting rays
Of mortal pomp and show,
Of human pride whose feeble blaze
An earthly origin betrays,
Immortal flag, ah, no!

As yonder orbs above us flame
With light infinity,
Thy lesser stars in freedom's name
The mighty truths of God proclaim—
Progress and liberty!

CURIOUS COINCIDENCE.—A Philadelphia paper of last week says, "The Psalter of the Episcopal service for last Sunday morning (12th) contained the 64th Psalm, which has a singularly appropriate reference to the Convention now in session in this city.—The version of the Prayer Book runs thus:

"Hide me from the gathering together of the froward, and from the insurrection of wicked doers:

Who have whet their tongue like a sword, and shoot out their arrows, even bitter words:

That they may privily shoot at him that is perfect; suddenly do they hit him, and fear not:

They encourage themselves in mischief, and commune among themselves, how they may lay snares, and say that no man shall see them.

They imagine wickedness and practice it, that they keep secret among themselves, every man in the deep of his heart.

But God shall suddenly shoot at them with a swift arrow, that they shall be wounded.

Yea, their own tongues shall make them fall: insomuch that whoso seeth them shall laugh them to scorn.

And all men that see it shall say: This hath God done; for they shall perceive that it is His work."

THE JEWS.—A foreign paper states that the Jews are suffering severe trials in the the Danubian Principalities, and all the power of the authorities barely suffices to save their lives from the infuriated populace. A letter from Bucharest says the whole Jewish community have been kept in a state of alarm by threats of a general massacre. On the 30th of June their barely finished beautiful temple, which cost about 30,000 ducats, was destroyed, the walls and roof alone standing. All the interior furniture of a small synagogue was also destroyed, and the scrolls of the law trampled under foot and torn. But for the interference of the National Guards, matters would have proceeded to greater extremities. At Jassy, too, the Jews suffer severely. The cholera prevails there intensely, and they lose ten to one of the other population by it. They are in danger of pillage and massacre by the rest of the inhabitants, and are preserved only by the energetic efforts of the government.

☞ Spurgeon's last sensation was to appear in his pulpit on Christmas day, with a crown on his head and a palm in his hand. The Londoners were much shocked thereat; but then, what clergymen are there who do not appear in their pulpits with crowns on their heads and palms in their hands?

—"Any game bereabouts?" said a newly arrived settler to a Texan. "Guess so," said the Lone Star, and plenty of 'em. We have bluff, poker, euchre, all-fours and monte, and jist as many others as you like to play."

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,
78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent published by Uniting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has sufficient reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relating to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART
Boston, Jan 1, 1866.—3tr*1r

MODERN COMFORTS.

It is very common to talk of "the good old times" of a few centuries back, and there are some who live so entirely in the romance of the past, that their eyes are shut to the conveniences and comforts that modern science, skill and intelligence have provided. History seldom presents us with the details of the domestic life of our forefathers, and as poetry colors and groups them for her particular purpose, we insensibly become used to looking back upon the "olden time" with a reverence that hides its imperfections and exaggerates its virtues.—But this "olden time" was without doubt vastly inferior to the present age, in morality, intelligence and refinement, while it was utterly destitute of the comforts and appliances which now constitute so important an item in the aggregate of human happiness. Some of our most common enjoyments were in the middle ages unprocurable even by the wealthy. Indeed when we come to examine how our ancestors lived, we almost wonder why they lived.

A Roman Senator, who was in the Empire's palmy days possessed of estates in Naples and Britain from which he drew an income that would be equivalent to a royal revenue in this day, had neither glass to his windows nor a shirt to his back, and when he rode in his coach of solid gold, without sping or covering, might envy our laborer who goes out to his work in a railroad car. An Earl of Northumberland breakfasted off of wooden trenches and dined in state off of pewter, and when he was absent from Alnwick Castle, the glass was taken out of the windows and laid up in safety. Not a cabbage, carrot, turnip, or other edible root, grew in England during the early part of the reign of Henry the VIII. and from the scarcity of fodder, fresh meat was only obtainable during the summer, salted hog's flesh being generally used by all classes the rest of the year. So important an article, then was cattle, that it was known as "live money," and our word "capital," which signifies stock generally, was deprived from the Latin word "capita," or heads of beasts. The etymology of the law term "chattels," is similar.

Queen Elizabeth was satisfied to breakfast off of a tankard of ale, and dreamed not of the day when tea, coffee and sugar would become necessaries to the poorest household in her kindom. The cause of all the increased comforts which the most modest income will now procure, and many of which were formerly beyond the reach of even the richest, is found in the accumulation of capital, augmented and diversed in its employment by the security given to it, by the demand which it in turn produces for labor, and the reward it holds out for the discovery of the new and useful in science, arts and mechanics and by the facility of exchange, by which all the products of labor and skill are bartered, directly or indirectly, for one another. Civilization and progress have brought to every country in which they have found lodgment, more real luxury and happiness than were to be found in any of the regions pictured by the poet, even though a fructuous fancy represented their rivers as flowing with milk, the trees dropping honey, and their acorns as edible as chestnuts.

— General Oglesby thought in his speech at Chicago the other evening, that it was "no joke to go out upon the battle field and fight to the death, and then come back" and have all the results of victory frittered away through an unwise policy.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

By a New England Lady.
A New Novel by the Author of 'Madge.'
D. APPLETON & COMPANY,
443 & 445 Broadway, New York,
PUBLISH THIS DAY,
"SHERBROOKE,"
By H. B. G., Author of "Madge." 1 vol. 12 mo. Cloth. Price $2.00.
The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and enobling; at the same time the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. 'Aunt Lydia' and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. 'Hope,' the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for 'Sherbrooke' an immense sale."

THURSDAY, AUGUST 23, 1866.

THE NEXT STEP.—The appeal of the Missouri delegation to have the President "put in the foreground" the military commander in their State, was not the only instance of looking to the future use of arbitrary power which has of late appeared among the President's admirers. The New York News, referring to the President's charges against Congress in his last speech, makes the follow significant remarks:

"If the Radical Congress have been guilty of all these crimes against the Republic, it is time that they be disarmed and rendered impotent in the future. If they have done what the President has said that they have done, they should not be permitted an opportunity to repeat their crime. At the next session they should be confronted by the Executive authority and compelled to relinquish their usurped powers. It is not enough for the Executive to declaim against their treasonable and incendiary action; he should interpose the power that he wields, including, if necessary, the military power, to reduce them to subjection to the laws and Constitution of the Republic."

Have the new party forgotten that there is such a Power in this country, as the people? Only five years ago, the News, the Copperheads and the Rebels combined to rule or ruin—but the People put them down. The new Confederacy is as corrupt to-day, as the old one was five years ago,—and is as impudent. It can't be more so. The News was an organ of that, as it is of this. And the People who put down the other must also put this down,—putting their trust in God, and keeping their powder dry.

MEXICO.—Letters from Matamoras to the 14th inst. give the following details:—

"On the 23d ultimo the French, under Jeanningros, together with the native Imperial troops, moved out of Monterey; after spiking the guns and destroying the powder ammunition in the magazines. This latter was found necessary on account of the lack of transportation. The French moved toward Saltillo en route, as is supposed, for San Luis Potosi. A brigade of Escobedo's command under Colonel Martinez, which was in close proximity, immediately entered the city and took possession. Not a gun was fired."

The following is an account of the capture of Tampico by the Liberals on the 1st instant:

"At 2 o'clock in the morning, Tampico was attacked by the Republican forces under orders of Col. Ascencion Gomez. Fort Yturbide, which was held in force by the French, was carried by assault, and the garrison, in retaliation of the famous order of Maximillian, was put to the sword. Step by step and square after square the Liberal forces, enthusiastic in their determination to drive the Imperial invaders from the soil, carried the town and its defences by storm. The French and Austrian troops in vain attempted to hold the barricades which had been thrown up, and finally retreated to the two strong forts which guard the harbor, and to some extent command the town. By daylight in the morning the town was in possession of the Liberals."

Maximillian's reign, from all accounts, seems near its close, and if the Mexicans achieve their own independence from the government France has thrust upon them, the result will be far more satisfactory than if obtained through the interference of some other power.

☞ The Traveller doubts the report that Wm. E. Chandler, Asst. Sec. of the Treasury, is a policy man.

☞ The arrival at Fortress Monroe of the English barque Traveller, from Rio Janeiro in 26 days, brings particulars of the river Plata war to the 10th of July. A steamer had arrived at Rio from Montevideo, bringing intelligence of the general failure of the allied forces in their operations against the Paraguayans, and that the latter had surrounded the allied army in a swamp near Humaila, in the Paraguay river. The stock of the allied army were dying off rapidly, and Lopez, the commander of the Paraguayan army, was confident and energetic in his efforts to deal the final blow to the war.

— The Treasury detectives in New York have ferreted out and arrested the parties who got up the bogus $50 national currency note lately put in circulation, securing also the plate and $60,000 of the counterfeit currency.

— A cheese weighing three and a half tons, has been manufactured in Canada.

He that hath tasted the bitterness of sin will fear to commit it, and he that hath felt the sweetness of mercy will fear to offend it. —Charnock.

☞ Dispatches from Paris by the cable, to the 21st. give these items:

It is denied on authority that the Empress of Mexico, who is here, has threatened that Maximilian will abdicate when the French troops are withdrawn from Mexico. It is also stated by authority that her mission to France is to ask assistance of the French forces in Mexico, prior to their evacuation of the country, to quell insurgents.

It is rumored that a treaty has been made between Prussia, Austria and Bavaria.—A report is also current that the Czar of Russia has taken formal steps towards the negotiation of a treaty of alliance between Russia, France and Austria.

The statement that France has demanded territorial concessions from Belgium is untrue.

The Moniteur of to-day officially gives denial to the report that Napoleon has written to the King of Belgium, and at the same time confirms the report that France will not demand of Belgium the cession of any part of her dominions.

A STORY OF A SENTINEL.—A story is told of a Prussian sentinel stationed on the steeple at Troppau, and left behind there when his company retreated. The citizens attempted to take him prisoner, but the Prussian easily defended with his bayonet the narrow winding stair by which alone access could be gained to the steeple. They then decided on reducing him by famine, but the Prussian having with him a good supply of cartridges, announced that unless he was regularly and well fed he would shoot every one who passed in the streets around the church. The good soldier thus contrived to maintain his position for two days, when Troppau was reoccupied by the Prussians and he was relieved.

AN OBLIGING EDITOR.—The editor of the Weston (Mo.) Times makes the following announcement to his readers: "Hereafter we will not publish marriages for nothing, but will be happy at any time to announce the death of our friends."

☞ The publication of the New Orleans Tribune, the organ of the Republicans and the freedmen, was temporarily suspended on Tuesday.

☞ The camp meetings at Hamilton and Martha's Vineyard are in full progress. That at Epping commences on Monday next.

— The soldiers of the Union have determined to hold a grand Mass Convention at Pittsburgh, to form ranks against the invasion into Pennsylvania. They will not applaud the President's policy, and their number will be legion.

— In consequence of the prevalence of the cholera in Brooklyn, the Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese has caused the suspension of one of the ordinances of the Church which forbids the eating of meats on Friday.

— One Stephen Phillips, residing on Cape Cod, issued an advertisement forbidding any one to marry Mrs. Rosalinda Pratt, as she had promised to marry him. The announcement had good effect, for the marriage of the twain took place at Harwick last week.

— Tar is burnt nights in the streets of St. Louis, dirty localities, for the purpose of fumigation. The hackmen are availing themselves of the cholera. They charge $10 an hour for taking their carriages to funerals.

— The work of rebuilding the structure of the Smithsonian Institution at Washington, which was destroyed by fire, is slowly progressing. The large towers on the north have been rebuilt with fire-proof floors to assure the safety of all the documents in future beyond all contingency.

— As prisoners in castles look out of their grated windows at the smiling landscape where the sun comes and goes, so we from this life as from dungeon bars, look forth to the heavenly land, and are refreshed with sweet visions of the home that shall be ours when we are free.

— One day the philosopher Bias found himself in the same vessel with a crowd of sorry scoundrels. A tempest came on, and instantly the whole band began to invoke the succor of the gods. "Be quiet, you wretches," said the sage; "if the gods perceive that you are here, we are gone."

When death comes we walk down in the valley of the shadows, knowing that we shall find there the shining footprints of the Saviour, and confident that in due time the morning light of the resurrection will break upon the spirit, and we shall be with God forever.—T. B. Thayer.

— A large per cent. of the mistakes mortals make, is because they act directly opposite to what the experience of the elder part of the race say is best. There is not a sin committed that a person of experience and years would not, if consulted, speak against.—Sillonay.

— "A little more animation, my dear," whispered Lady B. to the gentle Susan, who was walking through a quadrille. "Do leave me to manage my own business, mama," replied the provident nymph. "I shall not dance my ringlets out of curl for a married man." "Of course not, my love, but I was not aware who your partner was."

— A correspondent, struck with the beauty of a Saratoga belle, confesses that he wept when he saw her at dinner put both her elbows on the table, and gnaw her corn from the ear.

— We met a little girl Lafayette Square, last evening, bitterly crying because a boy had kissed her. As she grows older she will submit to such hardships with more resignation.—Ex.

— No custom can sanctify wrong, nor excuse it.—Ballou.

☞ Among the influential gentlemen who attended the Johnson meeting at Manchester to appoint delegates to Philadelphia, were Hon. G. M. Herring of Farmington, late Senator, and J. B. Adams of Portsmouth, late Sheriff of Rockingham county. The Republican party loses its back-bone when such men abandon it.—N. H. Patriot.

But suppose the "bone" was taken from that Herring, would not in that case the "Ex-Alderman of a small village" have to exclaim with the poet Swift—before such men would support the Johnson policy? H.

"Buy my herring fresh."

☞ The U. S. steamer Saginaw having been detailed by the Navy Department to accompany the expedition for laying the Russian telegraph, in accordance with the provisions of an act of Congress passed during the late session, was to have left Mare Island, Cal., on 4th ult., for Victoria, V. I., in compliance with instructions from the Chief of the Western Union Telegraph Co.

☞ A dispatch from Portland states that Rev. Dr. Huntington has declined his election to the Episcopate of Maine, by reason of the demands of his present peculiar field of labor and the earnest request of the church at large that he should not relinquish his important position in connection with the diocese of Massachusetts.

☞ Messrs. Ferris & Caywood, of the famous "Dutchess Nurseries," Poughkeepsie, New York, advertise to fill orders for Grape Vines, &c. Parties wishing any thing in their line, may depend on their orders being filled with care and accuracy—promptly and fairly.

☞ Harper's Magazine for September, is received from A. Williams & Co., Boston. It has three illustrations and the usual amount of choice reading. For sale by J. F. Shores, Jr.

☞ From Ticknor & Fields, publishers, we have the Atlantic Monthly for September. As usual its contents are varied enough to suit the tastes of all.

☞ The Fenian picnic at Buffalo on the 21st called together a large number of persons, estimated at 15,000 to 20,000. The whole affair was orderly. There was no hint given of any proposed hostilities, and no one believes a raid on Canada is intended, at least for some time, if at all.

☞ John G. Whittier, finding himself published as authority for certain religious opinions, defines his position as follows:

To the editor of the Friend: In a late number of thy paper there is a notice of a lecture by Henry Blanchard of Brooklyn, which doubtless unintentionally gives a somewhat erroneous view of my religious opinions. Painfully sensible of my own moral infirmities and liabilities to error, I instinctively shrink from assuming the office of teacher and guide of others. I simply wish to say that my ground of hope for myself and for humanity is in that Divine fullness of love which was manifested in the life, teachings and self-sacrifice of Christ—the Way, the Truth and the Life. In the infinite mercy of God so revealed, and not in any work or merit of our nature, I reverently, humbly, yet very hopefully trust.

I regard Chpistianity as a life rather than a creed; and in judging of my fellow men I can use no other standard than that which our Lord and Master has given us: "By their fruits ye shall know them." The only orthodoxy that I am specially interested in is that of life and practice. On the awful and solemn theme of human destiny, I dare not dogmatize; but wait the unfolding of the great mystery, in the firm faith that whatever may be our particular allotment, God will do the best that is possible for all.

— A young lady out West was charged with "putting on airs" because she refused to go to a ball barefoot.

— One hundred and twelve thousand dollars were realized at Savannah, Ga., not long since, on a lot of shot and shell, broken cannon, field and siege pieces, collected from Georgia battle fields.

— A convention of colored Baptist preachers from all points of the United States is in session in Richmond. The meetings are attended by large crowds of colored people, who manifest great interest in the proceedings.

— An old soldier was arrested at Chicago for sleeping in the barn attached to a hotel. He explained that he had paid for lodgings in the hotel, but the bugs bit so badly he retreated into the barn. His statement proving true, he was discharged.

— A special dispatch from New Orleans Aug. 21st says the investigations of the military commission into the causes of the riot are nearly closed. The report will be submitted to Gen. Sheridan about the close of this month. After endorsing the report he will remit it to the War Department.

— Two elks recently brought to Troy from the plains by a cavalryman, were turned into the park adjoining the court house, where they attracted much attention. The next day the female made a plunge through the window and alighted on the floor of the justices' Court, much to the consternation of the crowd.

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. Displaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the digestive organs, it stimulates, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS IO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself the MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken in cases of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Bites of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. auldawlm

☞ In speaking of the progress in rebuilding Portland, the Star says, "the amount of contracts already made and the fine character of the buildings contracted for, would be astonishing to those not directly interested in the business; and another year will show such a marked change in the appearance of Portland that those who look on the devastation of six weeks ago will scarcely recognize the place."

This is just what we supposed—and we have no doubt, and had none from the first, but that in ten years, or five, the city will actually be better off for the fire.

It is also proposed to lay out a new Park in the burnt district, and the Star says:

"We are surprised to see the favor extend to this new proposition, and hear new arguments every day in its favor. We think that a very large number of people have come to look upon a Park as the best and surest means of giving new life to this portion of the town. The argument used is that it would at once increase the desirability of this portion of the city for dwelling places, and that it would at once and forever increase the value of property there. It is said that some owners will not sell land at any price. If so, and it shall seem necessary to have it, it will become the duty of the City Solicitor to see if the result cannot be attained by some other mode of proceeding."

And the Star is right, and a part of its remark find some application in Portsmouth, as to a Park near the South road. We have no doubt the gentleman who owns the beautiful undulating lands there would contribute liberally, as he has heretofore offered to do, towards securing so desirable a public improvement—though of course his circumstances and habits are such as to render him entirely above any suspicion of self interest in the matter. And if we are right in our conjectures—which are not altogether conjectures either—why cannot we have an "Elwyn Park" laid out, and a bridge across the Pond to it, this year? Who will start the thing? A wealthy and very public spirited gentleman at one time offered to give $1000 towards this object, and no doubt would do so now; and we think ten times that amount could be raised easily enough by subscription in the city, and of course the sons abroad would be glad to aid the object.

☞ The Universalist Church was most beautifully adorned with flowers on Sunday, the occasion being the last services to be performed by Rev. Mr. Patterson as pastor of the society, worshipping therein. On Monday evening the Sabbath School called on Mr. Patterson, at his residence, and presented him with two large engravings, thus expressing their appreciation of his earnest efforts to build up the school.

—— The portion of the railroad up Mount Washington which is completed will be tested next week. It will be a novelty to make the ascension by steam. The steam railroad over Mt. Cenis is approaching completion, and the experiment of steaming it over mountains will thus be tested on both sides of the water at about the same time.

— Simeon Bachelder of Palermo, Me., a noted counterfeiter, and the principal of a gang in those parts, who have been engaged in putting into circulation a large amount of counterfeits on the Highland National Bank of Newburgh, New York, was arrested Tuesday night in Palermo and taken to Portland Wednesday morning by Deputy U. — A few days ago, a young schoolmistress in the country was taking down the names and ages of her scholars at the commencement of the term. "Why, that's all the name I've got—just John." "What is your father's name?" "Needn't put pa's name down; he ain't a cummin to school any; he's too big." "Well how old are you?" SUMMER AND WINTER.

The winter goes and the summer comes,
And the cloud descends in warm, wet showers;
The grass grows green where the frost has been,
And weeds and wastes are fringed with flowers.

The winter goes, and the summer comes,
And the merry blue-birds twitter and trill,
And the swallow swings on his steel-blue wings,
This way and that way, at will and will.

The winter goes, and the summer comes,
And the swallow he swingeth no more aloft,—
And the blue-bird's breast swells out of her nest,
And the hornlest bill of them all grows soft.

The summer goes, and the winter comes,
And the silky cloaks and the ermine robes,
And the softest bill grows horny and still,
And the days set dimly, and dimly rise.

The summer goes, and the winter comes,
And the red fire fades from the heart of the rose,
And the snow lies white where the grass was bright,
And the wild wind bitterly blows and blows

The winter comes, and the winter stays,
Ay, cold and long, and long and cold,
And the pulses beat to the weary feet,
And the head feels sick and the heart grows old.

The winter comes, and the winter stays,
And all the glory behind us lies,
The cherry light drops into the night,
And the snow drifts over our sightless eyes.

SOUR GRAPES. — A friend relates a scene in a school room, which is too good to keep. It is the custom in the school to read a moral lesson each morning, when the teacher questions the scholars on what has been read. This day the lesson was in regard to the taking of fruit, and was a sort of narrative, in which it was stated a teacher had told his class not to touch the fruit which grew in a neighboring orchard, but to wait until it was perfectly ripe and they should all have a share of it. They all disobeyed the command with the exception of one little girl, who alone refraining from touching the fruit. The first question asked by the teacher was:

"Which did right, the little girl or the others of the class?"

The unanimous answer was,

"The little girl."

The next question was:

"Why did not the little girl also take the fruit?"

This appeared to puzzle the class, and for a long time no one was ready to answer.—At length a little fellow at the bottom of the class held up his hand. He was told to proceed, when he astonished the teacher by claiming:—

"Please, sir, she wath too little to reach the fruit."

— Several young men who left Springfield, Mass, in April last for Montana, have returned impressed with the idea that that golden territory is not all their fancy painted it. They visited eleven different mines, lost a round sum by the trip, and finally concluded that home was the best place for them. Not the first, nor the last, probably, who have been or will be "sold" by the "West."

A HAPPY WOMAN.—"What are you singing for?" said I to Mary Maloney.

"Oh, I don't know, ma'am, without it is because my heart feels happy."

"Happy, are you, Mary? Why, let me see, you don't own a foot of land in the world."

"Foot of land is it?" she cried with a loud laugh, "Oh what a hand ye be after a joke. Why, sure, I've never a penny, let alone a fut of land."

"Your mother is dead?"

"God rest her soul, yis," replied Mary, with a touch of genuine pathos. "The Heavens be her bed."

"Your brother is still a hard case, I suppose?"

"Ye may well say that. It's nothing but drink, drink, and bate his wife—the poor crayture."

"You have to pay your sister's board?"

"Sure, the bit crayture I and she's a good little girl, is Hinny, willin' to do whatever I axes her. I don't grudge the money, that goes for that."

"And you haven't many fashionable dresses, either?"

"Fashionable, is it? Oh yis, I put a bit of whalebone in me skirt, and me calico gown spreads as big as the leddies. But thin ye say true; I havn't but two gowns to my back, two shoes to me fut, and wan bunnut, barrin' me old hood."

"You havn't any lover?"

"Oh, be off wid yez! catch Mary Maloney wid a lover these days, when the hard times is come."

"What on earth have you to make you happy? A drunken brother, a poor helpless sister, no mother, no father, no lover—why, where do you get all your happiness?"

"The Lord be praised, mis, it growed up in me. Give me a bit av sunshine, a clean flare, plenty of work and a sup at the right time, and I'm made. That makes me laugh and sing. And thin, if troubles come I try to keep my heart up. Sure, it would be a sad thing if Patrick McGuire should take it into his head to ax me; but the Lord willin' I'd try to bear up under it."

JOHNSON ON MASSACHUSETTS AND SOUTH CAROLINA.—The famous gushing arm-in-arm scene at Philadelphia reminds a contemporary of the following passage in a speech delivered by Andrew Johnson in the United States Senate, early in February, 1861:

"I do not intend to be invidious, but I have sometimes thought it would be a comfort if Massachusetts and South Carolina could be chained together as the Siamese twins, separated from the continent and taken out to some remote and secluded part of the ocean, and there fast anchored to be washed by the waves and to be cooled by the winds, and after they had been kept there a sufficient length of time, the people of the United States might entertain the idea of taking them back. They seem to have been the source of dissatisfaction pretty much ever since they were in the Confederacy; and some experiment of this sort, I think, could operate beneficially upon them, but as they are here we must try to do the best we can with them."

By a New England Lady.
A New Novel by the Author of 'Madge.'
D. APPLETON & COMPANY,
443 & 445 Broadway, New York,
PUBLISH THIS DAY,
"SHERBROOKE,"
By H. B. G, Author of "Madge." 1 vol. 12 mo. Cloth. Price $2.00.
The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and ennobling; at the same time the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. 'Aunt Lydia' and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. 'Hope,' the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for 'Sherbrooke' an immense sale."

FRIDAY, AUGUST 24, 1866.

☞ A writer in a Memphis Journal predicts that the only trial the arch-traitor Jeff. Davis will ever have, will be at the bar of Eternal Justice. Very well, perhaps it will—and it may be as well to let the perjured villain "rot in jail;" but "justice" here or hereafter must be the thing he most fears, and whether brought before human courts or not, "the judgment after death" and "the vengeance which is mine, saith the Lord," will be enough for him, according to the ideas of honest people, which are that he deserves the deepest hell.

☞ The Hon. Thaddeus Stevens has been renominated for Congress unanimously by the Union Convention of Lancaster county, Penn., and we hail the news with praise and pleasure. Though it is possible Mr. Stevens may go to the Senate instead of the House—and in either place he is sure to be a leading worker—his constituents could do no less than certify their high faith in the man and his principles by renominating him.

☞ Mr. Morton McMichael is the Republican Mayor of the Republican city of Philadelphia. Viewing this remarkable fact, Mr. Cowan's resolution of thanks to the Mayor for his admirable police arrangements during the sitting of the Philadelphia Convention, was no small compliment from the servants of the Rebellion—the party of men who apologized for Mr. Monroe and denounced the slaughtered Convention at New Orleans. They had right good reason to applaud Radical love of free speech.

☞ Cable dispatches of the 21st furnish the following:

France has assured England that the Fortresses of Marienburg and Philliperille will not be demanded of Belgium.

The hostile attitude of Hanover Electoral Hesse, Nassau and Frankfort has determined Prussia to destroy their independence and annex them completely to herself.

Prussia promises an early definitive settlement of the political and commercial relations of the Zollverein.

Bavaria, after contemplating armed resistance, has submitted to the demands of Prussia. It is said that Prussia asks only the districts of Lechtenfels and Culmbach.

☞ Ingenuity finds ample scope for exercise when it enters the lists of rascality.—Witness the following description of a new burglar's tool:

In the arrest of some burglars in Philadelphia a few days since, an instrument was found calculated to break open safes of the largest size. It consists of a frame work that is designed to be fastened to the floor, and be bound together by cords. A heavy iron bar weighing seventy pounds is used for a lever, and this has a hole in the centre in which a bit is inserted, and with the bar adjusted to the framework, it is used for boring in iron safes and vault doors. A hole is cut with a thread in it, and a screw is forced into this which draws the door out when the bar is turned, and so great a power can be applied to it that a door of almost any thickness can be forced out of place.—With this instrument almost any safe in the country could be opened in three hours.

— A new $50 counterfeit Coupon Interest note is now in circulation. It is a clumsy affair, and can easily be detected.

— There is a clergyman in Illinois named Rev. Bilious Pond, which is claimed with some reason as the most disagreeable name in existence.

— An insane woman in Mobile, Ala., on Sunday, threw her infant into the red hot furnace of a rolling mill where the iron was fusing.

— Deacon Smead, Postmaster at Madison, Ohio, an aged and highly respected citizen, was gored to death by a bull in that town last week.

— A man at St. Paul, Minnesota, on the 14th instant, run headlong into the river, at a point where it was only three feet deep, and held his head under water until he was drowned.

— Caroline Poulsen, a Norwegian girl of twenty-one, was married at Chicago, Monday, her husband was harsh and unkind to her Tuesday, and she died on Wednesday, a heart-broken suicide.

— There is trouble among the powers of the Presbyterian Church conferring at St. Louis. A large secession has taken place, and Slavery, which seeks to beat down the black man with the Bible, is the cause of it.

— "The Copperheads and Johnsonites may be expected to unite in the coming campaign," says The New York Times. Yes, and to stay united till they rot apart, adds The Tribune.

— W. Matt. Brown, Mayor of Nashville, assailed lawyer Redford, in the latter's office, on account of the personalities used by Redford in his speech before the negro Convention.

— Fenianism, and the condition of Ireland, formed the subject of an interesting debate in the House of Commons on the 2d inst. The real remedy for Ireland's ills continues to be overlooked by the British Government; but the suspension of the Habeas Corpus is to be continued for some months longer.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Monitor spouts somewhat over a few fin-back whales seen off Boar's Head last Sunday.

—— Nelson Barnard, of Dunbarton, had his arm broken on the 20th, by falling from a load of hay in the field.

—— The "Christian" denomination have established a new Academy at Wolfeborough which will open Sept. 12th.

—— A lady while bathing at Hampton Beach last week lost a double set of false teeth, which were found three days afterward by a farmer gathering seweed.

—— The barn of Geo. G. Hutchinson, in Antrim, with tools, hay, &c., was consumed by fire on the 17th. Loss $800. No insurance. His little son set the fire in play.

—— John Finn, while chopping wood in Candia, on the 21st, cut one of his great toes entirely open and three or four inches from the side of his foot.

—— A thief, giving his name as Charles Russ, of Biddeford, has been committed to jail for picking the pocket of Mrs. Mary B. Cross, of East Weare, on the cars at Manchester. He was gammoned while playing the "Russian game," by a Boston detective who was on the train.

THE YACHT SQUADRON A FAILURE.—George Francis Train, who "yachted" it from New York to New Bedford with the New York Yacht Squadron, pronounces the squadron a slow institution. Writing to the New York Express, he says:

"So far as sociability, gayety, pure and simple enjoyment are concerned, it would appear to me that the Yacht Squadron was a dead failure. If eating is all there is of life; if drinking is all there is of happiness, then the yachtmen are happy. But there is such a corpse-like feeling among the guests; such a want of cordiality among the captains—what is the matter? Why don't they cotton up to each other? Why move in cliques? Are they jealous of each other? Are some of them race-horses and some of them cart-horses? Is it a question of blood? Everybody thought when The King was dead The King would live—Stevens out, McVicker in—would bring a change, but no. He is a jovial, hale fellow well met Commodore, but the yachters are not gay. Thirty or forty yachts should make a sensation, but they don't. All day in Newport and a fair wind; all day in New Bedford and nobody goes ashore! Why don't they have a programme, a system, a place of enjoyment? In other lands, when a guest on a nobleman's estate, he gives you a picnic one day, a race the next; then a ball, then a fox hunt, then a banquet, then a day for shooting, then a regatta, then fishing. But somehow they don't seem to understand this thing in the Yacht Club. New London, New Bedford, Providence, Stonington, Newport and Boston would like to invite the Squadron to accept the hospitalities of their respective cities, and make all gay with bands of music and pretty dancing girls, with great parties on the green sward and fireworks on the square. Then the Yacht Squadron could return the compliment with a fishing party or a regatta; but somehow nobody understands it, and hence the dead failure."

— Tobacco should not b chewed, but a chewed.

— Very rich gold and silver mines have been discovered thirty-five miles from Fort Stanton, Kansas City.

— A rebel torpedo in Charleston harbor, whose location had been forgotten, exploded the other day and sent a vessel to the bottom very suddenly. One man was drowned.

— The proprietors of a "great gift enterprise" in Chicago have cleared out with $300,000 belonging to their dupes; and a similar concern in Milwaukee has disappeared with $75,000.

— The August report of the Commissioner of Agriculture will show that the crops in the north, northwest, and portions of the south are unusually large, notwithstanding the drought.

— An order of the Secretary of War directing the Provost Marshal General to turn over the affairs of his Bureau to the Adjutant General, on the 28th inst., has been promulgated.

— Reports to the Commissioner of Customs show that the government detective officers have nearly succeeded in breaking up smuggling on the frontier, they having apprehended several prominent operators.

— Mr. Montfort of Springfield, Ill., knowing that a young lady was going to a party the other night, loitered in a yard adjoining her residence to see who attended her home, and was shot for a burglar. He may recover, but his curiosity is blighted.

— A man was arrested in Baltimore, a few days since, on complaint of one of his neighbors, charged with working on Sunday. On examination before a justice, it appeared that the only work he had done was to black his shoes and those of his children. He was discharged.

— A prowling robber, on Sunday night went round among the tents of the poor people encamped in Deering's pasture who were turned out by the fire, and stole all the blankets and clothing he could lay his hands on. He even went into one tent and took the pillows from under the children's heads as they slept. Really if one don't keep his mouth shut he will have his artificial teeth stolen from his mouth, that is, if one is so unfortunate as to be obliged to wear that article.—Portland Star.

☞ There is official authority for denying the statement that the Secretary of the Treasury has given instructions that no money shall be paid out of the Treasury under the provision of the Civil Appropriation law for additional bounties to soldiers. As soon as regulations governing payment shall be agreed upon by the Commission, they will be furnished to the Treasury Department, and not until then will be presented for decision of the Secretary, the question whether the law carries with it an appropriation for the object specified.

☞ Cable dispatches from Paris on the evening of the 22d report that the Empress of Mexico has failed in her mission, Napoleon having, it is understood, refused to grant assistance of the French troops prior to their evacuation of Mexico, to quell the insurgents. In connection with this statement a report is current, that the Emperor Maximilian will soon return to Europe.

☞ "The Camp, the Battle-field and the Hospital" is the title of a handsome volume, just issued by the New England Publishing Company, Boston, Mass. The author has delved most industriously amongst the masses of curious incidents which have marked the late war, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form. From the beginning of the war the author, Dr. L. P. Brockett, has been engaged collecting all the anecdotes connected with or illustrative of it. The volume is profusely illustrated with over 100 engravings. It is just such a volume as will find numerous purchasers, and just such a one as persons seeking to act as book agents should add to their list.

— A correspondent of the Boston Journal tells of a Kanuck boy whistling "Tramp, tramp," with a clay pipe in his mouth. That beats the plantation negroes; not even these, the best whistlers known, could execute that familiar air with a clay pipe in the mouth.—Ex.

Want to know? We have a boy in our office who can whistle with a pipe, cigar or pen in his mouth. And in fact, almost anybody who can whistle at all, can do it. Try it and see.

— A "Live Stock Insurance Company" has been formed which insures horses, cattle, etc., against death from any cause.—Ex.

Our butchers would do well to insure their stock in this company.

I. O. OF O. F.—The Right Worthy Grand Lodge of New Hampshire held its Annual Session at Laconia on the 21st inst. There was a very large attendance of Past Grands of the Order throughout the State. The Most Worthy Grand Master, in his report, stated that the Order was in a very sound and healthy condition,—about every Lodge enjoying the best of brotherly feeling, and having added largely to their numbers during the past year. The following brothers were elected and installed as the officers of the Grand Lodge for the ensuing year:—

J. L. Spring, Milford—M. W. G. Master.
True Osgood, Concord—R. W. Dep. G. Master.
Chas. H. Brown, Manchester—R. W. G. Warden.
Joel Taylor, Manchester—R. W. G. Sec.
Jos. H. Gardiner, Portsmouth—R. W. G. Treas'r.
Jas. Ashton, Dover—R. W. G. Chaplain.
Elias Ayers, Portsmouth—W. G. Marshal.
J. C. Moulton, Laconia—W. G. Conductor.
O. P. Smart, Nashua—W. G. Guardian.
Ira Doe, Rochester, and John S. McFarland, Concord—Representatives to Grand Lodge, U. S.

It was voted to hold the next Session in Portsmouth.

— The Darlington (South Carolina) Southerner says: "two brothers from Darlington district, married men, enlisted in the rebel army and were killed. Their two old bachelor brothers then married their widows."

— Capt. Young, Chief of the New York detective force, having been examined in the matter of certain charges made against him of complicity with criminals, has been discharged, nothing having been shown which cast the slightest reflection on his fidelity and trustworthiness as an officer.

— In Choctaw County, Ala., the Freedmen, to the number of seven thousand, have had a grand gathering to consider their interests, particularly the subject of emigration. We are glad to see that the Freedmen are able to convoke and assemble, and shall still look forward to a national conference of the colored men of the country on the condition and the rights of their race.

— The Treasury Department received a draft on Baring Bros., England, for the amount of £11,844 16s. 10d. sterling, as the proceeds of the sale of the surrendered confederate vessel Shenandoah. The draft has been sent to New York, with directions to deposit the amount to the credit of the United States as proceeds from the sale of surrendered and abandoned property.

— The proof of the pudding is not in chewing the string, but in eating and testing. The same rule will apply to the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap. Our better half says it has no equal, and will do much better work and go much further, besides leaving clothes in a much better state after washing. We do not hesitate to pronounce it far superior to any soap in the market. Go get a bar and try it—most all the merchants sell it. 3

Hygienic Wine.

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY,

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE.

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. Our positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken in cases of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. auldawlm ☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often the very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly upon the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

THE DEROCHEMONT FAMILY held a social gathering at the residence of F. W DeRochemont, Esq., at Newington, on Thursday Aug. 23—about eighty of the name and connexion's being assembled from all parts, prominent among them being B. P. Shillaber, the poet and philosopher, who has so well both said and sung the praises of the Piscataqua and Bloody Point.

We believe that all those of the name, outside of France, sprang from a single DeRochemont who emigrated to Holland; and that but this single family of his descendents are known to exist in this country. Among them are several highly respectable representatives in this vicinity.

THE GOSPORT FIRE.—Messrs. Editors: I am often asked about the cases of destitution from the effects of the fire. That of Mrs. Sally Caswell is one which ought to stir the sympathies of all who have hearts large enough to be affected by the distress of fellow creatures. She lost her house, furniture, clothing, and came very near losing her life, being considerably burned. In common with most elderly persons, she had but little faith in modern schemes of insurance, and is perhaps somewhat excusable for not having her home insured, so that her loss is total and ruinous. At her age of 60, there is but little of life left to undertake the slow process of getting a home by means of knitting and a few fishermen boarders.

Herself and children are respectable, sober and industrious, and every way worthy of aid. More than three-fourths of the whole loss in the town by the fire, falls on her and her children. As a kind-hearted widow in distress, desiring earnestly to get a little home built on the spot hallowed by a thousand pleasant memories, what say you, Mr. Editor, is'nt there generous friendship enough in Portsmouth for the Shoals, to give her a thousand dollars to light her pathway and lighten her load of care as she goes down into the valley of a wintry old age? Mr. Joseph H Foster will see that she gets every dollar contributed and left with him, I know.

Elegant Residence for Sale.
[On account of removal of owner.]

The well-known and beautifully situated CUTTS HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath room billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most de-irable estates in the market.

The Lot is finely furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first-class wine cellar. The House is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE with accommodations for five horses; CARIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with tended Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery.—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

THE LOVED NOT LOST.

BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.

How strange it seems with so much gone
Of life and love, to still live on!
Ah, brother, only I and thou
Are left of all that circle now.—
The dear home faces whereupon
That fitful firelight paled and shone.
Henceforward, listen as we will,
The voices of that hearth are still;
Look where we may the wide earth o'er,
Those lighted faces shine no more.

We tread the paths their feet have worn,
We sit beneath their orchard trees,
We hear like them the humming of bees
And rustle of the bladed corn;
We turn the pages they have read,
Their written words we linger o'er,
But in the sun they cast no shade,
No voice is heard, no sign is made,
No step is on the conscious floor!
Yet Love will dream, and Faith will trust,
(Since He who knows our need is just,)
That somehow, somewhere, meet we must.

Alas for him who never sees
The stars shine through his cypress trees!
Who, hopeless, lays his dead away,
Nor looks to see the breaking day
Across the mournful marble play!
Who has not learned in hours of faith,
The truth to flesh and sense unknown,
That Life is ever Lord of Death,
And Love can never lose its own!

NATIONAL NICKNAMES.—The following are the nicknames of the different States, which we find in an exchange. The origin of many of them would be an entertaining study for the curious in such matters:

Maine, Foxes; New Hampshire, Granite boys; Vermont, Green Mountain boys; Massachusetts, Bay States; Rhode Island, Gunflints; Connecticut, Wooden Nutmegs; New York, Knickerbockers; New Jersey, Clam Catchers; Pennsylvania, Leather Heads; Delaware, Blue Hen's Chickens; Maryland, Clam Thumbers; Virginia, Beagles; North Carolina, Tar Boilers; South Carolina, Weazels; Georgia, Buzzards; Louisiana, Pelicans; Alabama, Lizards; Kentucky, Corn Crackers; Ohio Buckeyes; Michigan, Wolverines; Indiana, Hoosiers; Illinois, Suckers; Missouri, Pukes; Arkansas, Toothpickers; Mississippi, Tadpoles; Florida, Fly-up-the-Creeks; Wisconsin, Badgers; Iowa, Hawkeyes; California, Gold Hunters; Oregon, Hard Cases; Nevada, Sage Hens; Kansas, Jayhawkers, Minnesota, Gophers; Texas, Beef Heads; Nebraska, Bug Eaters.

Irresponsible Counterfeiters.

One of the most serious annoyances which the proprietors of an article in universal demand have to encounter is the piratical imitation of it by parties equally unscrupulous and irresponsible. If an individual or a firm with means engages in this nefarious business, the damages awarded by a court of justice for the offence are collectable, and it is some satisfaction to the party wronged that the wronger is made to suffer; but in most cases the pirates are men of straw, who cannot represent ten dollars to the law's amend.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS being a Standard Tonic, marketable everywhere, and representing the value affixed to it as accurately as a National Bank bill represents the amount expressed on its face, has been extensively counterfeited and simulated. The proprietors have spent many thousand dollars in hunting up and hunting down irresponsible individuals and firms who have given their minds to this dirty work. These parties—some of them, at least—have a way of changing their base, though they never change their business. When an injunction is laid upon them in one part of the country, they sometimes "vamoose" to another, and try the trick again. In some cases it is necessary to kill them two or three times over. Experience has shown that can be done under these circumstances is to "lay an injunction" upon those who use the fitters to buy only of dealers whom they know to be in every town and village of the United States and British America this famous tonic, alterative and protective medicine, may be procured of reliable men of business. 2n14—1mo

Ayer's Pills.

ARE you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and deranges its natural functions. These, if not relieved, in act upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in this condition, take Ayer's Pills and use how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. Costiveness is the cause of great evil in this trivial and common complaint is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous disorders. The mild purgative effect of these pills, Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly taken out of the system by a certain means. None who know the virtue of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the slight derangement of the system such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness, Constipation, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Worms and Suppression, when taken in large doses.

They are Sugar Coated, so that the most sensitive can take them easily, and they are surely the best purgative medicine yet discovered.

Ayer's Ague Cure.

For the Speedy and Certain Cure of Intermittent Fever, or Chills and Fever, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache Fever; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other delete rious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse these assertions.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,

73 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Prepares Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent issued since 1836, sending One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, not possessed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL IN THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so reasonable.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a voluminous collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such manifestations of skill in the preparation and filing on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made only twice rejected applications for patents, and both of these were of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

NEW HAMPSHIRE LAWS.

State of New Hampshire.

In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

AN ACT providing for taxing bank stock in the several banking associations in this State, formed under the Act of Congress approved June 3, 1864, entitled "An act to provide a national currency."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the cashiers of the several banking associations of this State, formed under the act of Congress, approved June 3, 1864, entitled "An act to provide a national currency," and the cashiers of all other banks in this State, on or before the 5th day of April of each year, to transmit to the clerks of the several towns or cities in this State in which any stock or shareholder of such banks or banking associations shall reside, a true and correct list of the names of such shareholders, with the number of shares standing in the name of each stockholder on the books of such banks or banking associations, together with the amount of money actually paid in on each share on the first day of the same April of each year.

SEC. 2. The assessors of such several cities or towns where such stockholders reside, shall each year, as soon as may be after the rate of taxation for such towns is determined and fixed upon, transmit to the clerk of the city or town where such banks or banking associations are located, the said list of stockholders, with the amount of stock in the name of each, and the rate of taxation upon personal property, fixed upon and determined for such towns respectively. And it shall become the duty of the selectmen, or other proper authorities of the town or city where such banks or banking associations are located, to assess and levy and collect a tax on such shares of stock at the rates determined upon for such cities or towns respectively, and hold the same in trust for the cities and towns where such several stockholders reside; and to pay the same over when collected, on demand, to the treasurer or collector of such town respectively.

SEC. 3. The collector of the towns or cities where such banks or banking associations are located may receive and receipt for, and it shall be the duty of the cashier of such banks or banking associations, to pay such taxes so levied, and the same shall be charged against such stockholders on the books of such banks or banking associations. And for the repayment thereof, such banks or banking associations shall have a lien upon the dividends declared in favor of, and the stock standing in the name of, such stockholders. And the said collectors of the towns or cities where such banks are located shall receive for collecting such taxes twelve cents for each shareholder which they receive for collecting the taxes of the towns or cities of which they are the collectors; which compensation shall be paid by the towns for whose benefit such tax is assessed.

SEC. 5. If any of the stock of such banks or banking associations is owned by, or stands in the name of, any persons or person not residing in this State, it shall be the duty of the cashier of such banks or banking associations, at the same time to transmit to the clerk of the towns in which such banks or banking associations are situated, the names of all such non-resident stockholders, with the number of shares standing in the name of each, on the book of such bank, together with the amount of money actually paid in on each share on the first day of April of each year; and such stock shall be assessed and taxed in the same manner and at the same rate as other personal property in the town where such bank or banking association is located, and such tax shall be collected as provided in the following section.

SEC. 5. Whenever the collector of any town or city wherein any bank or banking association is located, shall have a tax against any stockholder in such bank or banking association who is not a resident of this State, it shall be the duty of the cashier of such bank or banking association, upon presentation of such tax to him by the collector, to pay the same, and charge the same to such stockholder upon the books of such bank, and the stock of such stockholder, and all dividends due or becoming due upon the same, shall be holden to such banking association for the payment of such tax.

SEC. 6 If any cashier shall neglect or refuse to make such returns to any town in this State, as provided in this act, he shall forfeit and pay to the treasurer for such town, for the benefit of such town, the sum of five hundred dollars, to be recovered by an action on the case, in the name of such treasurer, founded upon this Statute.

SEC. 7. All associations or partnerships formed for the purpose of loaning money, or dealing in money, receiving deposits, buying and selling exchange, or transacting such other business as is usually transacted by banks, shall be deemed to be banks or banking associations, under the provisions and for the purpose of this act; and the cashiers thereof shall make the same returns to the various towns where the stockholders reside as are herein provided to be made by cashiers of National Banks; and any persons owning any portion of the funds employed in the business of such association or partnership, shall be deemed a stockholder therein. And the average amount of money loaned, from year to year, after deducting therefrom the average amount of deposits from year to year, by such association or partnership, shall be deemed to be the capital stock of such association or partnership and subject to taxation.

SEC. 8. It shall be lawful for all banks in this State to receive any rate of interest which may be agreed upon by the parties to any promissory note or contract in writing for the payment of money held or taken by said bank not exceeding 7 3-10 per cent. per annum.

By a New England Lady.
A New Novel by the Author of 'Madge.'
D. APPLETON & COMPANY,
443 and 445 Broadway, New York,
PUBLISH THIS DAY,
"SHERBROOKE."
By H. B. G., Author of "Madge." 1 vol. 12 mo. Cloth. Price $2.00.

The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and ennobling; at the same time the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. 'Aunt Lydia' and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. 'Hope,' the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for 'Sherbrooke' an immense sale."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 25, 1866.

SENATOR DOOLITTLE made a speech at Bangor on Thursday, to a very great Mass Convention of the Democracy and all others who sustain the restoration policy of President Johnson. At the close of the Doolittle speech, which was frequently cheered, the band played "Dixie," and Gov. Parsons of Alabama spoke: afterwards Mr. Pillsbury, the candidate for governor.

Cheers for the speakers who had addressed the Convention were then given; also cheers for Andrew Johnson, the Soldiers and the Union; after which the Convention dissolved. The reader can judge what soldiers and what Union were cheered, when he is informed what Virgil Delphini Paris was one of the Vice Presidents.

FISHING FOR SOLDIERS' VOTES.—The Washington correspondent of the Boston Advertiser intimates that the statement telegraphed over the country on Tuesday, that no order has been issued forbidding the Second Auditor to pay any bounties under the late law of Congress—is false: for, he asserts, such an order was in the Second Auditor's office Friday, Aug. 17. Instead of the delay being caused, as was alleged, by waiting for the report of the commission appointed by the Secretary of War, that report was ready to be made public on Monday last, and favored he payment under the bill, but it was suppressed by direction of the President. It looks thus far very much like an attempt to prevent any payment of bounties provided by Congress until after the elections, and at the same time to create the opinion that the bill was only designed by Congress as a feint to secure soldiers' votes. This unexpected exposure may bring out the report.

COLORADO.—It will be remembered that Doolittle announced at the Philadelphia Convention that Hunt, the Johnson candidate, was elected candidate from Colorado by a large majority, and thereupon there were immense cheers and a general handshaking. It now turns out that some cruel wag sold the Convention, and that Hunt was only elected to stay at home! Chillicotte, the Republican candidate, is elected to Congress, the southern counties, hitherto Democratic, returning heavy Republican majorities.

☞ A book has just been published by the American Unitarian Association, and Walker, Fuller & Co., Boston, which will be variously and generally noticed by the papers and magazines of different denominations. It is entitled "Orthodoxy: its Truths and Errors. By James Freeman Clarke." In looking over this volume, we find it one that will well repay the study, the careful study even of those who may differ greatly from many of the author's conclusions. Its intention is to make fair statements only,—and as he treats of subjects of the highest importance, he will have hosts of attentive readers, very many of whom will be somewhat wiser when they close the book, than when they opened it.

☞ AT NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 22d, a general order was issued by Gen. Sheridan, revoking General Order No. 60, declaring martial law and appointing a military Governor, but continues in force Gen. Sheridan's General Order No. 15, declaring martial law to exist for the preservation of the public peace and life and property, which was the status existing before the riot.

☞ It is said that the editor of the New Orleans Times is commencing libel suits against several Northern Papers.

EGYPT.—A great social reform is impending in Egypt. The Viceroy is about to publish a decree which will abolish polygamy in his family. Henceforth the Viceroys will have but one wife. They will be able to divorce her only in the case that the wife shall not give them a male child. If, at the moment of the divorce, the wife should be enciente, and she should have a son, the divorce would be void. All the high Egyptian functionaries declare their intention of imitating the Viceroy.

— The N. Y. Herald's Washington correspondent says he has excellent authority for stating that Jeff. Davis will be released on bail or parole soon, holding himself amenable to the process of the Court, which is expected to dispose of his case in October.

— A London item of Aug. 22, says Ex-Governor Eyre was received by his friends and the civil authorites of Southampton yesterday and entertained at a banquet in the evening. At a large opposition meeting resolutions condemning the in course in Jamaica were passed with great unanimity.

— It appears that stories of Indian depredations are sometimes manufactured by residents in frontier settlements, who desire the presence of troops for profit instead of protection. This turns out to be the case with regard to the reported massacre in Paradise Valley, Nevada, early in July.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Snow storm at Mount Washington Thursday night. Ground all white Friday morning.

—— Frost in Effingham and Freedom on the 15th.

—— The Enfield flannel factory is so pressed as to be unable to fill orders in season.

—— The store of Enoch H. Nutter, in Dover was burglariously entered on Wednesday night, and goods to the amount of $200 stolen.

—— In the vicinity of Concord market farmers have lately been taking their produce to Manchester on account of dull sales at home.

—— Conqueror Engine Co., No. 5, of Great Falls, on their return from Lewiston, Me., last Wednesday, were received by the fire department of Biddeford, and a ball was given in their honor.

—— The General Association of Presbyterian and Congregational Ministers will meet in Dover on Tuesday, to continue in session three days. The N. H. (domestic) Missionary Society holds a session connected with this meeting.

—— Early potatoes were sold at Concord, on Wednesday for seventy-five cents a bushel. Six weeks ago they brought three dollars a bushel at the same place. The decreased price is caused by the anticipation of a large yield of the late planted crop. The farmers however, are maintaining that the duty now imposed upon potatoes imported from the Provinces, on account of the expiration of the Reciprocity Treaty, will have a tendency to keep up the price.

— Over eighty woolen and calico mills are at present being built in Georgia.

☞ A correspondent of the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser writes thus of the splendid steamers building at Newburyport, for the American Steamship Company, to ply between Boston and Liverpool:

"In the ship yard, under a bright sun, a hundred hammers were busy. The ax and the mallet were plied by brown and sturdy arms, and just clear of the water's edge rose the vast nude hull of a beautiful vessel. The knees and the ribs, and the trunk of that wonderful work were in their place, firmly bound or riveted together. Every day's work was adding to its completion; its powerful ribs of oak were fastened with bands of iron; outside it was covered with smooth timbers. Then I thought of the skeleton of a fish fleshed over and covered with a beautiful, firm, close, shining scale armor; just so this mighty frame of a ship was being covered over, to let the smooth strong water rush frictionless past its polished sides, and noiseless, like light, glide under its narrow keel. Amazed, like a dreamer, in the midst of a work so substantial and vast, and calculated from the smallest rivet to the topmost pulley; beholding men looking as diminutive as maggots in the trunk of a mastodon, plying their hammers, I marveled at the work of their hands, and I was convinced that man's constructive genius is as great and sincere to day as when, animated with the religious ideas of the middle ages, it built the cathedrals of Europe. Much as an ant might look at and climb up a twig to the prostrate trunk of some giant oak, and enter through a gimlet hole, I went up and into this vast vessel. I stood on the keel, and let my eye follow the symmetrical and beautiful curves of the ship's sides, from stem to stern,—then I looked up, and, like the reversed nave of some great cathedral, I saw the vast timbers grouped about and forming an arch under me! There I was in the empty frame of a ship larger than any I had ever seen, except the Great Eastern; and the mightiness of work, and of the power of man's constructive genius, impressed itself upon me as never before. This was not merely a building; it was a design, symmetrical and vast, and the last result of the art and science of naval architecture.

These steamers we understand will be the largest merchant steamers afloat—about 4000 tons burden—and are built by Messrs. Pierce and Macmichael, for Mr. Jackman, the contractor. Mr. Pierce was formerly of this city.

GEN. GRANT.—The Boston Advertiser's Washington correspondent, (usually one of the best informed,) writes as follows under date of Aug. 23:

All General Grant's friends were surprised at his presence at the White House when the committee from the Philadelphia convention presented their proceedings to the President, as the act was totally at variance with his habit of strictly abstaining from even a seeming interference with political affairs. It is known that General Grant was not present on that occasion of his own accord, but through a prearranged plan of Mr. Johnson and the managers.—Just before the time appointed for the interview the President sent for General Grant, saying he desired to see him on business. When the General had hastened over from his headquarters and had entered the President's room, the Philadelphia committee was announced and ushered in, and General Grant found himself drawn in as a spectator and apparent endorser of the affair,—a helpless victim of the same cunning which so admirably controlled the great lockjaw convention. General Grant has never departed from his habit of non-interference in the political issues between the President and Congress.

☞ It is stated that Gen. Tilson will succeed Gen. Howard in charge of the Freedmen's Bureau some time during this month. This is probable; for the N. Y. Times says General Tilson has been telegraphed to return to Washington from Saco, instead of to Georgia.

THE NEW ORLEANS TRIBUNE.—This paper, which has been suspended by the order of the rioters in New Orleans, was started some two or three years since by some wealthy colored creoles in that city, and owned principally by Dr. C. L. Roudanez, a native of New Orleans, who had received his education at the University of Paris. It was a daily paper and published in French and English, and was circulated principally among the colored people.

When General Carl Shurz was in New Orleans, and in Gen. Canby's office, he inquired for a loyal paper to read, and General Canby referred him to the Tribune, stating that this was the only loyal paper in the city. Its comments on the riot have not been very complimentary to the rebel authrities, and they were largely quoted at the North; hence the arbitrary suspension of the paper.

"The Loyal Tribune, it is understood," say the New York Express, "was the offspring of a conviction in somebody's mind that a sort of New-York Tribune could be kept alive in the South; but the result would seem to show that some one has blundered." To this the N. Y. Tribune replies, "Some one has blundered in this miserable sneer at the suspension of the only Union journal in New Orleans. Some one has blundered in encouraging the Rebel spirit till military power is required to protect loyal papers. The New Orleans Tribune was stopped by the rioters, who were not stopped by President Johnson, and it is like The Express to rejoice over such a double act of shame."

We add, this is the same kind of liberty of the press which was allowed in rebeldom during the war—and is exactly what the President's new friends ordain, and he tacitly approves. Base, mean tyranny it is, practised by base men for base purposes.

☞ John F. Rich, Esq., of the Boston Commercial Bulletin, at a banquet given in Milwaukie, in honor of the success of the Atlantic Cable, replied to the toast—"The Telegraph and the Press," from which we extract as follows:—

The Telegraph and the Press! They are the true civilizers of the world. My hearers, did you ever consider what a paper is?

It is midnight! The city is quiet and its sidewalks give echo only to the low tread of the police, or the hurried step of the local editor going his rounds. In the telegraph office the gas is brilliant, and the measured taps at a dozen keys, sound more like indistinct drum beats than the announcement of stirring events, that they are. The operator, than whom no class of men work harder for so little pay, keeps an acute ear, and his fast moving pencil indicates the reception of important news, that tomorrow morning shall divide public opinion or unite extremes. It may be from the Milwaukie wheat market, and the down town merchants advancing their flour shall pat their pocket books, or assume serene countenances and submit to decline. It may be of death, that has held high carnival on some railroad or river and shall send a shudder to more hearts than those whose hearth stones are thus made vacant. It may be of liberty when some emancipation is declared, whereat humanity shall raise hearty huzzas. Or of crime, reeking in innocent blood, or expiated at the gallows. Or fire has swept its bosom and destroyed a city, or mob law reigns in appalling terror. Perchance of a wedding, a funeral or birth, of war, or peace, or friendly congratulations between our President and the Queen.—Light and shadow play across the operator's face, as clouds flit across the blue summer sky, indicating the character of the news he is receiving.

And overhead it may be, high up in the attic stories, hear the click of the type, as "with eyelids weary and worn" the compositors unravel the dispatches and give them form and order. An observant eye, a clear head theirs, for a misplaced punctuation mark or wrong letter, shall confuse the public and bring not empty execrations from the expectant public, who imagine that in the steady whirl of brain, attendant upon the editorial and typographical care of a newspaper, there need not be an error. The Telegraph and the Press! The operator and the compositor! Your mission is one and wearisome, but will never be fully appreciated. Yours is to build or to destroy!

— He is the hapiest who does the most to make others happy. The inventor of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus must be the happiest man is existence, for we hazard nothing in saying, that the use of the Gold Medal Saleratus cannot fail to make a happy household. Our better half says she does not fear of our ever frowning, as long as she can get the genuing Herrick Allen's. We say success to the inventor, and if everybody knew how good it is, no other would be used. A good many of our Merchants have it.—Their depot is 112 Liberty Street, New York.

☞ Senator Connell and Dr. Duffie visited Fortress Monroe on Saturday, and the Doctor had an interview with Jeff. Davis. He thinks the rebel chief looks as well as he did three years ago. So says an item. But the doctor may be mistaken, or the stories of sickness and decay may be humbug and sham. The public are not very anxious about Jeff., however. He is the prisoner of the President, who holds the pardoning power and can release him, if it agrees with his policy.

IF TEETH COULD SPEAK, they would often reproach their owners. "We cannot clean ourselves," would be the cry of many a neglected set, "and are going to ache and ruin, simply for the lack of a daily brushing with the fragrant Sozodont, the only known means of preserving us. But as the Teeth cannot speak, the Press must speak for them. 39

Prescribed Golden Seal.

Recommended for the treatment of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, General Debility, and Fever and Ague, and warranted a cure. Invented by Dr. G. C. SEGUR. It is a vegetable compound of thirteen distinct articles, and is approved and prescribed by the medical profession. A physician who has made use of it in his practice says: "it is harmless, while it is potent; nor does it, as is the case with many medicines, leave a shattered constitution in its track." Hygienic Wine.

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Invigorating substances. It repays with great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS SYSTEM is most astonishing; for, while it gently exhilarates, by re-animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE.

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is universally used as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

Is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself true to its name, OUR PAIN KILLER. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy, the positive proof of its efficacy is that it has been handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. au1duwtm

Local.

☞ The residents near the bridge from the foot of Market street to Noble's Island were aroused by long continued shouting on Friday morning. First deeming it to be a disturbance created by some over-exuber ant reveller, they for a long time paid no farther heed to the cries than to anathemize the disturber of their sleep. When they did sally forth to learn the cause of the outcries, a man from Dover was found clinging to a spike in one of the piles near the draw in the bridge, in a much exhausted condition, having been in the water nearly two hours.

He was rescued by Messrs. Saml. Wilson, jr. and Frank C. Wendell, and conveyed to the house of the former, where he was properly cared for. It was about half-past 2 o'clock in the morning when the man was found. His pocket book was missing, and he thinks he was robbed by two men who were in his company, and either pushed him overboard, or led him to such a position as to walk from the bridge himself.

☞ Rev. Rufus W. Clark of Brooklyn will preach at the North Church to-morrow morning and in the evening at half-past 7 o'clock—Rev. Mr. Adams the pastor in the afternoon.

☞ At a picnic at South Berwick, on Tuesday the 21st inst., a gentleman from this city lost his watch. We learn that the watch has since been restored to the owner, through the influence of the confessional.

☞ We are informed that Capt. Warsaw has deposed of his business in the manufacture of Mineral Water and Beer, to Mr Pease of Newmarket.

GOOD.—Since the 15th of May eleven counterfeiters have been arrested in this State and in Maine, all of whom are either in jail or under bonds to appear for trial in September and October. This is believed to comprise the whole gang of principals in the two states—some of the accessories are still at large.

☞ A Daboll trumpet, giving blasts of five seconds duration, with intervals of twenty seconds between the blasts, during foggy weather, has been ordered to be put up at Boon Island.

☞ A splendid moonlight excursion for the trifling sum of fifty cents is offered this evening. The best guide book of the Shoals is a set of Davis's fine stereoscopic views.

☞ The Camp Meeting at Kennebunk closes this morning. The attendance has not been as large as on some former occasions. Weather not very favorable.

☞ Mr. Shores advertises this morning Pettee's patent envelopes. Their peculiarity is that the seams are on the end, rendering the envelope much smoother to write upon, and for printing upon superior to any heretofore in use, stronger and better to seal.

☞ Frank Fuller, formerly Governor of Utah, and now Vice-President of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, has been appointed Commissioner to the Paris Exposition, to represent Utah, and has accepted the appointment.

GOLD, Friday, 150 3 8 to 148 3-8.

☞ The story sent over the Atlantic Cable by the London correspondent of the New York Herald that a large amount of gunpowder had been discovered concealed under the Parliament buildings, with the evident intention of blowing the "King and Commons" into kingdom come, was a canard London papers of a date twenty four hours later than the time the story was sent over the cable do not even mention any such attempt.

— At Buffalo, N. Y., Hon. Almon W. Clapp, (Republican) Postmaster, has been superseded by J. Candee.

— Mrs. Leonidas Polk, widow of the Louisiana Bishop and rebel General, is in such reduced circumstances that she has opened a female educational institute to support herself and family.

SENATOR HOWE'S COUNSEL.—Senator Howe of Wisconsin was welcomed home by his neighbors of Madison, to whom he made an address, concluding with the following spirited words:

"Fellow citizens, I have defamed you too long already. The issue is with you. I know there is a fearful apprehension in the public mind that some great public danger is impending. There is no danger whatever. The people of the United States are masters of the situation. The supreme authority is in you. If you want this 'chore' done, you can send representatives there to do it; but if you don't want it done, you continue to send such representatives as you have had there, and it will not be done. You may rely upon that. The President of the United States cannot coerce the Congress of the United States—cannot coerce the people of the United States. If he tries he will fail in it. If he attempts by any revolutionary means to effect it, he will simply become a criminal before the law, and he will cease to be President of the United States. That is all. (Cheers.) You are masters of the situation. Stand where you are. Be firm; be resolute; be true to your convictions, and not only will your representatives in Congress continue to obey that will, but the President of the United States, whom you made and whom you can unmake, will soon learn to obey your will—Rest upon that. (Enthusiastic applause.)"

— The N. Y. Independent contradicts an idle report that its editor, Theo. Tilton, is a candidate for Congress in Brooklyn or elsewhere. His ambition is satisfied with editing the most widely circulated and generally read religious-political journal in America—probably in the world—and he wisely refuses to be a candidate for any office.

The well-known and beautifully situated CUTTS HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath room, billiard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.
The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.
The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first-class wine cellar. The House is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.
The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.
If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.
The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery,—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The winding drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

SWEETS OF WOMAN'S LIFE.

BY MARGARET SWAYNE.

A babe at rest on mother's breast,
Too young to smile or weep,
Conscious of sought but mother's love—
So sweet is infant's sleep.

A child at play in meadows green,
Plucking the fragrant flowers,
Chasing the bright-winged butterflies—
So sweet are childhood's hours.

A maiden fair as early dawn,
Radiant with every grace,
Gladd'ning the eye that looks on her—
So sweet is beauty's face.

A softly-blushing, downcast look,
Murmur of startled love,
Answering another's tender words—
So sweet is maiden's love.

A white-robed virgin kneeling low,
Before God's altar bowed,
For ever joined two hearts and hands—
So sweet are marriage vows.

A youthful mother bending o'er
Her first-born beauteous boy,
For ever here till death shall part—
So sweet a mother's joy.

A matron in life's autumn time,
With young life clustered o'er,
Her children's children clasp her knees—
So rich is autumn's store.

An aged form, whose dimming eyes
Foretell departing breath,
Are closed by grateful, loving hands—
So sweet is peaceful death.

Six feet of grass-grown flow'ry sod
On earth's kind, sheltering breast,
For ever freed from grief and pain—
So sweet eternal rest.

LIFE TOO SHORT FOR STRIFE.—Dickens thus beautifully moralizes:

On a dying bed, how insignificant will appear many things about which we contend in bitterness and wrath! Life is so short, its inevitable sorrows so many, its responsibilities so vast and solemn, that there is, indeed, no time to spare in bruising and mangling one another. Let not the sun go down on your wrath. Never close your eyes to sleep with your heart angry towards your brother and fellow sufferer. If he is a true man and a Christian he will listen. If he is not you will have done right, and your soul will be bright with the sunshine of Heaven.

FLOWERS.—The very memory of a flower, suddenly recalled, brings back with it all the pleasures of the earlier time—the feeling of youth, of health and of hope. There is something in the lovliness of flowers which, striking first upon the chord of beauty, warbles onward and upward until it reaches religion. When the great Swedish botanist visited England, and saw for the first time a heath covered with the yellow gorse, he fell upon his knees, crying. And he could not afford to cry, for he was not a sentimentalist, but a man of action and endurance.

— The shipment of Oregon salmon to Eastern Atlantic portsis becoming quite a feature of the export trade there. A single firm on the Columbia river, it is said, ship on average 500 barrels annually.

Important to the Afflicted.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and other comforts at moderate rates. Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dow's Pills also for sale—the French Capotles, warranted the best preventive. NEW HAMPSHIRE LAWS.

State of New Hampshire.

In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

AN ACT to incorporate the New Hampshire College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

SECTION 1. That a College is hereby established, incorporated and made a body politic and corporate, by the name of the New Hampshire College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, whose leading object shall be, without excluding military tactics, to teach such branches of learning as are related to Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, in conformity to an act of Congress entitled "An act donating land to the several States and Territories which may provide colleges for the benefit of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, approved July 2, 1862," and by that name may sue and be sued, prosecute and defend to final judgement and execution, and shall be vested with all the powers and privileges and be subject to all the liabilities incident to corporations of a similar nature.

SEC. 2. The general government of this College shall be vested in nine trustees, five of whom shall be appointed, one from each Councillor District and commissioned by the Governor, with the advice of the Council, and four by the Trustees of Dartmouth College, and be so classified and commissioned, that the offices of three trustees shall become vacant annually.

SEC. 3. The Trustees shall appoint a Secretary, who shall keep a full and fair record of their proceedings, and a Treasurer, who shall give bonds for the faithful discharge of his duties in such sums as the trustees may require; and may receive such compensation for his services as they may deem reasonable. They shall also appoint a Faculty of Instruction, prescribe their duties and invest them with such powers, for the immediate government and management of the institution as they may deem most conducive to its best interests.

SEC. 4. No trustees shall receive any compensation for his services; but expenses reasonably incurred by him, shall be paid by the College.

SEC. 5. The trustees shall make annual report to the Legislature of the financial condition of the operations and progress of the College, recording any improvements and experiments made, with their cost and results, including State industrial and economical statistics, as may be supposed useful, one copy of which shall be transmitted by mail, free to all the other colleges which may be endowed under the provisions of the act of Congress herein before mentioned, and also one copy to the United States Secretary of the Interior.

SEC. 6. The trustees are authorized and empowered to locate and establish the College incorporated by this act, at Hanover, in this State, in connection with Dartmouth College, and with that corporation to make all necessary contracts, in relation to the terms of connection therewith, subject to be terminated upon a notice of one year, given at any time after fourteen years, and to its furnishing to the college of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts the free use of an experimental farm, of all requisite buildings, of the libraries, labratories, apparatus and museums of said Dartmouth College, and for supplying such instructions in addition to that furnished by its professors and teachers, as the best interests of its students may require; and also as to any legacy said Dartmouth College may receive from the estate of the late David Culver. The said trustees are also authorized and directed to furnish, so far as may be practicable, free tuition to indigent students of the College, and to make provision for the delivery of free lectures in different parts of the State upon subjects pertaining to Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts.

SEC. 7. All funds derived from the sale of the land scrip issued to the State of New Hampshire, by the United States, in pursuance of the Act of Congress herein before mentioned, shall be invested in registered bonds of the State of New Hampshire, or of the United States, which shall be delivered to the State Treasurer, who shall have the custody of the same, and pay over the income thereof, as it may accrue, to the treasurer of of the College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts.

SEC. 8. His excellency, the Governor, may call the first meeting of the trustees, by sending in each a written or printed notice of the time and place of holding the same, ten days before the day of meeting.

SEC. 9. This act shall take effect upon its passage. Approved. July 7, 1866.

SCANDALOUS.—The Philadelphia managers ought to send missionaries down South to explain things. The papers there don't seem to have the right emotions over the touching scenes of the great convention.—The Charlottesville, Va., Chronicle has the following:—

"South Carolina walking down the aisle of the Philadelphia Convention, weeping on the bosom of Massachusetts, is one of the most touching pictures since the laying of the Atlantic Cable. If that doesn't melt the North, then they are a stolid race. It seemed to us in a figure, John C. Calhoun penitentially embracing the knees of John Quincy Adams, crying, 'Oh! my Lord, have mercy!'"

ALCOHOL.—Dr. Jolly, a French physician, has begun war upon alcohol. In a report sent to the Academy of Medicine at Paris, he says that in every country the statistics of the amount of alcohol imbibed precisely correspond with the number of judicial sentences recorded in law reports of the year, as well as with the number of poor, of beggars, of vagabonds, of divorces, husbands and wives, of idiot rickety children, of suicides, murders, and of epileptics and lunatics inscribed on State registers. The consumption of spirituous liquors is rapidly increasing in France.

By a New England Lady.
A New Novel by the Author of 'Madge.'
D. APPLETON & COMPANY,
443 445 Broadway, New York,
PUBLISH THIS DAY,
"SAHBROOKE."
By H. B. G, Author of "Madge." 1 vol. 12 mo. Cloth. Price $2.00.
The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and ennobling; at the same time the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. 'Aunt Lydia' and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. 'Hope,' the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for 'Sherbrooke' an immense sale."

Portsmouth N. H.

MONDAY, AUGUST 27, 1866.

☞ The publication of official dispatches to and from New Orleans in regard to the Convention riots, shows a deplorable state of affairs. Much of chicanery and political juggling is exhibited on both sides. Gen. Sheridan, whom we suppose is free of the imputation of being an extremist on either side of the question, in a lengthy dispatch of the 8th inst., in which he shows up the existing state of affairs in a very dark light, (if such an expression be allowable,) says:

No steps have yet been taken by the civil authorities to arrest citizens who were engaged in the massacre, or policemen who perpetrated such cruelties. The members of the Convention have been indicted by grand jury, and many of them arrested and held to bail. As to whether the civil authorities can mete out ample justice to the guilty parties on both sides, I must say it is my opinion unequivocally that they cannot. Judge Abel, whose course I have closely watched for nearly a year, I now consider one of the most dangerous men that we have here to the peace and quiet of the city. The leading men of the Convention, King, Cutler, Hahn, and others, have been political agitators, and are bad men. I regret to say that the course of Gov. Wells has been vacillating, and that during the late troubles he has shown very little of the man.

☞ 300 French troops sailed from Vera Cruz, Mexico, Aug. 13, for France.—When Tampico was captured all of Mejia's division, which was sent to reinforce the garrison, turned over to the Liberals in a body on the surrender. A general removal of Mexican officials is going on, and Frenchmen put in their places. The Police Department is also being reorganized. Mazatlan was still fiercely besieged by the Liberals on the 6th of July. The Liberals were very strong in the vicinity of Jalapa. Desultory and indecisive fighting continued throughout the country.

☞ In the National Labor Congress the committee on the Eight-Hour System made a report recommending to every friend of the movement to vote for no candidate for public office who is not unequivocally pledged to vote for a law making eight hours a legal day's work, and in favor of all measures of labor reform; also, that when a workingman is found available for any office, the preference should invariably be given to him.

"Centres of circles are requested to forward immediately to these headquarters the name of a competent military man from each circle for the purpose of appointment, to reorganize the military branch of each circle. Care must be taken that none but experienced and tried officers be selected."

☞ Dispatches from Europe by the cable to the 23d, show the war in Europe to be ended for the present. Bavaria cedes two Districts, with a population of 40,000, to Prussia. Defensive measures are discontinued in Switzerland. Austria has released 2500 Italian prisoners, but continues to remove national relics and objects of art from Venice. Honors to our representatives continue on a grand scale in Russia.

☞ The statement that the Government had restored Henry A. Wise his property proves to have been erroneous. He says, however, that he soon expects to get it back. As for a pardon from the Government, he said long since that he never should ask for one, and now he adds that if one were given him he would spurn it with contempt.

— John C. Breckinridge of Kentucky is mentioned as the probable successor of Hon. Joseph Holt, Judge Advocate-General.

— The Union Pacific Railroad has 195 miles completed, and trains were running to Fort Kearney on Friday.

— Reports from the South and Southwest show that the army worm and the caterpiller have begun their ravages on the cotton.

— Mrs. Alfred Ranse died at North Adams on Friday, after a sickness of a year and a half, which was caused by excessive fright at a fire.

— The reports received by the Commissioner of Customs show the fact that the labors of the detectives have resulted in an almost entire suppression of the smuggling business, several of the prominent operators in that line having been arrested.

— On Wednesday two young sailors started down the river at Newport, R. I., for a sail, when the boat was struck by a flaw of wind and capsized. Charles H. McComber of Fall River, twenty-one years of age, was drowned.

— The State Street church and Society of Portland have unanimously voted to grant their pastor, Rev. George L. Walker, leave of absence for one year, on account of his failing health, and to continue his salary. The pulpit will be occupied during his absence.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— James Fellows, of Henniker, has purchased about twenty tons of wool, at 50 to 60 cents a pound, for a Boston dealer.

—— The Amoskeag Co. are clearing away the channel to build a new dam at the falls.

—— Postmaster Clark of Manchester, lies in a very critical condition, and his physicians report but a saint chance for his recovery. Mr. Clark is a brother of Hon. Daniel Clark.

—— On Friday, the 24th, the town of Claremont, voted four to one to give $100,000 bonus to aid the construction of the Sugar River Railroad, from Bradford to Claremont.

—— The four other Trustees of the Agricultural College, Concord, appointed by Dartmouth College, are President Asa D. Smith, Governor Smyth, Ex-Governor Colby, Judge Ira A. Eastman.

—— The Republican State Committee of New Hampshire will meet at the Phenix Hotel in Concord on Wednesday evening next, the 29th instant, to choose delegates to the Southern Union Convention to be held in Philadelphia September 3.

—— Edward Marsh, a young man of twenty-five years, of Nashua, has disappeared under somewhat mysterious circumstances. He was employed as a tin pedlar, with a one horse establishment. He started on a trip Monday, Aug. 6th, put up his team the next Friday night at a hotel in North Chelmsford and left ostensibly for Boston, saying he should return Saturday morning, but had not beenheard from up to the 23d.

GEN. SHERMAN IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The following handsome note from Col. Bowman, Chief of Gen. Sherman's Staff, to Gov. Smyth,—we are sure will awaken feelings of pride and gratification in the hearts of the whole people of our State.

Not only was the handsome manner in which Gen. Sherman was received and entertained by Gov. Smyth and our people, honorable and gratifying to the hero of the famous march "to the sea," but it also gave another illustration of the hospitality and generosity of the Old Granite State:

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.

MY DEAR GOVERNOR:—If Gen. Sherman and the party with him during our recent journey through New Hampshire, failed to express their sense of your kindness and attention, so practically and agreeably manifested towards them, on that occasion, then let me now express it, so far as words can do it,—for I assure you the obligation was felt, not only by the General, but by us all. No sooner had we touched the soil of your State, than there came over us a homelike feeling, which attended us until we left it. Though I may never look out upon New Hampshire again, still it will ever appear beautiful to me.

All you allowed us to do was to leave our blessing, for not one farthing would your people allow us to spend for travel, for comfort, or for luxuries. And more still, they made the time pass so agreeably! Well, God bless you! my good Governor, and may you live long and enjoy many years of honorable service in the cause of your country.

WASHINGTON ITEMS, Aug. 24.—A Washington special says Secretary Seward, Weed and Raymond are making desperate efforts to retain Mr. Stanton in the Cabinet.

The President has intimated to General Howard, Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau, that his resignation would be acceptable; but General Howard declines to resign.

Boston Corbett yesterday received $1684 for his share in the capture of the assassin Booth.

The Tribune says we have a report from Washington, which we credit, that General P'hil. Sheridan has been relieved from his command and Gen. Steedman sent down to take his place.

A petition to Congress, signed by Union men of Louisiana, respectfully representing that after four years combating the armed forces of the rebels and traitors, they are not prepared or willing that these same rebels and traitors should return among them, assume authority, maltreat with contumely and contempt and otherwise abuse them, has been sent North. The petitioners set forth at length their grievances, and call for protection.

GOLD.—The gold market was weak at the close of the week, and the precious metal was quoted at 147 3-4 on Saturday.

☞ Cholera is epidemic and destructive at St. Louis, and great anxiety prevails.—Many persons are leaving.

☞ Beadle's Monthly for September, with its varied contents, is received from the publishers, Beadle & Co., New York. $3 a year, 25 cents a number. Batchelder has it.

☞ The American edition of the Westminster Review for July is received from the L. Scott Publishing Co., New York.—Contents— Tenant Right in Ireland, Brigandage, Ecce Homo, The origin of Language, Legendary Love of Iceland; Italy, Venice and Austria; Chaucer, Felix Holt, &c. Terms $4 per year. Office 38 Walker street.

— A Leavenworth dispatch reports additional murders by the Indians between Forts Reno and Laramie. A fearful and bloody war is predicted.

Local.

GEORGE CLARK ABBOTT,—Who was murdered in Texas on the 14th inst., was a native of Portsmouth, and was 28 years of age. Previous to the rebellion he and his brother Pierce Abbott, went to Texas to reside with their brother John. They were all Union men, and after the war broke out they were obliged to separate and flee for their lives. George, dressed in disguise and his pockets full of Secesh papers, made, through terrible dangers, disheartening difficulties, the best of his way to New Orleans. There he applied at the Mayor's office for a pass to visit his brother, whom he represented as being a soldier at Fort Jackson. He got the pass as a citizen of Texas, crossed the river at New Orleans, hired a flat wherry and two Spaniards (fishermen) to carry him down the river to Fort Jackson, where he showed his pass and was admitted. He stayed till night, fixed the oars and sail so as to make the boat drift out of the range of the Fort. With pistol in one hand and dirk in the other, he forced the fishermen to proceed down the stream to the N. E. Pass, when sails were furled and rowing ceased in consequence of sentinels being posted on both sides of the Pass. He knew the Steam Frigate Brooklyn lay off the Pass, and thought in the night the boat might be taken for a drifting log. He was right. By a flash of lightning he discovered just where the steamer lay at anchor and drifted to it and struck it. As his little wherry struck the frigate, there was a rush to the decks, supposing an infernal machine had struck her. His game had worked to suit him. He was taken with the others and put in irons, but soon liberated, being identified by some one.

He came home and afterwards went to work in the Navy Yard. That was too tame a life, and he applied for the situation of boatswain in the Navy and got it, and served with much credit till the close of the rebellion. He was detailed by Gen. Howard to serve in the Freedmen's Bureau in Texas. After discharging his duties there for a time, and supposing Texas a safe place to live in, he resigned, settled on a plantation there, sent for his wife and child, who joined him there in season to see the husband and father a martyr to the "Policy" that, unrestrained, would inevitabl ydo with ballots what could not be done with bullets, give the major control of this Government to the secessionists of the South.

John and Pierce Abbott succeeded in making good their escape, though with barely their lives. Pierce has been almost a cripple ever since from the fatigue and exposure of his escape from Texas. If alive, both are near where their brother was murdered.

OUTRAGEOUS.—A most unwarrantable piece of recklessness occurred near the Powder House on Friday afternoon. The Ivanhoe, with a party from the scene of the base ball match, was driving down the road, when suddenly a barouche filled with men came up to pass them, on a gallop. Between the Ivanhoe and the wall was a boy, named Horace Adams, and the driver of the Ivanhoe called out to the parties in the barouche to look out or they would run over him. No heed was taken of the admonition—the boy hugged the wall as closely as possible, but was knocked down and run over, and when picked up was very pale and his coat frightfully rent by his severe treatment. The offenders drove on without stopping, but we trust will yet be called to account, and receive to the full extent that justice which their conduct merits.

☞ Friday afternoon, two men were riding up Islington street in a buggy. When near Dover street, they turned the team aside from a puddle, the hub of one of the wheels struck a tree box, and the horse taking fright, turned suddenly around, throwing the driver out and breaking the shafts from the vehicle. Clearing himself from the carriage, the horse dashed down street until he reached Market Square, where he brought up against one of Pierce & Packer's posts.

☞ Some bungler in the art of appropriating other men's goods, on Friday night cut a circular piece of glass from a window in Thacher's drug store, at the corner of State and Pleasant streets. A diamond was evidently used for the purpose, and the aperture was barely of size to admit a hand. The thanks of Mr. T. are due the operator for having selected a fractured pane to practice upon.

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most eminent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY:

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic and Febrifuge substances. It preserves with a superiority all other Bitters, which have for base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskey. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects of the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, leaving behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unscelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

Is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Invalid Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER after a thorough trial by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best family Medicine now introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and which proves its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken in cases of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. auldawlm

BASE BALL.—Several hundred spectators witnessed the game of base ball between the Rockingham club of this city and the Whipple club of Kittery, Friday afternoon, at the Plains. The Rockinghams won the toss for choice and chose first outs, the Whipples going to the bat and scoring 6 runs on the first innings, followed by the Rockinghams who were put out after having made 3 runs only. At the close of the second inning the Rockinghams led their opponents by 4 runs and held the lead, constantly gaining to the close, winning by a score of 58 to 25. Some very fine playing was displayed on both sides and several rich incidents in the course of the game served to enliven the proceedings. Much merriment was caused by the antics displayed by one of the players whose nervousness and agility reminded us of an india rubber man, and who brought down the crowd by putting out one of his opponents on a chase from the third to the home base. We venture to say that he has double barreled joints, and would not care to contract to furnish him with skull caps for the season.

Though great skill is required in playing base ball there is yet a great deal in having a run of good luck. One of the finest players on the field Friday was peculiarly unfortunate in his scoring and yet played with skill while his side was out. In justice to the Kittery club it is but fair to state that one or two of their best players were unavoidably absent. The fielding by both sides was good, the Rockingham's excelling. The latter club still continues its daily practice at Rundlett's hill every afternoon at 4 o'clock. Below we publish the score of the game.

— The New York Post says the fall wholesale trade in general dry goods is opening in that city with much activity, and there are indications of a large business.

Our Citizens will have an opportunity

Friday and Saturday Evenings,

Aug. 31st and Sept. 1st,

to see one of the best exhibitions that ever visited our city. When it was here last winter it drew large audiences. It is now accompanied by the

who are unsurpassed by any troupe traveling. Their delineations of the Negro character, with Song and Dance, enliven the POLYORAMA, and break the monotony of such exhibitions. Here is a combination that is worthy of patronage, and those who miss seeing it this time will be the losers, for it is not the intention of the proprietor to ever again visit our city. We copy below the notice given of the Polyorama when in Dover last winter, and shall also give some from papers where it has been exhibited since it left there. They show that the citizens of other large cities had the same appreciation of its merits that the Dover people had. Those who saw it last winter will wish to see it again with its additional attractions. To those who did not see it, we say embrace the present opportunity to do so; it is money well spent.

Although we knew that our citizens would appreciate and welcome an exhibition of the character of this one, we were not prepared to see so large an audience as was present at its opening last evening. Indeed we seldom have seen so many people at an entertainment of this character on the opening night. The hall was filled to its fullest capacity, and during two hours the multitude sat in rapt attention, frequently testifying their approval by the most enthusiastic applause.—Dover Gazette.

Single Tickets 30 Cents. Four for $1.

Children admitted Saturday Afternoon for 10c.

Tickets can be had at the Hall from 4 to 5 o'clock, and seats reserved without additional expense. There will be A FREE CONCERT at 7½ o'clock each evening, in front of the Hall, by a full Brass Band. au27

SIAMESE TWINS

AND THEIR CHILDREN
AND THEIR CHILDREN.

After a seclusion of 13 years from public life, the Siamese Twins—CHANG and ENG—respectfully announce to the public that they are now to make a farewell tour of the United States, when they trust that the same liberal patronage bestowed on their first traveling tour will be accorded to them on these their

Grand Farewell Entertainments.

Grim visaged war, which for four years swept with relentless fury over our land, destroying the farm owned by the Siamese Twins in North Carolina, and where for thirteen years they dwelt in quiet seclusion, upon hundreds of their families, the fierce ousset of contention having laid waste their entire property, and having been repeatedly importuned to appear once more before the public, they have concluded to give this series of entertainments, which will be conducted on the same plan as those heretofore given, with such marked success, before the crowned heads and nobility of France, Germany, and England, where their series created a furore equalled only by the immense ovation who thronged to see them in all the principal cities of the United States.

CHANG AND ENG

WILL BE ACCOMPANIED

BY THEIR CHILDREN,

Who have been born since their last appearance in public.

It would be superfluous to dwell upon the merits of the Twins as a rare curiosity, for the most eminent Physicians and scientific men are unanimous in pronouncing the Siamese Twins as the GREATEST CURIOSITY IN THE WORD.

Grover's Theatre, Washington, D. C.,

Postponed until

Thursday Evening, Oct. 11th, '66.

300,000 Tickets, at $1 each. 75,000 Presents, valued at $250,000, consisting of fine Residences, Lots, Pianos, Diamonds, Jewelry, Silver Ware, etc., etc.

A CARD.—A large number of Tickets remaining unsold, it will be necessary to POSTPONE THE DRAWING until THURSDAY, the 11th of October, 1866, at which it will positively occur. The many swindling schemes that have been presented to the public during the last few months somewhat delayed our sales, until we were able to satisfy the people throughout the country that this enterprise was genuine, and solely for charitable purposes. Directors are confident of the sale of every ticket, and have allotted sufficient time to guarantee the sales without any further postponement.

Postmasters, Booksellers, etc., are requested to act as Agents, and Tickets will be supplied on application, and no commission will be allowed

"Out of Provisions and Terribly Demoralized."—The reading of the account of delegates of the once powerful democratic party of New Hampshire, going down upon their knees to the President begging for offices as soon as steam could carry them from Philadelphia to Washington, reminded us of an incident which occurred during the rebellion. Soon after the battle of Pittsburg Landing, a squad of rebel soldiers, whose short rations and hard usage had increased their dislike of the service, wandered away from their regiment, hesitating whether to desert or to loiter, but at all events determined to have something to eat. They were discovered by a detachment of Union soldiers, who hailed them saying, "Hallos Rebs, what's the matter?" The rebels replied, "Out of provisions and terribly demoralized."—Portsm. Journal.

Boar's Head, Hampton Beach.—This old favorite resort bids fair to recover its former popularity with all "who go down to the sea" to escape the hot weather and enjoy the ocean breeze or ocean baths. The whole promontory known as Boar's Head, is now the property of Mr. S. H. Dumas, of the Concord Phœnix Hotel, who, having enlarged, altered, improved and refurnished the old hotel in excellent style, is there himself, taking the personal supervision of everything, and making visitors as comfortable as he knows how to do, and as few landlords know better. Thus far, the experiment has been a perfect success. Boar's Head Hotel has been full all the season since it was opened; and the guests stay delighted, and go away delighted, firmly resolved to return—this season if they can; next season whether or no."

A Leap into the Niagara River.—At Niagara Falls yesterday, a team owned by a man named Martin, attached to a carriage, containing a party of three gentlemen, jumped from the roadway down an embankment twelve feet high, into the river, just above the bridge leading to Goat Island. It required the utmost exertions of the driver and party, none of whom were injured, to save the team from being swept over the Falls.—Buffalo paper, Aug. 21.

The State of New Hampshire.

Executive Department, Concord, Aug. 2 1866.

To the Agents of the several towns and cities in the State of New Hampshire, appointed to sell spirituous and intoxicating liquors, under the act entitled an Act for the suppression of intemperance, approved July 14, 1855.

Notice is hereby given that the Governor, in consequence of the resignation of Richard P. Porter, has commissioned the Hon. John I. Baker, of Boston, Massachusetts, commissioner for the purchase and sale of liquors under the laws of that State, to furnish the liquor agents of the several towns and cities of this State with pure and unadulterated spirituous and intoxicating liquors.

Below will be found a copy of said contract, which sets forth the terms and conditions upon which such agents will be supplied, and also the act under which it is executed.

Mr. Baker has given bonds as required in section 2 of said act.

FREDERICK SMITH, Governor.

THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

In the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

AN ACT in addition to an act entitled "An act for the suppression of Intemperance," approved July 14, 1855.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

Section 1. That the Governor be authorized and required, as soon after the passage of this act as it can be conveniently done, to contract, in behalf of and on the credit of the several towns and cities in this State, with some person or persons to furnish the agents in such towns and cities appointed under said act, with pure, unadulterated spirituous and intoxicating liquors, on such terms and under such regulations and restrictions as to him shall seem proper.

Sec. 2. The Governor shall require such person or persons to give bonds to the Treasurer of New Hampshire for the benefit of such towns and cities as shall be injured by a breach of the conditions thereof, in such sum, not less than ten thousand dollars, as he shall deem sufficient for the fulfillment of the terms and conditions of such contracts.

Sec. 3. The Governor shall, immediately after the making of such contract or contracts, notify such person or persons under such act or shall purchase any spirituous or intoxicating liquors of any other person than such as the Governor shall have contracted with in the manner aforesaid, he shall for each and every such offence forfeit and pay for the use of the town or city for which he is agent, the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered in the same manner as the penalties under the act aforesaid are recovered.

Sec. 5. No such contract shall pledge the credit of the State for the payment of any liquors that may be purchased under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 6. This act shall take effect from its passage.

CONTRACT.

Whereas, By an act of the Legislature of the State of New Hampshire, passed June 26, 1858, entitled "An act in addition to an act entitled 'An act for the suppression of intemperance,' approved July 14, 1855," the Governor was authorized and required to contract, in behalf of and on the credit of the several towns and cities in this State, with some person or persons to furnish the agents in such towns and cities, appointed under said act, pure and unadulterated spirituous and intoxicating liquors, and whereas John I. Baker, of Boston, in the county of Suffolk, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, is Commissioner of said Commonwealth, duly appointed and qualified under the provisions of chapter 84 of the General Statutes of said Commonwealth, passed December 28, 1859, and chapter 136 of the Acts of said Commonwealth for the year 1861, with authority to sell spirituous and intoxicating liquors, of a pure quality, to the several city and town agents, appointed under the provisions of said chapter 84 of the General Statutes, and to the regularly appointed agents of cities and towns of other New England States, and to no other persons, and subject to the provisions of said laws of said Commonwealth, and "whereas the Governor has made a contract with said Baker as such Commissioner aforesaid; Now we the said Baker, as such Commissioner as aforesaid, hereby covenants and agrees with each of said towns and cities of this State of New Hampshire that he will at all times during the continuance of said contract, provided he is such commissioner so long, furnish the agents of said towns and cities of New Hampshire, appointed under said act of New Hampshire, respectively, with such spirituous and intoxicating liquors as the said agents may require, whenever and as often as they may call for the same; that all such liquors shall be pure and unadulterated, and that he will furnish all such liquors at the prices and upon the terms and said upon which he is by said laws of said Commonwealth required to furnish such liquors to the agents of said towns in said Commonwealth, that is to say, at a price not exceeding five per cent. advance upon the actual cost, for liquors sold in the original packages, and of seven and a half per cent. upon the actual cost of liquors sold in less quantity than the original package, together with the cost of analysis, not exceeding one per cent. on the cost of the liquor, as by said laws provided; and that he will deliver such liquors at his store in Boston, or send them by such mode of conveyance as said agents may respectively designate, at the risk and expense of the town or city for which the same are ordered, it being understood that all liquors furnished under this contract shall be paid for on delivery, or in case of delay, with legal interest from the day of delivery. And the said Commissioner further covenants and agrees with each of said towns and cities, that he will keep regular accounts with each of them, in which the quantity, quality and price of the liquors sold shall appear, open at all times to the inspection of agents or selectmen of towns, or mayors or aldermen of cities, and the Governor of said State; and, further, that he will, as such Commissioner as aforesaid, faithfully fulfill and perform the provisions of this contract, and of said act of New Hampshire. This contract is to continue one year, provided said Baker is so long Commissioner, and may be renewed by consent of the Governor and Commissioner, and may be revoked by the Governor in case of its violation by the Commissioner.

In witness whereof the Governor and said Commissioner have hereunto set their hands and seals this second day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857,
78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that in other offices of the kind are the charges for professional service as moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full access to all patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unanimated zeal and great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

TELL THE PEOPLE that they have the most extensive variety of

VOL. XXIX. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. MONDAY, AUGUST 27, 1866. No. 48

The Chronicle.

The attempt to manufacture a convention of soldiers and sailors, to support Mr. Johnson's policy, has been promptly met by the Soldiers and Sailors' Union of Washington, which has called a grand meeting at Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 24. Every State is to send its heroes. The men who crushed the Rebellion should speak in tones that cannot be mistaken through this Convention. The veterans who fought for four years for the Union will never approve a policy which would at one blow turn all their victories to defeat.—Tribune.

☞ A story is told of Gen. Grenville M. Dodge, of Iowa. When in command at Vicksburg he enforced strictly the regulations in regard to cotton. The speculators tried his mettle by the usual appliances—an offer of $50,000 in gold; then $100,000, $150,000, $200,000. He then sent a dispatch to Washington, asking to be removed from command. He said he had been offered $200,000 to disobey orders, which was so near his price that he was afraid the next offer would bring him.

— An Irish woman applied to the Portland Relief Committee, when the following colloquy ensued:

"How many children have you?" "Six." "How old is your youngest?" "My youngest is dead, and I've had another since!"

— "Speech is silvern, but silence is golden," says the proverb. Weed probably whispered this in the ears of the prator-aspirants for lucrative offices at Philadelphia.

— Since Mr. Raymond's address, it is proposed to drop the names of "radical" and "conservative," and call the two parties of the country "latitudinarians" and "platitudinarians."

— Abraham Lincoln, when a youth, wanted to marry Miss Wood of Centreville, Ind., but she declined on account of his being "so awkward, lazy and over fond of a book.

— Jenny Lind's fortune is said to have had a severe hole knocked in it by her husband's dissipation.

— A curiosity, in the form of a portion of a human skull, petrified, was found at Angel's Cal., recently, by some miners, one hundred and thirty feet below the surface.

— A terrible hail-storm lately visited Ogle county, Ill., nearly destroying the crops, and causing great damage, to the amount of more than $100,000. Some of the hailstones were four inches long, and cattle and hogs were killed by them.

— A sad accident occurred at the Mansion House, St. Paul, Min., on the 21st.—A young man named Hawks, a guest at the house, accidentally shot his wife while cleaning his revolver. She died instantly. They were young married folks and lived at Lincoln, Illinois. Mr. Hawks is almost insane with grief.

— William Morrison, claimed by the Montreal papers to have been the discoverer of the sources of the Mississippi, died last week at his residence on Morrison's Island, between Sorrel and Berthier, in the eighty-second year of his age. He was born in Montreal, Canada East, in 1785.

— The Chicago Republican says that a young man from Rutland, Vt., named Robert Johnson, was arrested in that city the other day for drunkenness. On his person were found no less than twenty nine photographs of young ladies, while his pockets, hat-lining, boots and even his bosom were stuffed full of love letters, all of which he had obtained by answering advertisements and advertising for female correspondents, for which he had a mania.

443 & 445 Broadway, New York,
PUBLISH THIS DAY,
"SHERBROOKE."
By H. B. G., Author of "Madge." 1 vol. 12 mo. Cloth. Price $2.00.
The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and ennobling; at the same time the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. 'Aunt Lydia' and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. 'Hope,' the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for 'Sherbrooke' an immense sale.—Tribune.

TUEEDAY, AUGUST 28, 1866.

NEW ENGLAND AND VERMONT FAIR. The Governors of the six New England States have accepted invitations to be present on the last day of the New England and Vermont State Fairs, to be held at Brattleboro, Vt., September 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th. The Vermont delegation in Congress are also expected to be present. His Excellency Paul Dillingham, and ex-Governor John A. Andrew of Massachusetts, will deliver addresses.

We learn that the entries are already very large in all the departments. The exhibition of sheep and agricultural implements bids fair to be the most extensive ever made in the United States, and that of cattle and horses will also be large. The location is central for the exhibition of the fine herds of Western Massachusetts and the horses of Eastern Vermont and New Hampshire. Connecticut will send contributions of all the various classes.

The grounds are better arranged and located than any upon which the New England Fair has yet been held. The buildings for stock are ample, and the trotting park is one of the best in the country. Hon. John Howe, Jr., of Brandon, has with his accustomed liberality placed upon the grounds a set of Howe's platform scales, upon which all weighing will be done free, and thus avoid much trouble and expense to which exhibitors have hitherto been subjected.

The Fair will be opened on Tuesday, September 4th, by addresses from Hon. Joseph Colburn, President of the Vermont State Society, and Dr. George B. Loring, President of the New England Society, and close on Friday with the annual address.

The people of Brattleboro have made the most extensive and systematic arrangement for the accommodation of visitors. The several railroads will run, morning and evening, special trains for fare, one way for the accommodation of those who may desire to go to towns along the line of these roads or cannot procure accommodations at Brattleboro. The exhibition bids fair to be the largest and best ever held in New England.

GEN. SHERIDAN'S dispatch, which he sent from New Orleans on the 2d day of August, was kept back at Washington, by order of somebody, and only a small part of it published, lest it should damage the president and his party if published in full. Now we have the whole of it, and the reader will see, without any help of ours, what Sheridan thinks of the matter. He says:

The more information I obtain of the affair of the 30th in this city, the more revolting it becomes. It was no riot. It was an absolute massacre by the police, which was not excelled in murderous cruelty by that of Fort Pillow. It was a murder which the Mayor and police of the city perpetrated without the shadow of a necessity.—Furthermore, I believe it was premeditated, and every indication points to this. I recommend the removing of this bad man. I believe it would be hailed with sincerest gratification by two thirds of the population of the city. There has been a feeling of insecurity on the part of the people here on account of this man, which is now so much increased that the safety of life and property does not rest with the civil authority but the military.

☞ Russian hospitality to the officers of the United States squadron now visiting the ports in the Baltic appears to be unbounded. The Czar visited steamer Augusta, Commander Murray, and the monitor Miantonomah, Commander Beaumont, while lying in the harbor of Cronstadt.

On the yacht the Emperor gave an elegant dinner in his cabin, to which he invited Mr. Fox, Commanders Murray and Beaumont, Gen. Clay and Mr. Van Buren. It was exceedingly social and pleasant. Toasts were drank, among which was one proposed by the Emperor to Mr. Fox, as follows:

"I drink to the prosperity of your country, and that the present fraternal feelings may continue forever."

It was given with genuine good feeling, and in an impressive manner.

ST. LOUIS ITEM.—The official mortality report from 17 cemeteries for the week ending Friday last, gives a total of 1156 interments, 918 of which were by cholera. It is estimated that there were about 1300 deaths from cholera during the week.

— A pious old lady, a friend of M. Renan of many years standing, who loves and esteems him as a man, but detests him thoroughly as an author, a short time ago, met him at the house of a friend. Already, at a distance, she called out to him, threatening him with her finger: "Well, Well! you have again written nice things! Shame on you! How can you be so wicked? What have the poor Apostles done to you? The only solace is the idea that one among them has been left unharmed by you." "Which one?" asked Renan, with curiosity. "Thomas," was the triumphant answer.

— That was a beautiful idea in the mind of a little girl, who, on beholding a rosebud where on the topmost stem, the oldest rose was fading, whilst below and around it three beautiful crimson buds were just unfolding their charms, at once artlessly expressed to her brother: "See, Willie, these little buds have just awakened in time to kiss their mother before she dies!"

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The well-known Elder Joseph Boodey, of New Durham, aged 93 years, has within a few days been struck helpless by paralysis. It is supposed that he will live but a very few days.

—— Under the amended militia law of New Hampshire a company of infantry has recently been organized at Nashua, to be called the "Nashua Light Guard." Its officers will be as follows: Captain, Daniel J. Flanders; Lieutenants, Lemuel N. Jackson and James Cobb.

—— Died in South Milton, on the 18th inst., Miss Mary Jones, aged 90 years, 3 months—a useful, industrious, good woman. This reminds the Rochester Courier of the many aged people who have died in the southern part of that town. Mrs. Bunker, a little over 100 years; John Twombly and T. C. Lymap, 93 years; George Hayes, Elihu Wentworth, Richard Walker, Joseph Walker, and Aaron Wentworth, living neighbors there, and died at an average age of 80 years, or more,—while Isaac Wentworth is now active at 84 years, and Joshua Jones in his 78th year.

THE EDITOR OF THE ROCHESTER COURIER, Mr. Place, is also Postmaster of that town, to which his well conducted paper is at once a benefit and an honor. He has been approached by the Washington Johnson wire pullers, with no great success, as appears by the following article from the Courier of last Friday:

The Editor of this paper (and the writer of this article) holds, as most of our readers well know, a commission as Postmaster of Rochester. Since receiving that trust he has endeavored to faithfully execute the duties of the office for the best interest of the P. O. Department, and for the general convenience of the public; and we have yet to learn that the business of the office has not been satisfactorily attended to. We are not so "well-to-do" but that a continuance in the office for the next three years, would be somewhat agreeable to us; and such continuance we are assured we can have so long as we are willing to "support the President and his policy." We are not willing, however, to violate our principles, and sell our independence, or even rent under the imputation of sealing our mouth for dollars and cents; and lest our silence in our paper should mislead some of our friends to suppose that our position as Postmaster rendered us subservient to the political course of the President and P. M. General, we feel called upon, in justice to ourself, to thus publicly announce that we do not endorse the President's policy or the Philadelphia Convention, and that we can have no sympathy with either. While appreciating the kind consideration of those of our friends who recommended us to the position, we cannot longer allow our continuance in the place to be construed as a surrender of our manliness, or a repudiation of the principles they and we have long cherished—and hence we speak.

There may be for ought we know, a republican in Rochester, who would be glad to silence his lips, or play the tool and the hypocrite for the sake of office, but we never can. We had rather toil till our finger-ends are worn to stumps, and be clothed in rags, and yet feel that we are a MAN, than have the best office in the gift of the President at such a price. These are our principles, and we are proud to avow them as such, Post Office or no Post Office. While we hold the office we shall try and fulfill its requirements to the best of our abilities; but we shall speak frankly our sentiments on all questions of public policy, and for that reason our successor is appointed, he is welcome to the position whenever he makes his appearance.

— The officers of the First National Bank of St. Louis, Mo., were taking their usual lunch in the back of their banking rooms, leaving several large piles of money in the drawers and on the desks. The money was all right if they had kept their eyes upon it, but they did not, and $10,000 was carried away.

— At Niagara Falls, on Sunday, the horses attached to a carriage containing a party of three gentlemen jumped from the roadway down an embankment twelve feet high into the river, just above the bridge leading to Goat Island. It required the utmost exertions of the driver and party, none of whom were injured, to save the team from being swept over the falls.

— A letter from Col. H. Ballis, speaker in the Arkansas House in 1863 and 1864, dated from that State, says: "Two men were found hanging, about thirty miles from here. One was a member of the last Legislature, and had been guilty of piloting the Federals through the country. Two more are missing. Bands of murderers are traversing the country in different parts, committing all sorts of depredations.

— "Well Annie, how did you get along with that stupid lover of yours? Did you succeed in getting rid of him?" "Oh yes, I got rid of him easily enough, I married him."

— A Norwegian woman, 105 years old, and seventy-eight of her descendants are on the road to Utah. The old woman declares her intention of "setting her cap" for Brigham.

— A Portland paper illustrates the wholesale thieving there on the night of the fire, as follows: "One who had been slumbering peacefully in his grave in the eastern cemetery, awoke, and walking forth inquired if the day of judgment had come? On being told that it was only Portland burning, he remarked that he would go back to his repose. On reaching his grave he found that in his absence somebody had stolen his coffin!"

A PETROLEUM FIRE.—On Saturday, a train with eight carloads of petroleum on the Erie Railroad were collided with near Narrowsburg, N. Y. Several cars were smashed, the petroleum caught fire, exploded and burned the whole train. Three dwellings, a wagon shop, a carpenter shop, a hide house, and 50,000 feet of lumber caught fire from the burning oil, and were entirely destroyed. A Mr. Williams, while endeavoring to rescue his two children from one of the houses, dropped one, and while attempting to rescue it, all three were fatally burned. The two children have died, and he is not expected to recover. His wife jumped from a second story window, and immediately gave birth to a child. She is not expected to live. The conductor of the train was badly burned. Loss of property by fire about $80,000.

Communication.

THE POWER OF ONE MAN.—Wilkes Booth was the sole cause of Andrew Johnson being President of the United States.

Had Wilkes Booth, the assassin, never lived, the Philadelphia Copperhead Convention never would have been called.

Andrew Johnson is the only President of the United States who suddenly repudiated his avowed principles, and then announced and set up his own will and authority against the representatives of the people in Congress.

Andrew Johnson declared that he should carry out the policy of the lamented President Lincoln, but it is now "My Policy."

Andrew Johnson now denies that Congress is legally or constitutionally organized, although by sending his Messages to that department of the Government, and under his own signature approving many of its bills, he recognized that body to be the Congress of the United States. He, and the Phildelphia Convention, accuse Congress with being guilty of a usurpation of power. If this be true, then all its measures during the four years' war in the defence of the national life, and ever since, are null and void, and Andrew Johnson has virtually become "Dictator," wielding the scepter of power over all his "satraps and dependants in every town and village," without any Congressional check. NEW PHYSIOGNOMY, or "Signs of Character," as manifested through Temperament and External Forms, and especially in the "Human Face Divine." One elegant volume, with nearly 800 pages, and 1000 illustrations. By S. R. Wells, Editor Phrenological Journal. Price, post paid, $5. Address Fowler & Wells, No. 389 Broadway, New York.

"New Physiognomy" is eminently practical, fully illustrated, and well suited to the wants of all. In the study of "the face" the reader soon soon learns to read each and every feature. Noses are classified as the Roman, Greek, Jewish, Snub and Celestial.—The eyes speak all languages, whether black, blue, browg or hazel. In a like manner, cheeks, neck, ears, hands, feet, walk, voice, laugh, ect., are shown to be "signs of character."

In no other work is so much light thrown upon the character and destiny of mankind as in this, or the distinctive traits of nations and tribes so clearly pointed out. Portraits of distinguished persons of ancient and modern times, with biographical sketches and delineation of character, are given. DIVINES, ORATORS, STATESMEN, WARRIORS, ARTISTS, POETS, PHILOSOPHERS, INVENTORS, SURGEONS, DISCOVERERS, ACTORS, MUSICIANS, ecc., are included. It is an "Encyclopædia" of biography, acquainting the reader with the career and character of many great men and women of the past 1000 years, and of the present—such, for instance, as Aristotle, Julius Cæsar, Shakspeare, Washington, Napoleon, Franklin, Bancroft, Bryant, Longfellow, Irving, Rosa Bonheur, Theodosia Burr, Cobden, Bright, Lawrence, Bolivar, Whately, Thackeray Dow, Knox, Richelieu, Hopper, Buckle, Dickens, Victoria, Wesley, Carlyle, Motley, Mill, Spencer, Thompson, Guthrie, Alexander, and hundreds of others. AND THEIR CHILDREN.

After a seclusion of 13 years from public life, the Siamese Twins—CHANG and ENG—respectfully announce to the public that they have now a farewell tour of the United States, when they trust that the same liberal patronage bestowed on their first travelling tour will be accorded to them on these their

Grand Farewell Entertainments.

Grim visaged war, which for four years swept with relentless fury over our land, destroying the farm owned by the Siamese Twins in North Carolina, and where for thirteen years they dwelt in quiet seclusion, surrounded by their families—The focus seat of contention having laid waste their entire property, and having been repeatedly importuned to appear once more in public, they have consented to give this series of entertainments, which will be conducted on the same plan as those heretofore given with such marked success before the crowned heads and nobility of France, Germany, and England, where their series created a furore equalled only by the immense crowds who thronged to witness them in all the principal cities of the United States.

CHANG AND ENG

WILL BE ACCOMPANIED

BY THEIR CHILDREN,

Who have been born since their last appearance in public.

It would be superfluous to dwell upon the merits of the Twins as a rare curiosity, for the most eminent Physicians and scientific men are unanimous in pronouncing the Siamese Twins as the GREATEST CURIOSITY IN THE WORD.

Remember, this is your last chance of seeing

THE GREAT WONDERS.

Admission 25 cents. Doors open from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 9 P. M.

Our Citizens will have an opportunity

Friday and Saturday Evenings,

Aug. 31st and Sept. 1st,

to see one of the best exhibitions that ever visited our city. When it was here last winter it drew large audiences. It is now accompanied by the

Thomas and Bennett Troupe,

who are unsurpassed by any troupe traveling. Their delineations of the Negro character, with Song and Dance, enliven the POLYORAMA, and break the monotony of such exhibitions. Here is a combination that is worthy of patronage, and those who miss seeing it this time will be the losers, for it is not the intention of the proprietor to ever again visit our city. We copy below the notice given of the Polyorama when in Dover last winter, and shall also give some from papers where it has been exhibited since it left there. They show that the citizens of other large cities had the same appreciation of its merits that the Dover people had. Those who saw it last winter will wish to see it again with its additional attractions. To those who did not see it, we say embrace the present opportunity to do so; it is money well spent.

Although we knew that our citizens would appreciate and welcome an exhibition of the character of this one, we were not prepared to see so large an audience as was present at its opening last evening. Indeed we have seldom seen so many people at an entertainment of this character on the opening night. The hall was filled to its fullest capacity, and during two hours the multitude sat in rapt attention, frequently testifying their approval by the most enthusiastic applause.—Dover Gazette.

Single Tickets 30 Cents. Four for $1.

Children admitted Saturday Afternoon for 10c.

Tickets can be had at the Hall from 4 to 6 o'clock, and seats reserved without additional expense. There will be A FREE CONCERT at 7½ o'clock each evening, in front of the Hall, by a full Brass Band. au27

Hygienic Wine.

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits to its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. Invigorates with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is much more than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the LOCOMOTIVE ORGANS, and obsetates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of its baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken in cases of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. auldawim

The Guide to Health and Beauty,

It teaches how to remove Tan, Freckles, Pimples, Blotches, Moth Patches, Sallowness, Eruptions, and all impurities of the skin; how to enamel the skin, leaving it white and clear as alabaster; how to produce the full and developement of the female form (as practised by the French,) causing the bust to grow round and full, and if the form has been lost by padding, lacing, or maternity, restoring it to more than its original fullness, firmness and beauty. It teaches how to reduce in size the hands and feet; produce superb plenty or the reverse; remove supe fluous hair; cure Corns, Bunions, Warts and Moles; renew your age; cure Drunkenness, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, &c., how to fascinate and gain the love and affection of any person you may choose, together with other useful and valuable information. Local.

POLICE COURT, Aug. 27.—John MacLinn and John Keefle, for drunkenness, were each fined $3, and costs $3.86, and in default thereof were committed to the House of Correction.

Samuel Wheeler, for drunkenness, paid $6.86.

"For when the shell is broke, out comes the chick." For some weeks past many of the farmers in the towns between Newburyport and Portsmouth have been surprised at the, to them, mysterious diminution in their poultry yards. Every few nights it seemed as though a well-planned raid had been made, and all the chickens for several miles around had been induced to leave their homes for parts unknown. The matter was finally placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff John M. Brown, of Seabrook, who secured as Staff Officers, City Marshal Johnson and Officer Fickering of this city. John Hackett Eaton, who has done the State of Maine some service at the "State Hotel" in Thomaston, was selected in their estimation as the proper person upon whom they should display their detective skill. The trap was set, the train laid, the mine sprung, and much to the discontent of Eaton and his fair "Imogene," their "hencoop" on Long Lane, about four miles from the city, was emptied of its contents, to the number of about three hundred of the "domestic birds." Nearly fifty of them have been identified and secured by their original owners.

On two cases Eaton was tried and put under $300 bonds in each to appear at the October term of S. J. Court, and on five others he was found guilty and ordered to pay fines and costs amounting to $75 57, to return the hens to their owners and to pay them in addition $20. From these he appealed, and was ordered to give $50 bonds in each case for his appearance. There are still two cases against him on the docket.

If he had in his youth read the 4th verse of the 22d chapter of Exodus, with a slight variation, he would not now be in durance vile, to answer the charge of being that meanest of all criminals—a "chicken thief".

☞ Next to shipbuilding, (which we are told we could have more of here if our Banks were more accommodating,)—we say next to manufacturing ships, it is all important that other "manufactures," of smaller articles, should be encouraged, as they are everywhere else almost. But our last ropewalk has just been torn down; and a young, competent and experienced man has been for weeks searching for a suitable building for the manufacture of fine carriages, in which he would employ twenty-five or thirty workmen—but thus far in vain, at a rate at which he can "live." Is there now some suitable place which can be had?

NAVAL.—Commander Thomas C. Harris has been ordered to duty at Philadelphia Yard.

Lieut.-Commander Charles A. Babcock has been ordered to duty at this Yard.

Lieut. Commander Robert Boyd has been detached from the Charlestown Yard and ordered to the Winooski.

Passed Asst. Paymaster Thos. L. Tullock Jr., has been detached from the Paul Jones and ordered to settle his accounts.

Asst Paymaster Joseph Foster has been detached from the Talapoosa and ordered to settle his accounts.

Commander J. M. Bradford is detached from duty as this Yard on the 31st inst., and ordered to command the Resaca.

☞ The very many friends of Col. Macomb, U. S. Engineers, who has had charge of the fortifications now erecting in Portsmouth harbor, will regret exceedingly that he has been ordered on duty in the West. We believe Geo. Turner succeeds him here.

☞ The wonderful Siamese Twins, never yet exceeded by any living lusus naturæ, are to exhibit here on Thursday afternoon and evening.

☞ Geo. B. Haycock has been commissioned a first Lieutenant in the Marine corps, vice Thos. McElrath, dismissed.

☞ The excursion to the Shoals on Thursday will draw out a large part of pleasure seekers.

AT NEW YORK, on Sunday night, Dean Richmond died.

A whiskey distillery was seized by the revenue officers in Morrisania.

John Haslam was called out of bed by four acquaintances, who assaulted and mortally stabbed him. They were arrested and proved to be four burglars, whose trial is soon to come off at Philadelphia, and Haslam being the only witness against them, this method was taken to get rid of him.—He is not expected to live.

A tenement house containing a large number of families, on 2d street, was burned. No lives were lost. The Chief Engineer of the Fire Department bravely rescued a woman from a burning room.

GOLD, Monday, 147 1-2.

—"You here Jones? How the dickens did you find your way out?" "Find my way out! What do you mean?" "Why, the last I saw of you, you were lost in slumber." "Ah, well, I rode out on a nightmare!"

— A beautiful thought is suggested in the Koran: "Angels in the grave will not question thee as to the amount of wealth thou hast left behind thee, but what deeds thou hast done while in the world to entitle thee to a seat among the blest."

Elegant Residence for Sale.

The well-known and beautifully situated CUTTS HOUSE, on North Road, Portsmouth, recently occupied by Chas. Amory, Esq. The House contains eighteen rooms, with elegant bath room billard room, (containing a table in good order,) nursery, and all requisites for a properly arranged family mansion.

The House is in excellent repair, having been thoroughly refitted a year or two since, while its propinquity to the beaches, and the facilities which it affords for charming rides and pleasure sailing, render it one of the most desirable estates in the market.

The House is furnished with double windows (each with a sliding pane) throughout, is heated by a furnace, and many of the rooms have also elegant marble mantels and grates. In addition to the superior cellar, there is a first-class wine cellar. The House is fitted throughout with Straw Matting.

The out-buildings are very complete. A STABLE, with accommodations for five horses; CARRIAGE HOUSE; a splendid Harness Room, finished in chestnut and black walnut, with glass cases for harness; Cow House, &c.

If desirable, more land, adjoining, could doubtless be purchased.

The grounds comprise about four acres, with terraced Lawn, fine old trees and thrifty shrubbery,—and is so situated as to command a delightful view of forest, city and harbor. The elegant drive about the house is underlaid with stone, and laid with shells.

ODE TO THE SUMMER.

Oh, sweet summer, stay,
The earth is in love with thy marvellous splendor;
Thy music and flowers,
Thy long laughing hours,
Thy day dawnings, rosy and grey,
Thy sunsets, so mystic and tender.

Oh, sweet swallows, wait,
And tell us yet one more sweet magical story;
Ere wandering lands,
Ye seek distant lands,
Rest awhile—it is not so late,
'Neath the minster-eaves sacred and hoary.

Oh, nightingale sweet,
Awhile in the woods with thy melody linger;
Thy leaf-laced screen
Is fragrant and green,—
Oh let us again hear thee greet
The night with thy music, sweet singer.

Rose, fade not so soon.—
Thou art summer's own child, she'll stay while thou stayest;
The trim garden bed
Is sad when thou art dead—
The song-birds may have many a sweet tune
To sing to thee, rose, of all gay flowers the gayest.

Oh, sweet summer, stay,
We dread the cold winter his grimness and blister;
Such garlands we'll twine
For that white brow of thine,
Such fair buds we'll strew in thy way,
Thou'lt stay for the sake of the blossoms we cluster.

FALSE HAIR.—We published, the other day, an article on the trade in hair, caused by the intense desire of our ladies to ornament the outside of the their heads, even at the risk of suggesting that the inside is not of so much importance. Bassanio, in the Merchant of Venice, indicates that this system is not a modern invention, when he says:

"Look on beauty,
And you shall see it is purchased by the weight;
Which therein works a miracle in nature,
Making them lightest that wear most of it:
So are those crisped snaky golden locks,
Which make such wanton gambols with the wind,
Upon supposed fairness, often known
To be the dowry of a second head,
The scull that bred them, in the sepulchre."

— Does not a Cabinet, from which eleven States are excluded, hang upon the "verge of the Government?"—Transcript.

— The Cordial Union that the delegates to Philadelphia were so anxious to effect, was that between the loaves and the fishes. The South Carolina and Massachusetts members, when they locked arms, probably entered the Convention in ranks of five and two.

— Governor Orr's speech at Philadelphia, contained the statement that he was in favor of acknowledging all debts contracted by your Government or my Government for whatever purpose. What the Governor meant by the word "my" has been the subject of considerable speculation in various newspapers.

— The Prussian correspondent of the London Times writes that many officers and men in the Prussian cavalry were victims to terrible sword cuts, which, coming down upon the shoulder, cut clean through the shoulder blade and often deep down into the body—awful memorials of the strength of arm of the iron-cased Austrian horsemen.

— L. D. M. Sweat of Portland, who voted against the Anti-slavery Amendment to the Constitution, and opposed the leading measures of Mr. Lincoln's administration in the Thirty-eighth Congress, has been nominated for another term by the Democrats and Johnson men of the First District in Maine. The Boston Transcript says his presence is needed in the Fortieth Congress to enable the President to carry out Mr. Lincoln's policy!

Important to the Afflicted.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, BOSTON, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE. By long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.—Dr. Dow devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those diseases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.—Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving descriptions of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important to Females
IN DELICATE HEALTH.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women than any other physician in Boston. Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment. Dr. Dow, since 1846, having confined his whole attention to an office practice for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain one dollar, or they will not be answered. Office hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or no Charges Made.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7, Endicott street. Those who need the service of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail, two for $1 and a red stamp.

The Chronicle.

☞ The Richmond Examiner forcibly says:

"Several of the the Conservative papers at the North are agitating the question whether there will be a revolution attempted by the Radicals if they are beaten at the Fall elections. They are men who are exceedingly violent when all the strength and numbers are on their side; who roar at you like lions, when powerful and prosperous; but the moment their side becomes the losing one, they become as mild as sucking doves, and as timorous as a deer. * * * No; the Radicals will make no revolution; however much they may threaten, vapor, and bully. * * * Their moral nature will shrink from the crime of unsuccessful rebellion."

The Examiner interlards the above with sundry false and irritating charges which we suppress, copy only so much as is commendable. It is very true, O Rebel cotemporary! that our sort, "the moment their side becomes the losing one, are mild as sucking doves"—in other words, when outvoted, we acquiesce in the popular verdict. Virginia looks up from a thousand scenes of carnage and desolation to curse you for goading her into a very different course.—The legitimate result of your policy and of ours is exhibited in the contrasted North and South of to day.—Tribune.

— Never worry about little things: it disqualifies you for great ones.

— That Gardiner Journal man gives vent to his emotions on the subject of green apples, in this wise: "The papers teem with accounts of the death of boys from eating green apples. We hope soon to be able to record the untimely demise of several that are robbing our orchard."

— It is said that chewing a piece of paper will put a stop to bleeding of the nose, and trial has proved it efficacious. Doubtless any substance would answer the same purpose as paper, the stoppage of the flow of blood being caused doubtless by the rapid motion of the jaws, and the counter action of the muscles and arteries connecting the jaws and nose.

— The London Times makes, in its editorial columns, a fierce personal onslaught on General Banks, and a severe political attack on his Congressional and Republican friends, for their action in relaxing the American neutrality laws, in favor, as the writer alleges, of the Fenians.

Ayer's Pills
ARE you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and deranges its natural functions. These, if not relieved, re-act upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in this condition, take Ayer's Pills and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely cured by the same means. None who know the virtue of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness, Constipation, Heartburn, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Worms and Suppression, when taken in large doses.
They are Sugar Coated, so that the most sensitive can take them easily, and they are surely the best physic for children to take. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best cough medicine discovered.

Ayer's Ague Cure.
For the Speedy and Certain Cure of Intermittent Fever, or Chills and Fever, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in bilious derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.
This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, and does not produce quinine or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse these assertions.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

By a New England Lady.
A New Novel by the Author of 'Madge,'
D. APPLETON & COMPANY,
443 & 445 Broadway, New York,
PUBLISH THIS DAY,
"SHERBROOKE."
By H. B. G., Author of "Madge." 1 vol. 12 mo. Cloth. Price $2.00.
The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and ennobling; at the same time the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. 'Aunt Lydia' and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. 'Hope,' the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for 'Sherbrooke' an immense sale."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29, 1866.

JOHN PIERPONT, aged 81 years, died at Medford, Mass., on Sunday night. He retired to bed on Sunday evening, in his usual good health, and was found dead in the morning. Our old friend and fellow-laborer was an eloquent and eminent Unitarian minister, and an early, steadfast and powerful advocate of temperance and human rights. He was a poet of rare powers, a pungent prose writer, and a distinct and emphatic speaker. He was a graduate of Yale College, a tutor in South Carolina, and a lawyer in Newburyport. Then he went into trade in Boston, but was unsuccessful. Next in business at Baltimore, with John Neal as a partner, and was again unsuccessful. He went to Cambridge Divinity School, and thence to Hollis street in Boston, where his ministry of 25 years was closed by a contest with part of his parish on temperance and slavery, and he got his salary paid at the end of a lawsuit. He was afterward a pastor at Troy, N. Y., and Medford, Mass. When the rebellion broke out, he went to the field as chaplain, but his strength was inadequate, and he became a clerk in the Treasury Department, and held the place till his death. He was a noble man, of principle, courage and fidelity.—He rests from his labors, and his works do follow him. U. T.

YORK COUNTY.— The Saco Democrat says:— "On account of pressing business, Mr. Burleigh of South Berwick, who was nominated by the Democratic Convention for Senator, declines the nomination. The County Committee, who were authorized, have filled the vacancy by putting on the ticket JOHN JOHNSON, Esq., of North Berwick. Mr. Johnson —— no doubt would have been nominated at the Convention had there not been a strong desire to take one from those who had abandoned the radical and joined the great conservative National Union Party of this country."

Perhaps Mr. Burleigh is looking towards Washington for some better reward than the empty honor of being run down as a candidate for Senator from York.

AN IMPORTANT REPORT COMING. — The New Orleans correspondent of the New York Times, [Mr. Raymond's paper] says:—

The Commission appointed by General Baird to investigate the late riot have completed their labors, and their report will show that first shot fired from a revolver was by a white man at a procession of freedmen.

Twenty minutes then expired before any further disturbance took place. When the procession reached the place where the Convention was in session, the police interfered with it, and in attempting to make arrests fired upon the freedmen, who returned the fire. A mob of citizens then joined the police and a great massacre commenced. It also shows that several policemen hid their badges so as not to be recognized, and after entering the hall they disregarded the white flag and fired indiscriminately upon unarmed members of the Convention and spectators. Some citizens wore badges indicating an organization. Those in the room, with chairs, &c., drove the police and attacking party out and barricaded the doors.

After the barricade was established not a single person in the room escaped unharmed, and about thirty were murdered—while credit is given to the police for saving the lives of all who were in the building and are not now dead, the force is found guilty of nearly all the murders that were committed.

The evidence shows that the policemen killed freedmen when they could have arrested them without a trouble, and that wounded negroes were thrown into carts and killed while struggling to free themselves from the dead bodies which had been placed on the top of them.

The commission will report that the riot was caused by bitter feeling on the part of the citizens and police towards the radical Unionists and freedmen. They will also probably report that it was preconcerted, inasmuch as it is in evidence that it was talked of previously for several days.

It is the opinion of the Commission that if the military had not appeared at the time it did, the riot would have progressed to the extermination of all the Unionists and freedmen in the city.

☞ Very few if any of the genuine copper sheets publish Gen. Sheridan's dispatches from New Orleans, and most papers of that party pass them over in silence; and the reluctance of the Johnsonites to let the public see the official dispatches connected with the New Orleans massacre is fully justified by the tenor of these documents. They fix the stain of blood on the hands of their chief so indelibly that all the waters of the Mississippi can never wash it out. And the public now, as a matter of right, demand the prompt publication of the report of the Military Commission which has been sitting in New Orleans to investigate the slaughter that followed the lamentable orders from Washington of the 28th and 30th of July.

— Cholera is rapidly disappearing from New York.

— The rebel General Joseph Wheeler is engaged in writing a history of his cavalry command.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Ex-Gov. Gilmore is again seriously ill, with dropsy.

—— The city council of Concord have voted to buy a Steam Fire Engine of the second class.

—— A drying house, attached to a bedstead manufactory, in Enfield, was destroyed by fire, Thursday morning at 1 o'clock, with 10,000 feet of lumber. Loss $400: insured.

—— We understand the Episcopal Society of Exeter, has purchased part of the garden belonging to Wm. O. Smith, on Elliot street, for the purpose of building a new church.

—— The "Sanborn Alumni," consisting of the former pupils of Prof. Dyer H. Sanborn, are to have a reunion at Concord, on Thursday. There is to be an oration, a dinner, speeches, &c., and a social gathering in the evening.

—— The steamer Lady of the Lake, that run ashore on Davis's Island on Lake Winnipiseogee last Friday, was got off and taken over to the Weir's, where she will undergo the necessary repairs. She will probably resume her regular trips in a few days.

—— The Rockingham Association of Universalists held their 43d annual session at the Union meeting-house in Fremont, August 22 and 23. Nine ministers were present, including the resident pastor of the Methodist church in Fremont. The house was filled on the second day, with an attentive audience, embracing both denominations in the place, and good delegations of visitors. The services were, four sermons, with proper devotional exercises; two meetings for conference and prayer; and the usual business and accounts of the churches.

THE CALL for the National Soldiers and Sailors's Convention, reads thus:— In pursuance of the resolution passed at the meeting of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Union, held in Washington, on Monday evening, Aug. 20, 1866, we invite all soldiers and sailors who have served in the Union army and navy during the late war for the suppression of the rebellion, and who believe that treason should be made odious and traitors punished, who are opposed to the restoration of rebels to power, and offering premiums for treason and treachery, and who are in favor of the proposed Constitutional amendment, and of continuing Congress as the law-making power of the Government, to meet at Pittsburg, Pa., on Tuesday, September 25th, 1866, at 12 o'clock M. We made our argument in the field."

It is signed by officers from twenty States. Endorsements of this movement have been received from many of the most prominent soldiers of the country. All soldiers and sailors favorable to the cause and willing to have their names upon this call are requested to address L. Edwin Dudly, Washington, D. C.

EMIGRATION FROM THE SOUTH.— While the Southern papers are lamenting the decrease of the agricultural resources of that part of the country, and its State Legislatures are making strenuous efforts to induce foreign labor to settle in their midst, there appears to be a strong and irresistible current of emigration from the former slave States to those which have always been free. From various sources, says the Boston Journal, "we have information that the poorer white people of the South, despairing of bettering their condition by living where the influences and associations of slavery have prevailed, and the degradation of manual labor still continues, are moving into the more prosperous States of Ohio, Illinois and Indiana. They wish to go where there are free schools, churches and newspapers, where labor is honorable and remunerative. Nor is this emigration confined to the Border States. A Georgia paper before us informs us that large numbers are leaving North Carolina en route for the West. If this state of things continues to a great extent it cannot fail to have a great influence on the agricultural prosperity of the South."

It is pertinent to add, that the foolish policy, of giving these suffering States back again into the power of the rebel leaders, will surely cause these things to continue as long as it is pursued. A letter from Capt. Bingham, a Southern Unionist in Texas, states that the former rebel leaders have been elected to the State offices, and unless protection is given by the troops there will not be a Union man in Texas in six months.

THE TRUE DISPATCH, which Gen. Sheridan sent from New Orleans, Aug. 1, contained these words:—

"In the meantime, official duty called me to Texas, and the Mayor of the city, during my absence, suppressed the Convention by the use of their police force, and in so doing attacked the members of the Convention and a party of two hundred negroes, and with firearms, clubs and knives, in a manner so unnecessary and atrocious as to compel me to say that it was murder."

In the published dispatch, which was garbled by some of the President's party, the above words were omitted, not by accident, but by design! A design to deceive and cheat.

Communication.

B. F. BUTLER'S GREAT SPEECH at Gloucester, Mass. We commend the speech of Gen. Butler, that old democrat, and still a Democrat, a native of Nottingham, N. H., to the careful and candid perusal of the N. H. Democrats. After reading it, we think they will agree that it is the ablest, and most truthful exposition of our national affairs that has been made in any part of our country for the last five years. We well recollect that upon an invitation of Portsmouth Democrats, a few years since, he addressed them and Democrats in the vicinity in the Temple, and was highly applauded. Will they not now believe what he says, in his great speech, came within his personal knowledge. Should twenty thousand pamphlets of this speech be published for general circulation, it would tend to open the eyes of all who now seem to be blinded by party spirit. AN OLD DEMOCRAT.

BABEL BEGUN.—A paper before us asserts that the copperhead and bread and butter divisions of the New York "Policy" party have already got into domestic trouble. The latter do not like to be swamped, and have their distinct prominence so hidden under the copperhead bushel that the President cannot see them in the light of their zeal. Accordingly a caucus was held on Saturday at the Astor House, when it was decided that a convention of the conservative Republicans who approve the Philadelphia Convention and the policy of the President, should be called to meet on the day the Democratic Convention meets, of one delegate from each district. The call issued at Albany specified that there should be two delegates from each district, for the purpose of giving the conservative Republicans a voice in the Convention. The latter having now changed their programme by withdrawing the endorsement of the Democratic call, they confidently expect that the Democratic Committee will hold another meeting and reduce their number of delegates to one from each district. Whether they will do remains to be seen.

FORREST.—Gen. Sheridan having spoken of the butchery at New-Orleans as "a massacre by the police, not excelled in cruelty by that of Fort Pillow," we are tempted to inquire what has become of Gen. N. B. Forrest, the author of the masterpiece of murder from which that of New-Orleans was modeled. A telegram dated Memphis, August 25, answers with the statement that an immense mass meeting was held there that evening to ratify the proceedings of the Convention at Philadelphia.—Gen. Forrest presided and addressed the meeting Presided! Yes—over the accumulated bones of two massacres; and addressed the meeting in ratification of three; Memphis, New-Orleans and Fort Pillow!

— A lady at the Louisville and Nashville depot the other day startled everybody by crying out, "I've got the cholera!" A fine boy soon made his advent into the world, and it proved only to be a new kind of cholera infantum.

— The editor who said that his mouth never uttered a lie, probably spoke through his nose. But the woman who said that Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is the best in the world, and makes better Bread, Biscuit, Cakes or Puddings, out of the same sack of flour, than can be made with any other Saleratus or soda, spoke it with her eyes and mouth wide open, and does not fear contradiction. Dyspeptic persons can use it with impunity, and be all the better for so doing. Most all the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York. 4

SIAMESE TWINS
SIAMESE TWINS

AND THEIR CHILDREN.

After a seclusion of 12 years from public life, the Siamese Twins—CHANG and ENG—respectfully announce to the public that they are now to make a farewell tour of the United States, when they trust that the same liberal patronage bestowed on their first travelling tour will be accorded to them on these their

Grand Farewell Entertainments.

Grim visaged war, which for four years swept with relentless fury over our land, destroying the farm owned by the Siamese Twins in North Carolina, and where for thirteen years they dwelt in quiet seclusion, surrounded by their families—and driven the quiet of contention having laid waste their entire property, and having been repeatedly importuned to appear once more in public, they have concluded to give little series of entertainments, which will be conducted on the same plan as those heretofore given with such marked success before the crowned heads and nobility of France, Germany, and England, where their series created a furore equalled only by the immense crowds who thronged to witness them in all the principal cities of the United States.

CHANG AND ENG

WILL BE ACCOMPANIED

BY THEIR CHILDREN,

Who have been born since their last appearance in public.

It would be superfluous to dwell upon the merits of the Twins as a rare curiosity, for the most eminent Physicians and scientific men are unanimous in pronouncing the Siamese Twins as the GREATEST CURIOSITY IN THE WORD. Remember, this is your last chance of seeing

THE GREAT WONDERS.

Admission 25 cents. Doors open from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 9 P. M.

Our Citizens will have an opportunity

Friday and Saturday Evenings,

Aug. 31st. and Sept. 1st,

to see one of the best exhibitions that ever visited our city. When it was here last winter it drew large audiences. It is now accompanied by the

Thomas and Bennett Troupe,

who are unsurpassed by any troupe traveling. Their delineations of the Negro character, with Song and Dance, enliven the POLYORAMA, and break the monotony of such exhibitions. Here is a combination that is worthy of patronage, and those who miss seeing it this time will be the losers, for it is not the intention of the proprietor to ever again visit our city. We copy below the notice given of the Polyorama when in Dover last winter, and shall also give some from papers where it has been exhibited since it left there. They show that the citizens of other large cities had the same appreciation of its merits that the Dover people had. Those who saw it last winter will wish to see it again with its additional attractions. To those who did not see it, we say embrace the present opportunity to do so; it is money well spent.

Although we knew that our citizens would appreciate and welcome an exhibition of the character of this one, we were not prepared to see so large an audience as was present at its opening last evening. Indeed we have seldom seen so many people at an entertainment of this character on the opening night. The hall was filled to its fullest capacity, during two hours the multitude sat in rapt attention, frequently testifying their approval by the most enthusiastic applause.—Dover Gazette.

Single Tickets 30 Cents. Four for $1.

Children admitted Saturday Afternoon for 10c.

Tickets can be had at the Hall from 4 to 5 o'clock, and seats reserved without additional expense. There will be A FREE CONCERT at 7½ o'clock each evening, in front of the Hall, by a full Brass Band. au27

Cayuga, Hinds County, Miss.

T. ALLCOCK & Co.—Gentlemen: Please send send me another six dozen of your Porous Plasters. They are in great demand here for Whooping-Cough. They act like a charm. I could have sold two dozen this week if I had had them. Send as soon as possible, and oblige,

ASTHMA CURED.

Mr. Wm. May, of 245 Spring Street, New York, writes, Jan. 1, 1866: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. My friend gave me one of Allcock's, and urged me to use it. I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years. PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best family medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. Its positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken in cases of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. aubdawlm

Wonderful, but True!

MADAME REMINGTON, the world-renowned Astrologist and Somnambulistic Clairvoyant, while in a clairvoyant state, delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a perfect and life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, with date of marriage occupation, leading traits of character, &c. This is no imposition, as testimonials without number can assert. By stating place of birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, and enclosing fifty cents, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture by return mail, together with desired information.

Local.

BRIEF LOCALS. — No learned counsel unfolded his brief before the Police Justice on Tuesday.

The hen-stealing cases will lay over until the October court. A poor plan to attempt to feather one's nest with plumage borrowed in such a way.

Congress Block grows apace, and dwellers on the square are pleased at the fine front it will offer to their gaze.

The Siamese Twins visit us to morrow, a remarkable example of life long attachment.

Sportsmen are busy peppering the sand birds along our shores with mustard shot.

The Polyorama of the War, accompanied by the Thomas & Bennett Troupe, will exhibit Friday and Saturday.

☞ The Portsmouth Cornet Band will participate in the excursion to the Shoals to-morrow, and lend additional pleasure to the occasion.

— The British ship Fairlight, Captain, Bush, from Hong Kong for San Francisco was wrecked near Island Po Ching Hiana, June 12th. One hundred and forty-three Chinese passengers and one European was drowned. The ship broke up six hours after striking and nothing was saved. The government had chartered a steamer to send after the wrecked crew.

— Two United States soldiers were found murdered at Savannah Sunday night, and on each was pinned a placard reading: "Thus the South retaliates for the arrest of Skilton and Harbridge," referring to the arrest of the former for abusing a negro, and the latter for attempting to carry pestilential woolens into New York.

— The Nebraska City papers give the particulars of the murder near that city last Tuesday afternoon of a boy of eleven years of age, named William H. Hamilton, while he was driving a lot of his father's cattle to the pasture, by a man named Cash, who drove the cattle into Nebraska City, where he sold some of them.

— The Chicago Tribune says that a plot has been discovered among the President's reconstructed friends in New Orleans to assassinate Gen Sheridan, commander of the Gulf Department. It was designed to accomplish his death by the explosion of a shell made for the occasion.

— Mr. Samuel Goss, aged 90, the oldest printer in the State of Vermont, died at Montpelier last Sunday. He was an excellent man.

— The statement that the government had restored Gen. Wise his property proves to be erroneous. He says, however, that he expects soon to get it back.

GOLD, Tuesday, 148 1-2.

IN PENNSYLVANIA, lists of deserters from the army, and of the names of those who refused to answer after being drafted, have been published by order of the State authorities. These lists, it is said, will average about one hundred and fifty names to each regiment, or an aggregate of from thirty to thirty five thousand names. They will be sent with the copy of the act of the Legislature disfranchising deserters and non-reporting drafted men to all the election officers of the State, with instructions to refuse the votes of all whose names appear upon the lists.

A special Washington dispatch states that the names of 60,000 deserters from Pennsylvania regiments have been obtained for use in the coming election.

☞ A Cincinnati dispatch of Monday says there were 11 deaths from cholera Sunday The disease has lost its epidemic character and is rapidly abating.

The sum of $200,000 was realized from the sale of pews in the new Jewish Synagogue Sunday.

A Convention of Radical Union men was held at Lexington, Ky., Saturday, which appointed delegates to attend the Philadelphia Convention on the 3d proximo. Resolutions were adopted censuring President Johnson and endorsing the reconstruction policy of Congress.

☞ The U. S. Paymaster General announces that the recent proclamation of the President does not in any manner affect the pay of the soldiers.

☞ A great Johnson meeting was held in Faneuil Hall, Boston, Monday night.—Henry W. Paine was President, and C. G. Greene, first vice-president. The speeches were by Bro. Doolittle and Gov. Parsons of Alabama.

Gov. BROWNLOW has written one of his characteristic addresses to the loyal people of Tennessee, reviewing and severely denouncing the President's policy; declaring that in his own State, as everywhere else, he is only endorsed by rebels and their open sympathizers; and stating that he will not be a candidate for re-election to the office he now holds.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—On Monday, it is said, there were between 300 and 400 removals and appointments.—On Tuesday the President started for Chicago, with a small party, to join in the monumental remembrance of Senator Douglas.

DEAN RICHMOND, a great railroad man, and a very great politician of the democratic party, died a day or two since in New York. The World, of that city, says he was struck down by a severe complication of internal disorders, greatly aggravated, if not directly induced by his unsparing labors to bring about the successful results recently attained in the National Convention at Philadelphia.

☞ Gov. Parsons of Alabama is said to have made a moving speech in Faneuil Hall, Boston, Monday night,—the audience thinned rapidly.

Morning Chronicle.

TO AN UNMARRIED LADY.

Mourn not, lady, for thy charms,
Circled by no lover's arms,
While inferior belles you see
Pick up husbands readily!
Sparrows, when they choose to pair,
Meet their mates anywhere;
But the Phœnix, sadly great,
Cannot find an equal mate!
Earth, though dark, enjoys the honor
Of a moon to wait upon her;
Venus, though divinely bright,
Cannot boast a satellite.

— A Memphis lady was picked up the other morning very drunk. She explained that, having the toothache, she smoked a strong pipe to relieve the pain, and it flew to her head.—Ex.

We are undecided whether the pipe or the toothache flew to her head.

REIGN OF TERROR IN SUMNER COUNTY, TENN.—The Demand of Slavery Revived.—The Nashville correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette gives the following startling narrative of pro-slavery outrages in Sumner county, Tenn. The letter is dated August 17:

"On Tuesday night last George Martin and Leroy Going went to the residence of a thrifty colored man named Nathan, who lived near Mitchellsville, on the L. and N. Railroad, knocked at his door and asked who lived there. Nathan answered them civilly. They then called out: 'Get up, G—d d—n you, and come out.' Discovering who they were, he sprang out at the back door and ran for the woods. Martin and Going pursued him, firing with their pistols until he was wounded and fell. Supposing they had killed him they rode away, saying as they passed his house, in hearing of his wife, that they had killed the 'd—d nigger.' His sole offense was that he was working for himself and had raised a good crop. The old man went to a physician next day to have his wounds dressed, but was told he dare not dress it for fear of the vengeance of those who had shot him. He then came to Nashville, suffering severely, and, exiled from his little home, and mourning the loss of his whole year's work.

The same men, after leaving poor Nathan bleeding, and, as they supposed, dead, went to Jonathan Rogers' and sought for a colored blacksmith named Joe; but failing to find him, they told his wife that if Joe did not return to his old master and work for him as he had always done, 'they would kill him.' The same party left a similar message for George Bells and a number of other colored men who are making a good living for themselves.

A few days since, a company of ten men went to the house of George Buntin, a freedman living near Richland street, on the L. I. & N. R. Railroad, took him out into the field, and gave him two hundred lashes, mangling him in a most terrible manner. George's only offense was, that he is working for himself, and is making a good living.

The mass of the citizens of Sumner county look on these outrages with apparent unconcern. The newspaper of the county never alludes to them. No one is arrested. The scattering Union men of the county dare not say a word—they are in constant danger of assassination themselves.

These things are notorious. Is there no remedy?"

— When may a loaf of bread be said to be inhabited? When it has a little Indian in it.

— We have just heard a good story connected with a revival in a certain town. An invitation being given to those desiring to join "the army of the Lord," a half-witted fellow made his appearance at the anxious seat. Finally he "got through," and stepping up and taking the minister by the hand, he gravely demanded his bounty.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857, 78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unanimous testimony of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications PATENTS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE TWINS.

In form and feature, face and limb,
I grew so like my brother,
That folks got taking me for him,
And each for one another.
It puzzled all, both kith and kin;
It reached a dreadful pitch.—
For one of us was born a twin,
And not a soul knew which.

One day, to make the matter worse,
Before our names were dry'd,
As we were being washed by nurse,
We got completely mixed.
And so you see by Fate's decree,
Or rather, nurse's whim,
My brother John was christened "me,"
And I was christened "him."

This fatal likeness ever dogged
Our footsteps when at school;
For I was always getting flogg'd
Since John turned out a fool.
In fact, year after year the same
Absurd mist he went on:
And when I died the neighbors came
And buried brother "John."

IMPERTINENT QUESTIONS.—The Baltimore American gives the substance of a conversation between a citizen and an ex-rebel soldier on the new registry, which is now progressing. The soldier avowed his readiness to take any oath offered him. "But," replied his questioner, "suppose the Registers should question you as to whether you have been in the rebel army?" "There is no danger of that," he replied. "Gov. Swann has instructed them to ask no impertinent questions."

— An enthusiast, writing 'neath the classic shades of Harvard, says that he would rather live in the pleasant city of Cambridge than die anywhere else.

— The Raleigh (N. C.) Progress states, on the authority of one of the most reliable citizens of that place, who has returned from a visit through South Carolina, that the crops of that State are a bad failure, in consequence of an extended and most disastrous drouth, and that there is great suffering among the poorer classes for the want of the morest necessaries of life.

— Large quantities of the three and five cent issue of fractional currency are being canceled and destroyed by the Redemption Division of the Treasury. No issues of these denominations are now being made, and the five cent coin is being circulated in order to replace the amounts redeemed. This office daily detects from $100 to $200 in counterfeits.

Ayer's Pills.
ARE you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from obstructions which cause disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and deranges its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in this state, take Ayer's Pills and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely cured by the same means. Those who know the virtue of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness, Constipation, Heartburn, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Worms and Suppression, when taken in large doses.
They are Sugar Coated, so that the most sensitive can take them easily, and they are surely the best purgative medicine yet discovered.

Ayer's Ague Cure.
For the Speedy and Certain Cure of Intermittent Fever, or Chills and Fever, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.
This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army, and the west, try it and you will endorse the assertions.
Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. and sold by all Dealers in Medicine everywhere. jy2

By a New England Lady.
A New Novel by the Author of 'Madge.'
D. APPLETON & COMPANY,
443 & 445 Broadway, New York,
PUBLISH THIS DAY,
"SHERBROOKE."
By H. B. G., Author of "Madge." 1 vol. 12 mo. Cloth. Price $2.00.
The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and ennobling; at the same time the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. 'Aunt Lydia' and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. 'Hope,' the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for 'Sherbrooke' an immense sale."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 30, 1866.

THE PRESIDENT is on his travels, making speeches at all important points. At Philadelphia, after cheers for him, for Gen. Grant and Admiral Farragut, the President made several attempts to speak. "Fellow citizens," he said, "be calm for one moment." Finally, comparative quiet having been secured, he said:

"Fellow citizens:—In visiting Philadelphia on the present occasion, it was not for the purpose of making a speech, but I was on my way in company with distinguished gentlemen to the great city of the West—Chicago. * * * * *

So far as regards the part I have taken in political affairs, I have already said I did not intend to make a speech. My public acts and messages are already before the country, and it is from them you are to judge.

He then went on and made, as usual, a stump speech, with a few variations, rather meaner than any of his former efforts.

☞ Gen. Butler understands the Southern rebels better than any other man, and we wish he had the chief dealing with them. In his great and good speech the other night, he referred to the platform of the Philadelphia Convention, and then proceeded to discuss the question of the length of time it would be necessary to keep the South out of Congress, and the late events in New Orleans. He remarked:—

"And when men ask me how long I would keep these men out—I say keep them out until the heavens melt with fervent heat—until they will allow free speech and free press throughout their land. And if it should not come in this generation, we will swear our sons to keep them out till they become fit for a republican form of government."

That's the talk—let us have everywhere, all over this land, what the Constitution guarantees: a "Republican form of government."

NOTIFIED TO LEAVE.—The Toledo, Ohio, Blade says a gentleman arrived there on Wednesday from Bowling Green, Ky., who had left in consequence of having received an anonymous letter, of which the following is a copy:

"Mr. ——, Sir: You are hereby notified to quit this State within three days. If found after that period, your life will be forfeited. DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE."

The gentleman states that several of his acquaintances have received similar letters, and immediately acted upon them, some leaving for the North, and others going further South.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says the President's political and personal friends cannot help feeling some anxiety for his safe return from the perils of cholera and traveling accidents.—But why? is he more in danger from these things than any body else?

— A Washington dispatch says that the guard of soldiers that has been stationed around Mr. Secretary Seward's residence since the assassination of the President, has not yet been removed.

If this be true, it is very foolish. Mr. Seward was in danger—but his friends have found him out, and will not hurt him now.

THE CLEVELAND CONVENTION.—The preliminary proceedings of the committee who issued the call for a convention of soldiers to meet at Cleveland to ratify the proceedings of the Philadelphia Convention were so unharmonious as to portend little result when it takes place. Three of the committee of six—Custar, Rousseau and Ewing—were anxious that the rebel soldiers should be invited in the same manner as they had attended at Philadelphia, but it was objected that sectional prejudices ran too high at the North to admit of that. Gen. Hobart then innocently made a great blunder by going as far the other way. He proposed that all Union soldiers without distinction should be invited; he wishes to meet all his old compatriots in arms, and objected to having it confined to the few who favored the President's policy. But this motion was summarily voted down. Gen. Steedman, who was the presiding officer of the meeting, fervently appealed to the committee not to countenance any measures which would tend to destroy the peace and harmony of the convention and defeat its objects. He saw very clearly that under such a call the "radicals" would have the control of the convention.

☞ The Tribune says that the New York Democracy are rather hard on the bit; and it will take some time for them to become reconciled to the leadership of Weed, Raymond and the ringer of the "little bell." But on a square party issue, and a full popular vote, the Republican Union majority in the State is just about 20,000. However, it adds, the Republican party can overgo that figure this Fall, and are determined to do it. Never did the pulse of a party beat higher than does that of the Republicans of New York to-day.

NEW HAMPSHIRE POLITICS.—The spicy and well-informed Concord correspondent of the Boston Advertiser, says:—"Politics are remarkably quiet on the surface, though there is a deep undercurrent of feeling which will find expression between this and the March election. Little or no result has been made apparent from the Philadelphia Convention. None of the threatened changes have yet been made in the few United States offices in the State, though the few Johnson republicans who were raked together to represent their Lilliputian party doubtless stand ready to swallow the crumbs (and they are nothing but crumbs), which Johnson has at his disposal. The best berth in the State, the U. S. Judgeship, has been irrevocably bestowed on Senator Clark, who is only supposed to favor Johnson's 'policy,' because the office referred to could not have been obtained in any other way. The democracy certainly do not consider it as a triumph of the Johnsonian principle, and it forms quite a theme for denunciation even now with the democratic press.

It has been insinuated that several of the more prominent federal officers would be smoked out directly, and that they were already making preparations to come over and swear by 'Moses' rather than abdicate; but they are generally considered firm and ready to walk the plank rather than deny the principles they believe. The defections will be very few and far between. There are in the State sixty-six officers of the internal revenue department. These may be good for sixty-six Johnson-republican votes. There are in all three hundred and eighty-three post offices. But as ten of the incumbents are women, and two hundred don't pay so much as so many respectable peanut stands, it will not be safe to count on a vote to an office. How far the administration can control the votes of the few clerks in the departments, is a problem which it may take the guillotine to answer. There are, besides these, a foreign Minister and one or two naval appointments, which go to make up the stock in trade of Messrs. Bowers & Co., who have promised on this small capital, if judiciously invested, to make three Johnson representatives in Congress. I count the party in New Hampshire at two hundred and fifty votes, more or less."

A GOLD RING.—The Traveller of Tuesday, says:—"The "ring" in New York, having absorbed nearly all the floating gold, put the price this morning at 148 1-2, and at the time of writing had brought it up to 149 1-4.

On Monday they opened the rate at 146 1-2, but when they found importers in the market buying, they kept rising until the demand ceased. Some six men in New York have the market almost entirely in their hands. Their agents have been in all the business marts of the country, and have purchased all the gold they could obtain in the vicinity of 147, and now they are prepared to put the price up to any figure that may suit their convenience.

Cash gold is scarce at 1-8th of one per cent. per day premium, and some orders cannot be filled even at this rate.

The speculators here have been very active, for they sold about $250,000 shortly after the market opened. But the stock market is now the grand arena of speculation. The bulls are rushing up fancies beyond precedent, only to leave many victims we fear in the lurch. We cannot too earnestly caution those who wish to make permanent investments to be on their guard against fancy stocks.

AN INCIDENT OF SHILOH.—During the battle of Shiloh an officer hurriedly rode up to an aid and inquired for Grant. "That's him with a field glass," said the aid.

Wheeling his horse about, the officer furiously rode up to the General, and touching his cap thus addressed him:

"Sheneral, I wants to make one report. Schwartz's Battery is took."

"Ah," says the General, "How was that?"

"Vell, you see, Sheneral, de sheshenists come up in front of us, and de sheshenists flanked us, and de sheshenists come in de rear of us, and Shwartz's Battery was took."

"Well, sir," says the General, "you of course spiked the guns."

"Vat!" exclaimed the Dutchman in astonishment, "schpike dem guns, spike dem new guns! No, it would spoil dem!"

"Well," said the General, sharply, "what did you do?"

"Do? vy, we took dem back again."

— Col. James Monroe of South Carolina, late of the C. S. A., was recently killed at San Luis Potosi, Mexico, whither he had voluntarily exiled himself, by his Mexican laborers. They were drunk and fighting, and when the Colonel tried to stop them, turned upon and killed him.

— General Grant, according to the Chicago Tribune, was present when President Johnson disgraced the Presidential office by denying the legality of Congress, in his capacity of Commander of the Armies of the United States, to watch the movements of the rebels who constituted, a large part of the delegation that waited upon him.

— A cow was recently drowned by a mud turtle near Ogdensburg. She had gone into the water to drink, when the turtle fastened to her nose, and held it so long under water as to suffocate the cow.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— It is stated that Rev. J. L. Hatch, late of Concord, has accepted a call from the Unitarian Society in Dighton, Mass.

—— C. G. McAlpine of Warner, is reported to have "struck ile" in a spring near his house in the above town, and diligent excavations are being made in anticipation of further discoveries. It is stated that a stick dipped in the water of the spring and then lighted, will burn with great rapidity, and that there is oil enough in the water to burn well in a common lantern. People living in the vicinity are somewhat incredulous upon the subject.

—— A fire broke out in the basement of the counting room of the New Market Manufacturing Company about five o'clock Sunday morning. The fire department were promptly on the ground, but the flames were extinguished without their aid. Damage trifling. Friday afternoon the grist and batting mill of Washington Haines took fire from friction and was entirely consumed. Loss about twenty-five hundred dollars. No insurance.

—— The third Quinquennial Reunion of the Alumni and friends of the New Hampshire Conference Seminary and Female College, at Sanbornton Bridge, occurred on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.—The exercises were well attended and very interesting. The opening address was delivered by Prof. C. S. Harrington of Wesleyan University, upon the subject of "Self Culture." On Thursday forenoon a visit was made to the ruins of the former Seminary, destroyed by fire, where remarks were offered by Professors Harrington, Dixon and Lummis, Hon. Thomas L. Tullock of Portsmouth and others. In the afternoon E. W. Howe, Esq., of Jamaica Plain, Mass, gave an address upon "Energy and Character," and in the evening a bountiful supper was spread by Prof. Judkins. The "Historian's Report" was read by Mrs. Judkins, after which a few hours of social pleasures closed a very pleasant and gratifying meeting.

INVISIBLE INCENDIARIES.—The Hannibal Courier says that "a dwelling house situated in Pike county, Mo., has for a few days past been besieged by numerous individuals eager to investigate the cause of the recent unaccountable fires which daily and sometimes hourly occur in the dwelling. Sometimes the mosquito bars are discovered on fire, but the flame is no sooner quenched than fire breaks out in the chamber among the wearing apparel. Extinguish the fire in the chamber, and an alarm is immediately given from another part of the house. As many as forty persons have stood guard in the building, determined to ferret out the cause of alarm, but with no success, flames continuing to burst out in the bedding, towels, curtains, dresses, &c., all during the day. At night there are no disturbances by the fiery element. On one occasion the investigating committee marked a match, placed it into a box securely covered, placed the box on a table and guarded it closely for a few moments—till the next alarm was raised—when they found to their utter amazement a portion of the identical match which they had marked lying near a burning garment in another part of the house. All who have witnessed these manifestations affirm that it is not the work of any human agency."

This story puts us in mind of the old stories about the stone-throwing devil at New Castle a hundred years ago,—and the Salem, Ipswich and Hampton stories of bewitched people, cows, hogs and provisions.

— A Savannah dispatch says that in the trial of Capt. Harbridge for attempting to introduce the pestilence into New York, a rumor implicates the rebel Gen. Wade Hampton in the murderous designs; also Mrs. C. B. Willard, wife of the rebel Senator. Over twenty persons have been arrested, charged with complicity. [A fine record for policy men.

— The Houma Civic Guard, published in the Parish of Terrebonne, Southern Louisiana, states that quite a number of planters will make from fifty to one hundred hogsheads of sugar, who they did not expect would make any. It has hopes of a crop of 5000 hogsheads for the parish, against 20,000 per annum before the war.

— A young workman in Paris had all the iron nails drawn out of his shoes by a stroke of lightning, without other injury.

— The greatest discovery of the age is the new soap just come out, and known as the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap; it not only saves time in washing, but does the work in a much superior manner to all other soaps before the people. The makers claim it is manufactured on an entirely different principle, and that it is a great labor-saving article, besides going much further than any other soap. Our experience confirms all the Inventor claims for it. Try it and we think all will be convinced of the fact, and will ever have the Gold Medal or none.

THE FAR FAMED THE FAR FAMED

SIAMESE TWINS SIAMESE TWINS SIAMESE TWINS SIAMESE TWINS

AND THEIR CHILDREN AND THEIR CHILDREN.

After a seclusion of 13 years from public life, when for thirteen years they dwelt in quiet seclusion, surrounded by their families.—The fierce onset of contention having laid waste their entire property, and having been repeatedly importuned to appear once more in public, they have concluded to give this series of entertainments, which will be conducted on the same plan as those heretofore given with such marked success before the crowned heads and nobility of France, Germany, and England, where their series created a furore equalled only by the immense crowds who thronged to witness them in all the principal cities of the United States.

CHANG AND ENG

WILL BE ACCOMPANIED

BY THEIR CHILDREN,

Who have been born since their last appearance in public.

It would be superfluous to dwell upon the merits of the Twins as a rare curiosity, for the most eminent Physicians and scientific men are unanimous in pronouncing the Siamese Twins as the GREATEST CURIOSITY IN THE WORD.

Remember, this is your last chance of seeing

THE GREAT WONDERS.

Admission 25 cents. Doors open from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 9 P. M.

Our Citizens will have an opportunity

Friday and Saturday Evenings,

Aug. 31st and Sept. 1st, to see one of the best exhibitions that ever visited our city. When it was their last visitor it drew large audiences. It is now accompanied by the

Thomas and Bennett Troupe,

who are unsurpassed by any troupe traveling. Their delineations of the Negro character, with Song and Dance, enliven the POLYORAMA, and break the monotony of such exhibitions. Here is a combination that is worthy of patronage, and those who miss seeing it this time will be the losers, for it is not the intention of the proprietor to ever again visit our city. We copy below the notice given of the Polyorama when in Dover last winter, and shall also give some from papers where it has been exhibited since it left there. They show that the citizens of other large cities had the same appreciation of its merits that the Dover people had. Those who saw it last winter will wish to see it again with its additional attractions. To those who did not see it, we say embrace the present opportunity to do so; it is money well spent.

Mechanic Hall has seldom been visited by so large audiences, as have assembled there on the last two evenings to witness the exhibition of "THE GREAT WASHINGTON POLYORAMA OF THE WAR." We can say that we have seldom seen any audience so completely entranced, for two hours, as have been the crowds who have been present at these exhibitions. It is what it claims to be, a true pictorial history of the rebellion; and we only repeat the language of another who we see, "a better idea of the rebellion can be here gained, than from all the histories which have ever been published." Those who missed seeing this, will miss seeing one of the best exhibitions given in Salem.—SALEM OBSERVER.

Single Tickets 30 Cents. Four for $1.

Children admitted Saturday Afternoon for 10c

Tickets can be had at the Hall from 4 to 5 o'clock, and seats reserved without additional expense. There will be A FREE CONCERT at 7½ o'clock each evening, in front of the Hall, by a full Brass Band. au27

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discoloured spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly marr the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made the diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists, price $2 per bottle. Ask all for PERRY'S MOTH & FRECKLE LOTION. Sold by all Druggists in Portsmouth and elsewhere. lyauhw—oct19

ASTHMA CURED.

Mr. Wm. May, of 345 Spring Street, New York, writes, Jan. 1, 1866: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. My friend gave me one of Allcock's, and urged me to use it. I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years. PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER

After a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is internal and external remedy. Its positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merit. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken in cases of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Aches, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost indubitable remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. au1dawlm

Wonderful, but True!

MADAME REMINGTON, the world-renowned Astrologist and Somnambulistic Clairvoyant, while in a clairvoyant state, delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychomotrope, guarantees to produce a perfect and life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, with date of marriage, occupation, leading traits of character, &c. This is no imposition, as testimonials with our number can assert. By stating place of birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, and enclosing fifty cents, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture by return mail, together with desired information.

Local.

☞ The wonderful Siamese Twins appear at the Temple this afternoon and evening, attended by their children. They adhered to the union during the war, tho' living in the South, but lost their previously acquired property.

☞ The steamer Pioneer should take a large excursion party to the Shoals to-day. Beside the ample time for a ramble over the islands, there will be the return by moonlight and the excellent music of the Portsmouth Cornet Band.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—A teamster was loading some small iron rods upon a dray at one of the freight houses of the Fitchburg depot in Charlestown, Mass., Wednesday morning, when Felix Sullivan, of Portsmouth, N. H., who was walking behind the teamster—the latter having a rod upon his shoulder—ran against the rod, and the end penetrating one eye utterly destroyed it, beside causing a painful wound.—Boston Herald.

☞ Somebody in Charleston, S. C., who feels an interest in New Hampshire soldiers and their friends, sends us a copy of the Courier of Aug. 22d, with the following item marked:

A STRANGE DISCOVERY.—Some days since in the removal of public property in the United States Quartermaster's Department Storehouse on East Bay, two strange packages came to light, which, on examination, proved to be boxes containing the remains of two Federal soldiers marked as follows: Private H. J. HALL, Company B, 3d N. H. Vols; Private ALBERT S. FLINT, Company D, 4th N. H. Vols. The former died on the 19th of July, and the latter on the 8th of August, 1863, and have been stowed away as merchandise for over a year. As soon as they were discovered they were buried in the Federal Soldiers' Cemetery, as Magnolia. We are requested to state that their graves have been marked so that their friends can remove them at the proper season.—Charleston Courier.

SPIRITED AWAY.—There is a haunted village in Connecticut. A veritable ghost has been seen in Greenville, and not only seen but actually captured. There is a bleaching establishment a that place, and a watchman has been employed to guard it against burglars. One night, and at "the very witching time" of it, he saw a great white object glide noiselessly from the mill and disappear in the woods beyond. He was very much overcome, and prevailed on some friends to mount guard with him the next night. They did so. They did more. They stood night after night and gazed upon the quiet hamlet, but no ghost appeared. At length they gave it up, and the watchman was left alone again. Again he saw the ghost just getting out of the window. He fired a shot at it, and was surprised that the ghost ran. He plucked up courage and pursued. Reaching the other side of the building, he perceived that the spirit had dropped its white covering and was rapidly retreating in dark clothes. He fired again, but the ghost was so far gone that this would not bring him to. On the contrary, he returned the fire and escaped. The bleaching company found, upon examination, that it had been unwittingly furnishing winding sheets for this perturbed spirit. Numerous clothes were missing. A detective was called in, and the result was that Isaiah Sanderson—that was the ghost's name—was arrested and sent to prison for one hundred days. His spirit, it is said, is a little dashed by this treatment.

ECCLESIASTICAL ASSURANCE.—Bishop Staley, the "Reformed Catholic English Bishop" at the Sandwich Islands refused to permit Rev. Mr. Parker, who conducted the religious services at the Palace, at the funeral of Queen Victoria, to officiate at the tomb, because it was consecrated ground. Two of his clergy protested against this conduct, and the next Sabbath worshipped with Rev. Mr. Parker, rather than in their own Reformed Catholic Cathedral. There is much excitement in the foreign community respecting the affair. The Bishop is making himself very unpopular.

☞ Rev. Charles W. Dennison, formerly of Boston, preached in the "Wigwam" at Philadelphia, on Sunday. The services commenced with the opening hymn, "My country, 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty." The hymn is a keen satire on the wigwam and the gassuous preacher.

— Direcks, the murdering cattle thief who was hung by the populace at Nebraska city, on the 17th, in his will, made an hour before his death, bequeathed $1000 to the trustees of the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Nebraska city. He was an officer in an Illinois Regiment during the war, and left considerable property.

— Gen. Howard, in a letter to the Intelligencer, says he recommended the issuing of an order reducing and stopping the issuance of rations to refugees and freedmen in certain cases, after October 1st, and is willing to assume the responsibility attaching to it.

— Newspapers think it rather hard that they should be made to pay three hundred dollars in currency for the information by the cable that there is nothing new in British politics on a Sunday in midsummer.

GOLD, Wednesday, 148 1-8.

— Cotton is doing finely and there is little apprehension of the army worm.

Morning Chronicle.

GENERAL GRANT.—Pollard, editor of the Richmond Examiner, it seems has got home from Washington and Philadelphia to the scene of his recent woman-whipping operations. In his paper of the 23d instant he announces that Jeff. Davis will be released on parole, and that the event "will give joy to millions;" also that "the manly conduct of Mayor Munroe of New Orleans has met the approbation of the President." Pollard also pays his respects to General Grant for appearing at the White House with the President when the resolutions of the Philadelphia Convention were presented to Mr. Johnson, as follows:

"We believe nothing in Gen. Grant's appearance on the day referred to, but that he desired to make a show of himself with the characteristic vanity of his nature. He looked to no construction that might be put upon his ranging himself by the side of Andrew Johnson on that occasion. He thought only of being the observed of all observers—the cynosure of all eyes. He is just the man to be jealous of the prize beef that parades the streets decked in variegated ribbons, cheered by a mob of ragged urchins.

We know that he is radical to the centre of his hard and cruel heart, that he is touched by nothing that does not flatter his self-conceit. He may pretend to be conservative, but he is essentially a destructive, and must be that or nothing. It is fortunate for us that we are escaping so rapidly from his ruthless hands, and woe unto us if he should be again put in authority over us."

It certainly was very unkind in General Grant (says a Union paper) to allow himself to be trapped into attending the interview between Pollard and his fellow-members of the Philadelphia Convention and President Johnson. He might have known that his presence would disturb the equanimity of such pure patriots and loyalists, and would detract very much from their enjoyment of the occasion. The memory of how those "ruthless hands" squeezed the empty shell of the Confederacy until it collapsed into thin air, could have awakened any but pleasant reflections, especially when they were accompanied, as seems to have been the case, with a fearful foreboding that their gentle pressure might again be felt. Out of respect for the feelings of their "Southern brethren," the managers of the interview ought to have left Gen. Grant out of the programme.

— Men are generally deserted in adversity. When the sun sets, our very shadows refuse to follow us.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.

78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent, furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none but MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN SPECIFICATIONS, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Then, as it he had hit upon a certain relief for his troubles, he pulled up the chin to attract his father's attention, and exclaimed, in a distinct voice, 'Mamma, make papa say Amen!'"

Ayer's Ague Cure,
For the speedy cure of
Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, united for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the miasms of malarious countries.
Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the spleen, dysteries, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when original in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "TOUCH" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all at once. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but is the cheapest, and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. We are sure it will cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. Our dealer says it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.
Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. au9

By a New England Lady.
A New Novel by the Author of 'Madge.'
D. APPLETON & COMPANY,
443 and 449 Broadway, New York.
PUBLISH THIS DAY,
"SHERBROOKE."
By Mrs. M. E. Braddon. Author of "Madge." 1 vol. 12 mo. Cloth. Price $2.00.
The scene is laid in a New England village; the plot is most admirably conceived, and the style is eminently chaste and pure. The whole tone of the work is elevating and ennobling, at the same time the story is intensely interesting and exciting, obliging one who has commenced the reading to finish, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties. "Aunt Lydia" and her proverbs would never be forgotten by the reader. "Hope," the heroine of the story, is a model in many respects, and young ladies would do well to imitate her example. We predict for 'Sherbrooke' an immense sale.

Portsmouth N. H.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1866.

☞ In Boston, on Wednesday, devout and prayful men held solemn funeral services at the Tremont Temple over the remains of Rev. Mr. Horton, who was murdered at New Orleans. Rev. Baron Stowe, DD., of the Baptist, Dr. True of the Methodist, and Dr. Kirk of the Orthodox churches, took parts in the exercises. Dr. Kirk said he believed that there was a more rebellious spirit at the South now than before the war, and that this riot was the result of too much leniency. Free speech is not allowed under the flag of the Republic—only ruffians who support the President's policy are allowed to speak to New Orleans. Can, be then asked, such a state of things exist? He hoped the people would say no; say no in their prayers, and say no at the ballot box. He concluded by calling upon the Government to use the military arm, and calling upon God for help.

REVOLT AT SING SING PRISON.—There are at present nearly 1200 convicts in the State Prison of New York at Sing Sing, including many of the most desperate characters, sentenced for long terms of imprisonment—as the Judiciary has recently been unusually severe in its decisions, in consequence of the prevalence of burglaries and thefts. These dangerous men are under charge of about eighty keepers, whose duties, as the prison is arranged, are said to be too onerous to be properly efficient; and the fears prevalent in the neighborhood of the prison at the risk of the escape of so many desperadoes are very great. The outbreak on Tuesday had been in preparation for some time, but only enough was known of it to induce a little more care on the part of the keepers. Twenty seven men were in the conspiracy, the culmination of which is described as follows:

The very first move that was seen which alarmed the keepers was in the south foundry. Mr. Orlando Humphrey, who has charge of it, was standing in his room, about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when a convict named James McLoughlin started out of the front door, and, as he proceeded, called loudly for the crowd in the anger shop to pass that way. Mr. Humphrey looked on with astonishment as twenty-seven convicts, armed with long knives, iron bars and clubs, ran by him at the top of their speed, yelling and shouting, and brandishing their weapons in the air. One man raised his bar as if to strike Mr. Mr. Humphrey, but passed along without molesting him.

The desperadoes passed on to the lime-kiln shed, and soon after emerged therefrom and came in full view of William G. Gale, one of the guards, who stood at his post at the south end of the prison. Gale ran on his post, and, seizing his carbine, immediately returned and commanded the conspirators to halt. Edward Stafford, the leader of the conspirators, brandished a huge knife and urged his comrades on, at the same time yelling with all his might, "Kill the ——! Cut his heart out!" The guard instantly brought his musket to his shoulder and fired. One of the convicts fell, apparently dead. His comrades, now nerved to desperation, pressed on to the guard, hurling stones and other missiles at him, when, in order to save his life, Gale was obliged to retreat, which he did down to the railroad track, turning at intervals and firing on his pursuers.

While this was going on others of the guards were firing on the conspirators with deadly effect. As soon as Gale reached the railroad track he retreated rapidly to a quarry about half a mile below the prison, and called out to the men therein for help, saying the prisoners were escaping. The quarrymen, who, by the way, are citizens of Sing Sing, came forth armed with drills to the assistance of Guardsman Gale. As soon as they made their appearance on the scene, the convicts for an instant seemed to be overawed. Just at this moment Stafford, their leader, was instantly killed by one of the guard, when the convicts became demoralized and were recaptured. During the assault one (Stafford) was instantly killed, two or three mortally wounded and one or two slightly."

EUROPEAN NEWS, Aug. 29.—The Paris correspondent of the London Post states that that Empress Carlotta Maximilian has been so far successful as to obtain from the Emperor of France an extension of the time in which of pay the French Government the ten millions of francs due. Napoleon refused to loan to Maximilian ten millions of francs to pay for the equipment of troops in Mexico, but will assist in such equipment by furnishing material from the French magazines. The Empress also obtained from Napoleon an extension until next January for the projected evacuation of the French troops from Mexico.

The rumors in relation to Mexican matters are conflicting. The most probable reports appear to be that the Empress Carlotta will return to Mexico in October, and that a French General is to command the Mexican troops organized by Maximilian. The name of the General is not stated.

The Austrian Government has paid the indemnity for Prussia's war expenses, as secured to the latter power by the treaty of peace.

At London U. S. 5-20s are higher. The closing quotations are: U. S. 5-20s 72 1-2. The steamship City of Boston sailed for New York, taking £50,000 in specie.

GOLD, Thursday, 147 1-2.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. Thomas Austin of Northfield entered on his one hundredth birthday on the 14th of the present month. The venerable man, though somewhat lame, is in good health and spirits, has good eyesight, and exercises a cheerful spirit.

—— Efforts are being made to remove the Freewill Baptist Theological School from New Hampton, to some other location which can afford greater advantages for such an institution, in the matters of accessibilities, lectures, etc. It is also proposed to raise an endowment fund of $100,000.

—— The Republican State Committee have appointed a large delegation to meet the Southern Union Convention at Philadelphia,—including Gov. Smyth, ex-Govs. Goodwin and Haile, Judge Clark, our whole Congressional delegation, Geo. G. Fogg, Daniel M. Christie, Thos. E. Tullock, Onslow Stearns, Col. Tappan, &c. &c.

—— The Manchester Mirror states that a dozen Johnsonian chiefs of New Hampshire met in that city Tuesday evening, among them Messrs. Marcy, Harrington, Bingham, Hibbard, Cutter, Bowers, Lovering and Rolfe. And the Mirror adds:

To the consternation of all, Henry P. Rolfe stated to them that he could go with them no further. He was a liberal Republican, but could not bow his knee clear down to the dust and become a Copperhead Democrat. The plank he could not and would not walk was, deadly hostility to the Constitutional Amendment.

Some Concord papers and correspondents hint, that Mr. Rolfe,—after going to Manchester to make delegates, and then going a delegate to Philadelphia,—has not got his commission as Post-Master, and that his appointment has been revoked,—others that his commission has been revoked. There is a screw or two loose somewhere; and those people who rely on the promises of the greatest liar in the country, are likely to be disappointed as well as disgraced.

AN ODD CHARACTER.—An interesting will case has just been decided at Holly Springs, Miss., against the validity of a will. The testator, one McQueen, bequeathed his estate to a neice and her four daughters, disinheriting his own daughters. It was testified that he had declared that he had heard at his farm in Marshal county, the guns of Fort Moultrie, Sumter and Pensacola; that one of his negroes ran away before the war, and, returning, was received with favor on condition that he should be hanged if he ran away again, and having ran away again during the war, the madman on recapturing, actually hanged him. The last act of his life was the killing of a peaceable man in Choctaw county on a fancied provocation. The neighbors took arms, hunted him like a wild beast, and, overtaking him in Calhoun county, shot him down in the road. His will has now very justly been set aside.

THE PITTSBURG SOLDIER'S CONVENTION.—At a meeting of the Washington Sailors' and Soldiers' Union (which sustains Congress,) held on Monday evening, letters were read from Generals Grant and Hooker, in which they stated that it will afford them much pleasure to join the Union on the occasion of the excursion, which Gen. Hooker says he will do; and Gen. Grant, if he can, which is doubtful. Gen. G. says in his letter:

If I am in the city on that day it will afford me great pleasure to join your Union on that occasion. Previous to receiving your invitation, however, I had accepted another invitation, which, if I keep, will take me out of the city at that time. All I can say now is that it will afford me great pleasure to be with you on the 10th of September, if it is so that I can.

BUTTER.—The St. Albans (Vt.) Messenger of Tuesday says: "There was little or no change in the butter market to-day. Forty cents was the ruling price for a good article."

THE LOUISIANA UNIONISTS Protest against being ruled by "prisoners of war under parole." Why, the Johnson Unionists intend to bring under that rule the whole United States.

MEXICO.—A Galveston dispatch says that Topello, Mexico, was captured by the Liberals last Thursday, with the garrison, 700 men, besides 8 rifled guns, 1100 small arms, and large amounts of baggage and stores.

— Fred. Douglass, it is reported, has been elected a delegate from Rochester to the Loyal Southerners' Convention in Philadelphia, which will make no objection to his color.

— A German lady shot and seriously wounded, in the street in Louisville, Ky., on the 22d inst, a suitor who had been repulsed by her, and afterward insulted her. She is a lively widow of 22 years. She has not been arrested.

— An epidemic has appeared in Vienna, causing painful swellings on the faces of men who have used a new shaving paste, which had been highly recommended as a "clean shave" by Barber Johann Gautier. His paste rendered unnecessary the use of the razor. The paste was found to consist mainly of arsenic. Of course it was confiscated and the aspiring barber subjected to legal penalties.

WISDOM AND LABOR.—Speaking of the late Labor Congress, a cotempory says:—

The Congress evinced more wisdom than is usual in Congresses, in its emphatic deprecation of Strikes; in urging Co operation as the true remedy for many evils now affecting Labor; in recommending the formation of Mechanics' Institutes and Reading Rooms; and in advising workingmen who find work scarce or remuneration scanty to hie to the public lands and become settlers thereon. Of course, the indolent and shiftless will plead that they have not the means, though three fourths of all the farms in our country were first settled by men as needy as they are.

So far, this Congress is bravely right.—But it should have gone a step further, and urged our young, unmarried workingmen to practice greater frugality and thrift, so as to be able to settle on the public lands (or elsewhere) whenever they choose. At present, our young mechanics squander in dissipation sums that will keep them poor all their after-lives. Any single man with a good trade ought to save at least $500 by the time he is 25 years of age, (which is as early as it is wise to marry); and with $500 so saved and invested in United States securities, he never need talk of "the alarming encroachment of capital on the rights of the industrial classes," or any bosh of that sort for the rest of his life.

It is not capital—it is the grog-shop, the beer-saloon, the billiard room, the cigar store, the gambling den, the sink of pollution, whence encroachment on "the rights of the industrial classes" is most to be apprehended, and that needs to be "crushed."—If the Laboring Class in general, but especially the young men, could be kept out of these dens of iniquity, and induced to save their earnings, they might very soon be independent of capital, and able, by co-operation, to employ and direct their own labor; dealing directly with each other and paying little or no tribute to any capital but their own.

EXPLANATION.—The correspondent of the New York Times who first sent out General Sheridan's dispatch in its mutilated condition, denies that he committed the outrage, but affirms that he forwarded it precisely as it was furnished to him at the White House. The question now is, who did it? Another New York correspondent intimates that it was done under President Johnson's personal supervision.—And a loyal editor asks, "Did the President think he could in this way deceive and blind the people? If so, his stupidity is equaled only by his wickedness in committing the wrong or allowing it to be done."

☞ Henry J. Raymond, (now the Johnsonian fugleman,) was chosen years ago, Chairman of the National Union Executive Committee (Republican); and N. D. Sperry, the New Haven postmaster, its Secretary, has also joined the new party. Yet both have had the impudence to issue and sign a call for a meeting of that committee at the Astor House in New York on the 3d of September,—although some other members of the Committee had previously issued a call for a meeting of the Committee at Philadelphia on the same day. And we perceive that the members who are now in Washington say, the Committee will meet at the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia, and not at New York, as stated by Raymond. They denounce him as having entered into a coalition with rebels and copperheads to break up the Union party, and therefore they claim that he has no right to issue the call signed by him as Chairman of that Committee, and that a proper sense of propriety on his part ought to dictate his voluntary withdrawal from that Committee. As a matter of course, the Committee will meet in Philadelphia,—while Mr. Raymond will meet the Secretary in New York.

☞ Rev. William Williams of Hatfield died in 1741, in the seventy-sixth year of his age, and the fifty-sixth of his ministry. His son, Dr. Solomon Williams, died in 1776, in the seventy-sixth year of his age and fifty-seventh of his ministry. His son, Dr. Eliphalet Williams, died in 1803 in the seventy-sixth year of his age, and the fifty-fifty of his ministry. His son, Rev. Solomon Williams, died in 1836, in the eighty-third year of his age and fifty-fifth of his ministry. His son, Deacon Eliphalet Williams of Northampton, is living and eighty-six.

☞ The new constitution of North Carolina is rejected. The rebels rampant, outnumbered the policy-men. Query, What is the present State government of North Carolina? Is is reconstructed? Is it republican in form? Or is it conquered territory, held in subjection by U. S. laws and forces?

GENERAL FORREST,—the miscreant who murdered prisoners of war in cold blood, has come out for Andrew Johnson in a speech at Memphis. He says that "he bears no malice in his heart against any Northern man." If Booth had succeeded in escaping, such a remark would have been just as appropriate from his lips. If murderers and assassins are to be allowed to go free, they at least should not insult the friends of their victims by saying, substantially, that if everybody else is satisfied they are. They "bear no malice"—Transcript.

— There are 54 captaincies to be filled in the new regular regiments. Secretary Stanton has filed at his office 10,200 applications for the above 54 positions.

— The convention of Southern loyalists will meet at Philadelphia Tuesday, the 25th of September, instead of Monday, the 3d, as at first announced.

The New England Fair, in connection with the Vermont State Fair, will be held at Brattleboro', Sept. 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th.

MAINE. — The canvass is becoming quite spirited in Maine, and the people are awake to the necessity of a thorough marshalling of the Union strength at the election which will occur a fortnight from yesterday. There will be a large vote cast, and the Republicans anticipate a complete triumph.

FENIANS AND THE PRESIDENT. — In consequence of the course of Mr. Johnson in not according national protection to Fenian prisoners in Ireland, the Stephens wing of the Brotherhood decided not to pay him any mark of respect on his visit to New York.

— The iron molders of Worcester, Mass. struck for fifteen per cent. higher wages Tuesday. One establishment complied with the demand, immediately, and by night all the others had followed suit.

Our Citizens will have an opportunity

Friday and Saturday Evenings,

Aug. 31st. and Sept. 1st,

to see one of the best exhibitions that ever visited our city. When it was here last winter it drew large audiences. It is now accompanied by the

Thomas and Bennett Troupe,

who are unsurpassed by any troupe traveling. Their delineations of the Negro character, with Song and Dance, call ren the POLYORAMA, and break the monotony of such exhibitions. Here is a combination that is worthy of patronage, and those who miss seeing it this time will be the losers, for it is not the intention of the proprietor to ever again visit our city. We copy below the notice given of this Polyorama when in Dover last winter, and shall also give some from papers where it has been exhibited since it left there. They show that the citizens of other large cities had the same appreciation of its merits that the Dover people had. Those who saw it last winter will wish to see it again with its additional attractions. To those who did not see it, we say embrace the present opportunity to do so; it is money well spent.

THE POLYORAMA OF THE WAR.—This entertainment, of which our contemporaries speak in justly glowing terms, was first exhibited in this city last evening, at the Mechanics' Institute. The audience, though small in point of numbers, on account of the Crystal Palace Concert (at Nordheimers' Hall), was all that could be desired in regard to intelligence and worth. We cordially recommend our citizens not to let pass the opportunity of seeing this really excellent work of art.—MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT.

Single Tickets 30 Cents. Four for $1.

Tickets can be had at the Hall from 4 to 5 o'clock, and seats reserved without additional expense. There will be A FREE CONCERT at 7 o'clock each evening, in front of the Hall, by a full Brass Band. au27

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by the most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. Hygienic with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the INDEPENDENT ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE.

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is a Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

ASTHMA CURED.

Mr. Wm. May, of 245 Spring Street, New York, writes, Jan. 1, 1868: I have been afflicted with asthma for upwards of ten years, receiving no benefit from medical men. I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. My friend gave me one of Alicock's, and urged me to use it. I did so, and have now worn them steadily for nine months, and find myself better than I have been for many years. PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken in cases of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century. au4awlm

Local.

☞ A visit to the beaches at this time will cause one to wonder why the great body of pleasure seekers flee from that vicinity just as the most charming portion of the year begins. Incomparably the most agreeable months of all the twelve are September and October at the seaside—sea and sky assume a deeper blue, the weather is more settled, such blessings in disguise as mosquitoes and flies are not so abundant, while the great painter—Autumn—holds a high carnival of color in the maples and beeches. The cool nights are far more suitable for dancing and kindred amusements than those of the hot months preceed ing. The commencement of the business season and the re-opening of the schools, may account for a portion of the heigira—but to those who seek either pleasure or health we should say you are discarding your best chance for their attainment.

INSURANCE against the evils which may occur to our property by fire or flood has long been recognized as the surest safeguard a man can place between himself and loss. Life Insurance has won for itself the encomiums of many who have realized its benefits, and the confidence of the whole thinking community. Within a few years men have been led to carry the principle further, and in case of accident to person receive such pecuniary compensation as shall tend to make effects less disastrous. John S. Harvey & Son, of this city, have been appointed General Agents for the State of New Hampshire for the United States Accident Insurance Company, of Syracuse, N. Y., and would be pleased to extend its benefits to their friends.

☞ The U. S. steamer Muscoota, with seventy cases of fever of a malignant type on board, left Pensacola August 23d for this port, and is now due here. The utmost vigilance will be exercised by Admiral Bailey and the Board of Health to prevent any cause for apprehension. No communication will be allowed with the infected ship, and Gen. Gates will see that this regulation is strictly enforced.

COUNTERFEITERS.—Further complaints have been lodged against James W. Tuttle, now in Manchester jail charged with passing ten dollar counterfeit bills. The complaints have been made by officers in the secret service.

☞ We understand that the Rev. Dr. Berry, late President of Shelby College, Ky., and a former resident of this city, has purchased the Cutts place above Christian Shore.

☞ The stable of Mr. Charles Maine, on Lafayette Road, was entered on Wednesday night and robbed of two fine sets of harness and a couple of magnificent carriage robes—the whole valued at $500.

POLICE COURT, August 30. — David Barry, on a charge of being intoxicated, was brought before this august tribunal, where he was fined $6.86. On a charge of creating a brawl and tumult, he received a similar sentence.

John Barratt, who was also brought up on two complaints similar to those made against Barry, was considered guilty, and ordered to discharge $13.72, in two instalments of $6.86 each.

EPPING CAMP MEETING.—It was estimated that about eight thousand persons were present Thursday. The train from Concord and Manchester on that morning brought down fifteen hundred. Road Master Sanborn and Conductor Alexander manage the transportation with the efficiency of a Corps Quartermaster.

☞ Mr. Wm. H. Caswell has a queer fish on exhibition at his fish market on Bow street. It is a "Thrasher, or sea-fox," a fish of the shark family. This specimen measures 9 feet 6 inches in length, more than half of that being the tail, the under lobe of which is very small, and the upper very long and slightly curved upward like a scythe. The pectoral fins spread nearly or quite a yard, the fish girts 30 inches, its color is a deep ashen gray, and its weight when caught about 200 pounds. It was captured near Newcastle Bridge, on Tuesday, by Mr. Gilson.

☞ Don't forget the exhibition of the Polyorama this evening. Beside the great display of paintings, the Thomas & Bennett Troupe will enliven the evening's entertainment.

☞ The President of the U. S. visited Newark, N. J. and New York, city Wednesday. He and Mr. Seward made speeches.

☞ The Rowing match between Brown and Ward will take place at Portland Sept. 18th, the start to be made at 4 o'clock, P.M.

☞ At New York, Messrs. Seward and Johnson made stump speeches of their pattern. Farragut spoke two minutes, and Grant one minute.

☞ Rev. John Pierpont was buried at Medford, on Wednesday; funeral services at the Unitarian church where he formerly preached, and where he was highly esteemed and honored.

A COPPER SPECULATION.—A feature in the stock market the past week has been the great and rapid advance in certain of the better class of copper stocks, and such lucky operators, if they can be so called, who were fortunate enough to have taken advantage of the rise and sold at a high price that which was purchased at a comparatively low one, made a handsome profit. The following incident which has just transpired is one of those successful ones or "lucky hits" in the hazardous field of stock operations which serve to make it so attractive.

A house in Boston sent word to its New York correspondents Aug. 15, that their balance here was $6500, and inquired if they would have it sent on to them. The New York house sent back to use the $6500 as a margin for the purchase of 600 shares Franklin Mining Company, at the then market price of 59 3-4 a 60 per share, which was done. On the 25th inst. the Boston house had resold the same stock for account of its correspondents, and remitted to them a profit of fifteen thousand dollars obtained by the rise in the stock in ten days.—Traveller.

☞ Large delegations are going from most of the Northern States to meet with the Southern Union [not Johnson] men in Philadelphia.

— The Canadian government are about purchasing a few thousand Springfield breech loading rifles.

— A New York paper says that there are over two thousand places in that city where gambling is habitually carried on.

— A gentleman who has returned from an extended tour through Upper Canada states that the grain crops this year exceed those of any previous season, and so far have all been safely harvested.

— The New York Herald boasts that the merchants of that city have raised one hundred thousand dollars to influence the elections this fall, and says the amount could be increased to half a million.

— It is intimated that the promise of restoration to his old rank in the army will be sufficient to induce Gen. Sweeney to break off from the Roberts wing of the Fenians, who now promise to act and vote with the Republicans.

CRUEL JOKE.—The Paris correspondent of the Nation tells of a learned savan connected with the Garden of Plants who has been trying for some time, but unsuccessfully, to hatch three crocodile eggs, (two of fully, to hatch three crocodile eggs, (two of them white and one red,) presented him last winter by a traveler returned from the East. The failure of the learned doctor to hatch these eggs, which he carried constantly in his bosom for the last seven months, wrapped in a flannel waistcoat especially donned for that purpose, is attributed to the fact of their being billiard balls, abstracted from a "hell" at Cairo.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857.
78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other Foreign Countries. Caveats, Specifications, Claims, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full acquaintance with patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can safely confide their interests competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all of which one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made twelve rejected applications for PATENTS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

GAMBLING A COMMON NUISANCE.—Judge Busteed, of the U. S. District Court for Southern Alabama, has recently decided that the master of a vessel is liable for a loss by gambling on board his vessel, under certain circumstances. In the case before him a young man eighteen years of age, was sent by his mother to New Orleans to collect a debt of $750. On his return to Mobile, he fell into the hands of sharpers on board a steamboat, who fleeced him of the full amount. In the absence of the sharpers the mother brought a suit against the captain of the boat, who was ordered by the court to pay over the amount. In delivering this decision, the Judge quoted from Chancellor Kent as follows:—

The enlightened judgment of mankind consents to stigmatize gambling as a most pernicious vice. Every christian code denounces it as a crime, and punishes it as such. A common gambler is a common nuisance. Insensible to honor, deaf to pity, and bent upon plunder, he is a human cormorant, more detestable than the bird of prey itself, and if it is within the power, it is the clear duty of managers and directors of public conveyances to save the public from contact with him. Towards women and minors the master of a vessel is bound, at all times, to exercise the care and tenderness of pater familias, and this is especially his duty when they are unaccompanied by a natural guardian. The fact is, that in the eye of the law, he stands to all his passengers in loco parentis. They are entitled as a matter of right to his attention and protection.

VERMONT.—It is fortunate for the good citizens of Mr. Congressman Baxter's District in Vermont, that the election in that State is no further off than Tuesday. The friends of Mr. Baxter assert that he has received the regular Republican nomination; his opponents say he has not. The result of the election will settle that question, we suppose. Baxter's friends say that Judge Hoyt, who is running against him, is in collusion with the Democrats, but we should think Democratic support would be a poor staff to lean upon in that State. Judge Poland, who has been nominated for Congress in place of Mr. Morrill, says Mr. Baxter is a man whom he would not like to associate with in Congress or elsewhere. The contest has a bitterness such as is seen only when brethren fall out, and the quantity of mud thrown shows that the political waters of Vermont have flowed so smoothly as not to stir up the sediment at the bottom for a long time. If sanitary precautions are not taken soon, we shall expect to hear of the prevalence of political cholera (which may be but another name for Johnsonism) in the Green Mountain State.—Traveller.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1857.
78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries; Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them the broadest and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such a uninterrupted proof of great success, I think, on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART During eight months, the subscriber, in connection with his large practice, made no less than rejected applications AMONG ABOUT SIX HUNDRED CASES, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1866.

☞ In accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the Registration of the Papers of discharged soldiers and seamen," a Registry has been established in the Adjutant-General's office, Concord, N. H., and all parties desiring to avail themselves of its benefits can can do so by forwarding such papers as are specified in said act, which, when recorded, will be returned.

In order to guard against fraud, and the presentation of spurious papers, the "Oath of Identity" will in every case, be required to be filled out and attested as per blank back of the Discharge. Affidavits of two witnesses, as required by said act, will also accompany all papers presented for registration. And it is desired that that this notice be circulated as widely as possible.

☞ In receiving President Johnson at Albany, Governor Fenton said:

With high considerations for the Chief Magistrate of the Republic I address you words of welcome in behalf of our citizens and the people of the State, whose capital you visit. We extend to you and to your suite hospitality and greeting, &c.,—but he he did not express any confidence in the man, nor flatter him in the least degree.—The President made no lengthy reply, but merely returned his thanks, and accepted, as Chief Magistrate of the country, the hospitalities of the State. In the evening, however, Andrew Johnson made his usual stump speech to the serenaders and others, with an extra spice of bitterness occasioned by Gov. Fenton's lack of sevility.

☞ On Wednesday, in the New York State Senate, which was convened in extra session for the trial of Judge Smith, a motion to welcome the President, Gen Grant, and Admiral Farragut was adopted, the name of Seward having been voted out.—During the discussion of this resolution Senator Law made a speech against the President, charging him with being responsible for the murder of two young men from the Senator's office, who had been killed in the New Orleans riot. He said their blood cried for vengence. Senator Goddard followed in the same strain, saying that the people of the Western part of the State hate that man, meaning the President.—He believed that this journey of the President was for a distinct political object, and he hoped he might be foiled in it.

☞ At New York, Aug. 30, on entering Central Park, General Grant (who is something of a horse rancier) asked permission of his driver to take the reins.—The request was acceded to, when the Gendrew out of the line and drove up along side the President's carriage, challenging the driver to a race. The challenge was accepted, and both teams were started off upon a very rapid pace, which was evenly maintained for a mile, when the General's team began to gain on the President's, and soon passed. The President rose, lifting his hat in acknowledgement of defeat.

☞ In New York city, the Post says the dinner to the Presidential party at Delmonico's Wednesday night was the most elegant and expensive affair of the kind ever enjoyed by so large a party in this country. A dinner for 250 was ordered, and the cost was $25,000, or $100 for each plate. There were eight different kinds of wine, costing from $10 to $20 per bottle. [Was this temperance? or was it republican simplicity?.—The papers don't say.]

☞ In New Jersey, Governor Marcus L. Ward has issued a proclamation convening the Legislature September 10th, for the purpose of ratifying the Constitutional Amendment and filling existing Senatorial vacancies.

☞ A Washington special says that Wm. T. Smithson, a banker of Washington, has brought a suit against Secretary Stanton for unlawful imprisonment during the war for holding correspondence with the enemy, and lays his damage at $30,000. The Cabinet have resolved to defend the Secretary, basing the defence principally upon the act indemnifying certain government officers for acts done to suppress the rebellion.

COAL.—At the regular monthly auction sale of Scranton coal in New York on Wednesday, the following prices were obtained: Lump $5.25 a $5.90; Steamer $5.12 1-2 a 5.25; Egg $5.25 a 5.55. Stove $6.62 1-2 a 6.90: Chestnut $5.75; Grate $5.12 1-2 a 5.25, showing a decline, as compared with with the July sale, of $1.12 on Lump, $1.38 on Stove, $1.50 on Egg, 58 cents on Stove, 59 cents on Chesnut, and 1.50 on Grate.

— A few days ago, at Louisville, the body of a man was found on the street with one hundred stabs in his body, and frightful multilations. No clue to the murderer or the man's indentity has been obtained.

GOLD, Friday, 147 3-4.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Gov. Smyth has appointed Hon. George G. Fogg, U. S. Senator, vice Judge Clark, who has been placed on the bench

—— The trial of the new engine up the Mt. Washington Railroad, on Tuesday, is said to have resulted in a great success.

VIEWS OF A PLANTER.—An Alabama planter writing to the Selma Messenger, thus gives the result of his experience with free labor:

"More money may be made growing cotton at thirty cents per pound with free labor than was at ten cents in the days of slavery; and this, too, by working gangs of hirelings, as at present, or by tenants upon small farms. The failure to cultivate the land this year is owing more to the incompetency of men engaged in the business than to the unfavorableness of the season or the indolence of the freedmen.

Our present system of labor, or rather mode of farming—for in truth we have no fixed system—must soon pass away, because it is not adapted to the wants of a whole community. Old men, women and minors who own land—and a large amount of real estate is owned by such persons—cannot attend in person to its cultivation, while there other persons who will not take the trouble to do so. We must, therefore, have a system of agricultural labor suited to the wants of all. What will that be? Certainly a tenantry. But this cannot be established in a day—time alone can mature. The soil of every free country is occupied and cultivated by tenants, and such must be the case here sooner or later—in ten, twenty or fifty years, perhaps at first by a fixed tenantry of whites and blacks; but ultimately, no doubt, by the latter alone."

[Might it not be possible to cultivate the soil of a truly free country, by the hands of the owners? A great part of New Hampshire has been cultivated by the owners, for an hundred years.]

SUPPOSED MURDER.—Capt. S. G. Butts of the Veteran Reserve Corps, and an officer of the Freedmen's Bureau in Louisiana, is supposed to have been murdered in Winn Parish last June while en route to Jackson. He was threated with violence if he attempted to pass through Winn, and as nothing has been heard of him since he passed a certain point, it is believed that he has been murdered by persons hostile to the Bureau. The dead body of a man, much decomposed, has recently been found in the woods in Winn Parish, which may be his. The case is to be investigated.

OFFICE-SEEKING IMPORTUNATES.—Notwithstanding the absence of the President, the Secretary of the Treasury, who remained in Washington, hoping, during the President's absence, to dispose of the accumulated public business, is overwhelmed with office-seekers. Parties expecting office, being aware of the great number of applications which the Secretary has so far been unable to examine, press their claims in hopes that he may have prepared a full list of appointees to be submitted to the President immediately upon his return.

BASE AND DISHONEST POLICY.—The Washington correspondent of the Boston Advertiser, under date of Aug. 30, says:—

There are now on file at the War Department official reports of atrocious outrages upon freedmen, indorsed in the handwriting and with the signature of Mr. Johnson, that "These reports must not be made public."

A special dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune, from New Orleans, Aug. 30, says:—"It may yet appear officially that General Sheridan's dispatches have been further tampered with at Washington. The following telegram to General Grant has been for some reason omitted in the permitted publication of all the correspondence. An investigation may prove the suppression of other dispatches."—The dispatch was from New Orleans, Aug. 13, and reads thus:

"The military board called by General Baird to investigate the occurrences in this city of July 30, is progressing as rapidly as possible. I see in the papers by reports of officials here, an attempt is made to cast blame upon the military for not being present on the 30th ult. There could have been no object in its being present, except to prevent the police from perpetrating a revolting massacre. Its absence, for this reason I regret. From reports of my own scouts, who saw the affair from first to last from my own office, from disinterested and faithful persons, I believe that at least nine-tenths of the casualties were perpetrated by the police, the citizens stabbing and smashing in the heads of many who had been already wounded or killed by policemen. P. H. SHERIDAN, Maj. Gen. Comdg."

[Comment is unnecessary.]

☞ The Keokuk, Iowa, Gate City says it has been discovered that stories of Indian depredations are sometimes manufactured by residents in frontier settlements, who desire the presence of troops for profit instead of protection. This has turned out to be the case with regard to the reported massacres in Paradise Valley, Nevada, in the early part of July. On Thursday, a dispatch received at Gen. Grant's headquarters from Lieut. Gen. Sherman, at Fort Laramie, states that the reports of Indian troubles on the Plains are greatly exaggerated, the telegraph wires not having been injured and no party that has been organized has sustained loss. No small bands of Indians are roaming about stealing, as has been represented, and no difficulty is apprehended.

Communication.

CONVERSATION BETWEEN A DEMOCRAT AND A REPUBLICAN.—Democrat—Why are you deserting the administration when the democrats are coming to its support?

Republican—Because the President has deserted the party which elected him and which put down the rebellion.

D—But the President is carrying out Lincoln's policy.

R—Then why did you oppose Lincoln and support Johnson?

D—Because Lincoln opposed the Democrats and Johnson favors them.

R—Is not that as good a reason for my course as it is for yours?

D—But the rebellion is over and we are going to break down parties and have a united country. What is there now to divide Union men?

R—Just what divided the country before the rebellion. The rebels want privileges; the Republicans want equality.

D—The Democrats and the President are as devoted to the Constitution as ever Daniel Webster was.

R.—They are devoted to the monopolies which were suffered to grow up under it.

D—Will you give me any attestation of the wrong that will be done if the President carries out his reconstruction policy?

R—Under it South Carolina, with less voting population than New Hampshire, might have twice as many representative in Congress, and Jeff. Davis, (as soon as the President becomes reckless enough to remove the ablest war minister in the world,)—may be appointed to his old place as Secretary of War, where he planned the first rebellion, and will have an opportunity to plan the second.

EUROPEAN ITEMS, Aug. 30.—From London we learn that the Canadian Government has asked the Home Government to send more troops to Canada, owing to apprehended trouble with the United States, out of the expected Fenian invasion and the modification of the Neutrality Laws of the United States. Government has decided to send two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry; preparations are making for their departure.

FROM CONSTANTINOPLE it appears that matters in Turkey are in a very bad state. The revolt in Candia progressed and the inhabitant Christians have asserted their independence of the Turkish Empire. Constantinople is announced to be in a state of siege.

At Moscow, the United States Embassy have received complimentary addresses and invitations by telegraph from a large number of the principal towns in the interior of Russia.

At Paris, the belief grows that Maximilian will abdicate the crown of Mexico.

The Debats in an editorial alludes to the honors paid to the American embassy in Russia, and after making the significant inquiry: "What is the value of the demonstrations between the United States and Russia?" says that "France has done little to revive the old friendship between herself and the United States."

— The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune asserts that the Johnson men have raised $200,000 to carry the Pennsylvania election.

— Twenty to thirty ladies are now on trial at Indianola, Warren county, Iowa, for compelling a secesh female to carry the American flag in a procession.

Our Citizens will have an opportunity

Friday and Saturday Evenings,

Aug. 31st and Sept. 1st,

to see one of the best exhibitions that ever visited our city. When it was here last winter it drew large audiences. It is now accompanied by the

Thomas and Bennett Troupe,

who are unsurpassed by any troupe traveling. Their delineations of the Negro character, with Song and Dance, enliven the POLYORAMA, and break the monotony of such exhibitions. Here is a combination that is worthy of patronage, and those who miss seeing it this time will be the losers, for it is not the intention of the proprietor to ever again visit our city. We copy below the notice given of the Polyorama when in Dover last winter, and shall also give some from papers where it has been exhibited since it left there. They show that the citizens of other large cities had the same appreciation of its merits that the Dover people had. Those who saw it last winter will wish to see it again with its additional attractions. To those who did not see it, we say embrace the present opportunity to do so; it is money well spent.

THE POLYORAMA OF THE WAR.—This entertainment, of which our contemporaries speak in justly glowing terms, was first exhibited in this city last evening, at the Mechanics' Institute. The audience, though small in point of numbers, on account of the Crystal Palace Concert at Northcutter' Hall, was all that could be desired in regard to intel igence and worth. We cordially recommend our citizens not to let pass the opportunity of seeing this really excellent work of art.—MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT.

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY!

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It rejuvenates with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

Is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liverspot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pen a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1848. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

Local.

"THE FATHERS, WHERE ARE THEY?" We have not any old settled pastors in Portsmouth at present, to boast of, though we are proud to have the venerable and venerated Rev. Dr. Burroughs and Rev. Mr. Austin as citizens; and Rev. Drs. Peabody and Putnam, and Elder How, we still claim for ours.

The longest pastorate here was closed the past week, by the removal of Rev. A. J. Patterson to Roxbury, though his family will remain here for a while. Mr. Patterson has resided in Portsmouth for eleven years, and it is not too much to say that our whole community will personally regret his removal; and that while his social qualities have endeared him to all, his labors for his church and the country have left his Society in a most flourishing condition, and must have resulted in benefit to the flag he loves so well.

Rev. Mr. DeNormandie, pastor of the Unitarian Church, sailed for England on Wednesday last, for an absence of nine months in Europe. We understand his pulpit will be supplied till Jan. 1st, by Rev. Dr. Stearns of Cambridge.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Thursday evening, Aug. 30, a petition of C. H. Mendum and others for laying out and continuing Wibird street from its present terminus to South Road was referred to Committee on City Lands and Buildings.

The subject of a perambulation and survey of the line between Portsmouth and Rye was referred to the Mayor with power to act.

The Bonds of Charles A. Shannon, Collector of Taxes for the years 1860—'61—'62 '63 and '64, were accepted.

Proposal of Moses Yeaton to build extension of Cabot street School House for $1200 was accepted and adopted.

Communication.

Messrs Editors:—I was glad to see the announcement in your paper, that the C. & P. Railroad carried a great multitude of passengers to and from the Camp Meeting Ground in Epping, for that will tend to increase the dividends, and may put money into my purse as a Stockholder;—and was glad also, that the management was good, in being free from accident. But as a Traveller, I must complain that I was five hours in getting to Concord, and five more in getting back on one of the Camp Meeting days, and that at one station the train did not start till an hour and a half after the regular time: wholly, I suppose on account of the same extra loads of passengers. But I deem it the duty of any and every road, when it is making money in such way, to run the regular trains at the advertised hours, for business passengers. I would also suggest that the fare for passengers might be reduced considerably, not only for the public good, but for the increase of travel and for the permanent benefit of the Road. A TRAVELLER

Morning Chronicle.

JOHN PIERPONT, as a Poet, will long be remembered. Many of his minor poems are of exquisite sweetness and pathos, while the deep religious fervour of others render them imperishable. His touching lines to "My Child," and "Passing Away," are familiar wherever the English language is spoken "as household words." Among his latest poems is the following, written when he was seventy-six years old—just when the rebellion broke out. It is full of fire and poetic merit:

"E PLURIBUS UNUM."

The harp of the minstrel with melody rings,
When the muses have taught him to touch and to tune it;
But though it may have a full octave of strings,
To both maker and minstrel the harp is a unit.
So the power that creates
Our republic of States
Into harmony brings them at different dates;
And the thirteen or thirty, the Union once done,
Are "E Pluribus Unum"—of many made one.

The science that weighs, in her balance, the spheres,
And watched them since first the Chaldean began it,
Now and then, as she counts them and measures their years,
Brings into our system and names a new planet.
Yet the old and new stars—
Venus, Neptune and Mars,
As they drive round the sun their furrible cars,
Whether faster or slower their races they run,
Are "E Pluribus Unum"—of many made one.

Of that system of spheres, should but one fly the track
Or with others conspire for a general disperdon,
By the great central orb they would all be brot back,
And held, each in her place, by a wholesome coercion.
Should one daughter of light
Be indulged in her flight,
They would all be engulphed by old Chaos and Night;
So must none of our sisters be suffered to run,
For, "E Pluribus Unum"—we all go if one.

Let the demon of discord our melody mar,
Or treason's red hand rend our Union asunder,
Rink one string from our harp, or extinguish one star,
The whole system's ablaze with its lightning and thunder.
Let the discord be hushed!
Let the traitors be crushed,
Though "Legion" their name, all with victory flushed;
For aye must our stripes stand, fronting the sun;
"E Pluribus Unum"—Though many we're ONE.

☞ At the Paris Prefecture of Police a regular account is kept of all lost articles which have been deposited there by the finders. During the last twelve months, 38,000 articles of various value to 885,000 francs, or £35,400. In addition to this, within a single month, the following articles were deposited with the police: A gold bracelet with diamonds, deposited by a working house painter; 700 francs in bank notes by a female servant; portemonnaie, containing shares and 170 francs in money, by a coffee house waiter; a valuable gold watch, by a poor widow; a debenture for 500 francs, payable to bearer, by a boy fifteen years old: 2000 francs by a cab driver; 3500 francs, by a cabman; and a bracelet in gold and diamonds, valued at 15,000 francs by a cabman. These acts tell greatly in favor of the honesty of the humbler class of Parisians.

— A soft or green Quaker would be as great a curiosity as a dissipated Hebrew, but not so great a one after all as to find the woman who did not prefer the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap to any other the world can produce. Wife says it makes old clothes look as well as new, and a cross man the pleasantest and most lovely creature on the globe. Try it, and, our word for it, you will always patronize the Gold Medal Soap. 6

for the speedy cure of

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in a bilious derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, as all the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. No cure is it to cure Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One dealer says it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. au19

Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to deceive their customers, by selling cheap and worthless compounds,—in order to make money—in place of these. Do not deceive! If the druggists will not buy them for you, write to us, and we will send them to you by express, securely packed and free from observation. We treat all diseases to which the human system is subject, and will be pleased to receive full and explicit statements from those who have failed to receive relief heretofore. INTEMPERANCE AMONG CANADIAN PUBLIC MEN.—The Montreal Witness says the prevalence of intemperance among public men in Canada has long been notorious, but from the disagreeableness of exposing men's faults, it has seldom been noticed in the press. At last, however, the country appears to have waked up to the dreadful reality, and Upper Canada papers teem with severe articles on the subject. The Perth Herald, Stratford, says, with much more in the same strain:

"On many occasions, during the late session, the House presented more the appearance of a drunken brothel, than the Legislative Halls of a free and enlightened people. Ministers of the crown often came to their desk in a state of beastly drunkenness, and acted more the part of drunken sots of buffoons than confidential advisers of Her Majesty's representative. And, to their shame be it said, the drunken antics of these besotted ministers elicited applause. Has drunkenness, then, become a virtue, that men should glory in it?"

It is further charged that during the Fenian raid some of the ministers were too drunk at that critical moment to attend to important matters connected with the public defense.

TRUTH.—"Truth is mighty and will prevail." So will Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus over all others, notwithstanding so many in the trade are trying to imitate it and deceive the public with a spurious article.—Our advice is to use no other, try no other, call for no other, and be put off with no other, for we know there is no other as good. It takes less in quantity; it is far superior to soda to use with cream tartar; it is free from all deleterious substances; you can obtain much better Biscuits with it than with any other saleratus or with soda; we have. Try it, and speak from experience. 6

— Some of the Johnson men talk of carrying the Essex Congressional District, this fall. The McClellan men talked the same way two years ago, and the result was a most overwhelming defeat. They will be quite as much astonished in November.—Traveller.

— In Worcester, a few days ago, a man who gave his name as James Rice, and said he had just returned from the West, called at the door of Mrs. Josiah Brittan, on Lincoln street, and stated that about sixteen years ago he had worked for Mr. Brittan, and when he received his wages he took by mistake $11 too much. He wished to return the money, which he did.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1866.

MURDEROUS ATTACK ON A CAMP MEETING.—A Baltimore dispatch states that on Thursday night an attack was made on the colored portion of the camp meeting held at Shipley's Woods, three miles from Hanover Switch, on the Washington road, by a band of armed desperadoes. Several negroes were badly beaten and wounded. A white man named Milton Benson, while at prayer, was shot in the back of the head and mortally wounded, the ball coming out of his mouth.

A white camp meeting, attended by many ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church of North Baltimore District, was being held at the place stated. Rev. Messrs. Speake, Reed and others, white ministers, were officiating at the white meeting, near which, under the auspices of the same, some colored people were holding camp exercises.

During the afternoon a number of young men were noticed in camp having pistols. No disturbance occurred during the day, but about midnight, while the colored people were conducting religious exercises, they were violently set upon by a gang of men with loud epithets, and the attack commenced with beating a negro while on his knees. The negro at once rose up and a great excitement ensued,the women screaming in terror.

Shots were fired by the assailants, but the colored men rallied and drove them off two or three times, while the women fled toward the white camp.

Many colored people were wounded with clubs, and some flesh wounds from pistol shots. Some of the colored men had pistols and used them upon their assailants, but with what result it is not known.

Finally the conflict ended through the persuasion of the white ministers and others, and by the colored people leaving the grounds and seeking their homes, leaving the camp to the desperadoes, who further gratified their ruffianly spirit by piling the tents and effects of the negroes, including bundles and trunks, clothing &c., in a heap and setting fire to the pile, destroying all.

The white man shot, was at prayer at the altar in the white camp. The assailants used various rallying cries, among which was heard the expression, "How about New Orleans?"

Investigations are in progress by the local authorities, and the Freedman's Bureau officers are also inquiring into the matter.

SUIT AGAINST THE SECRETARY OF WAR. Early in the summer of 1863, William T. Smithson, a banker of Washington city, was arrested by order of the War Department, charged with being in correspondence with the enemy and dealing in Confederate currency. He was thrown into the Old Capitol Prison, his family ejected from his house, his furniture carried away and appropriated by the police officers of the War Department. Mr. Smithson was tried before a military commission in Baltimore, convicted and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment in the penitentiary at Albany, N. Y. After serving a year of his time in the penitentiary, he was pardoned out by President Lincoln. He has now instituted proceedings against Mr. Stanton, as stated above, for damages because of those alleged unlawful proceedings, laying his damages at $30,000.

On the commencement of these proceedings the matter was brought before the Cabinet and discussed, when the Attorney General was directed to appear and defend the Secretary of War. The defence will mainly rely upon the act of Congress indemnifying certain officers of the government for acts done in their official capacity for the suppression of the rebellion. The prosecution will contest the constitutionality of this law, and so raise an issue, upon which will depend hundreds of similar suits.

The government considers this a very important case, and will put forth every effort in Mr. Stanton's defence; and it has been considered that that defence can be better conducted with Mr. Stanton in his official position than otherwise. Hence his retention. The issue will be joined at the special term of the court commencing on the first Tuesday of September.

The Philadelphia North American says that the foremost men in attendance upon President Johnson during his visit in that city were the members of the Keystone Club, the extreme Democrats, the gentlemen who held their meetings during the last campaign in the building rendered detestable under the style of "Copperhead Hall." They dodged about the corridors, watched his incoming and outgoing, and strove to impress upon the naval and military gentlemen accompanying the President that they were the bulwarks of Mr. Johnson's interests in that city, and among its most important citizens.

Senator Craigin has sent us the Report of the Joint Committee of Reconstruction—1866—a valuable document for reference, as it has a full index.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Peterborough Transcript says the Cornet Band, of that town, gave a concert in a neighboring grove last Friday and had a "crowded house."

—— L. H. Dodge recently left at the office of the Littleton Gazette a blackberry bush, the growth of this season, which measured 11 feet 3 inches.

—— Officer J. W. Morey, of Boston, while in the railroad station at Manchester, Thursday of last week, caught a fellow who had picked a lady's pocket, in the act of throwing his booty under the car. He immediately arrested him, and in twenty minutes the thief was committed for trial. The pocket-book contained $358.

—— The Concord Statesman, habitually cautious and conservative, says:—

"There is no Johnson party in New Hampshire outside the Democratic camp," —and goes into the political contest opened by "the black treachery" of the executive, "in the utmost confidence that, with a proper amount of work, judiciously laid out upon the entire field, coupled with that high resolve now firing the Republican party, to battle to the end for a cause which enlists the christian sympathies of the American people, New Hampshire may be carried in March by 7000 Republican majority, and three Republican Congressmen with that majority divided amongst them."

SOME SPORT is made in the papers, over the odd gymnastics of some men in office, of others who desire earnestly to get in, and of the present appointing power. These movements are quite serious events to the parties interested,—but rather ludicrous to the mere looker on. The Concord Statesman makes merry over the queer doings about the Concord Post Office, under the head, "Begging for a Post Master,"—as follows:

Every one who takes an interest in the local affairs of this community is aware that just before the adjournment of Congress, Henry P. Rolfe, esq., of this city, was appointed postmaster, and promptly confirmed by the Senate. He received official notice of the appointment, and prepared and filed the customary bond, but down to-day the commission necessary to put him in possession of the position has not been received. It has, in railroad phrase, "failed to connect" itself with Mr. Rolfe's capacious pocket.—"There has been" a hitch in the appointing machinery. It is alleged that the appointment did not develop and stimulate as anticipated the Johnsonian sentiment in this community. We understand that the whip has been snapped over the appointee, and the inquiry pressed why he did not get up a Johnson party. The natural reply would be, that, after due search, only one recruit could be found, who served less than a day, and claimed an honorable discharge.

Whatever else may be true, it is a fact that a few members of the Copperhead party who seem to have the President's welfare in their keeping,have tendered the Concord post-office to any Republican who will go over to the bread and butter brigade, advocate the policy of treason, and support rebels and murderers for Congress. No one has been found to accept the office on these terms, and we apprehend that the search for one of Mr. Bowers' "conservative republicans" will be fruitless. It is seldom that good offices go begging, but we do not know of what is called a Johnson Republican in this region.

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS. — Governor Smith and Council made the following appointments on Friday: P. Brainard Cogswell of Concord, to be a Trustee of the state Library, vice Asa McFarland, resigned; Benjamin H. Corning of Northumberland, to be Sheriff of Coos county; Hon. Oliver Wyatt of Dover, to be a Trustee of the House of Reformation, vice R. N. Ross, resigned; Hon. Henry A. Bellows of Concord, and Capt. Winborn A. Sanborn of Gilford, Fish Commissioners; J. M. Thompson of the "Glen House," to be agent to expend appropriations for repair of mountain highways.

The annual salary of Rev. Nathaniel Bouton, D. D., Colonial Historian for the State, was fixed at $1100.

It was decided to have the 1st district encampment of State militia at Dover, October 4, 5, and 6, and the 2d district encampment at Manchester, October 1, 2, and 3. There will be no muster this season in the 3d district, as only three companies have yet been raised in that section.

— Marshall Phillips of East Taunton was run over by a train of cars on Thursday, at Taunton, cutting off one leg and breaking another. No one to blame but himself and the man that gave the liquor.—He was somewhat intoxicated, and trying to get on the car when in motion, went under, and died of his injuries in three hours after.

AGRICULTURAL FAIRS.

Rockingham County, at Exeter, Sept. 12th and 13th.

New Hampshire State Fair, at Nashua, Sept. 18th, 19th, and 20th.

Merimack County, at Concord, Sept. 25th, 26th and 27th.

The New England Fair, in connection with the Vermont State Fair, will be held at Brattleboro', Sept. 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th.

During the epidemic of intermittents in the West this season, the whole immense stock of Ayer's Ague Cure became exhausted, and the producing power of this Laboratory was found inadequate to meet the demand.—Many who knew its extraordinary virtues for the cure of CHILLS AND FEVER, paid exorbitant prices for it to those who were fortunate enough to have a supply on hand. Some of our neighbors paid ten dollars for a bottle, while the regular price is but one, and assure us it was on the whole the cheapest remedy they could buy, even at that figure. They praise it for two qualities: first, that it cures, and last that it leaves the health unimpaired. [Iowa Standard.

GEN. HOWARD.—The Boston Advertisers Washington correspondent of Aug. 31, says:

It seems to be the intention of the President to arrange the organization of the regular army even, in the interests of his policy. A few days ago, upon the earnest recommendations of Generals Thomas, Sherman and Grant, Mr. Johnson appointed Brigadier-General Charles Howard,a brother of Major-General Howard, major in one of the new cavalry regiments, and the appointment was duly announced. Brigadier-General Howard enlisted as a private, and serving with distinction throughout the war, rose to his present grade. He has been three times severely wounded and his whole record is a brilliant one. A certain Capt. Merriam of a Maine regiment, entirely unknown at the War Office, except that this name is borne on its rolls, wrote a letter to Mr. Johnson, that he heartily endorsed his policy, and asking for General Howard's place. The President at once wrote on the note, "Let Captain Merriam be appointed in place of General Howard," and Gen. H. was thus summarily removed. Many of Mr. Johnson's own friends are indignant at this outrage.

— The Dayton Journal announces that the name of Gen. George Crook was attached to the call for the Army Officers' Johnson Convention at Cleveland, without his knowledge or consent.

— Missouri advices agree that there is apprehension of violence in that State at the coming election. The distranchised rebels are organizing to take possession of the polls, and commit other outrages. Effective preparations are making to resist them.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

for the speedy cure of

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. Be sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One dealer says it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine very where. au29

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY!

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and invigorates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE! In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to pay a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., there is NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at three minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1848. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily supposed to dyeny attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing me every case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, Jr., Minister of the Gospel.

I was advised by a friend to try one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I said, I had tried several kinds of plasters without any benefit, and supposed they were all alike. ☞ A notice has appeared in two of the Boston daily papers the past week stating that the Charter Oak Life Insurance Co. of Hartford, Conn., had concluded to wind up their affairs. Messrs. John H. Harvey & Son, Agents for the above Company for Portsmouth and vicinity, wish to contradict the statement. The Company referred to is the Charter Oak Fire Insurance Co. of Hartford, not the life. The latter stands pre eminent to day and the prospects are that those already insured in this favorite Company will receive a 60 per cent. dividend next April.

☞ In common with his many friends, we are glad to learn that Conductor Philbrick, of the Eastern Railroad, has not been stricken by paralysis, as was reported. A straining, followed by severe cold, has confined him to his house, and caused the traveling public to wonder at the absence of one of the most punctual of conductors, but we were informed on Saturday that he was improving, and trust that his forced vacation from business may not be of long duration.

POLICE COURT, Sept. 1.—John Davis, who sought to avoid the waste of tissue in his corporeal system by frequently imbibing corn juice, was found on a pleasant day in an unpleasant state of intoxication upon Pleasant street. For this dereliction from the path of rectitude he was fined $3 and costs, $3.86.

☞ An advertised Reticule has come; where is the owner?

☞ On Friday morning, at Hingham, Mass., Rufus Hersey, who kept a small grocery store, committed suicide about 10 o'clock. Together with his business, he had sold lager beer. He called upon Mr. Chamberlain, an Attorney of the town, that morning, and said to him that he had been warned by the State constables not to sell, and asked his advice. He was advised not to sell. He seemed somewhat excited and said: "I have always borne an honorable character, have been a shipmaster for many years, and I do not wish at my age of life to bring any disgrace upon my family or friends. I am afraid they will trouble me." He went immediately home, took a pistol and blew his brains out, in order that he might not disgrace any body! It did not come into his mind, probably, that he might save all disgrace by turning his lager out of doors, or withdrawing it from sale.

☞ The delegates, to the Loyal South ern Convention in Philadelphia, are arriving, and a larger convention is coming together than was expected.

☞ On Friday night, in New York, Geo. H. Briggs, paying teller of the Nassau Bank, was arrested for robbing that bank of over one hundred thousand dollars, all of which he lost in gambling.

☞ A man arrested in Chelsea, Thursday, for being drunk, confessed in court to having taken twenty drinks of whiskey and twenty drinks of lager beer at different barrooms, on that day.

GOLD, Saturday, 145 3-4.

— It is estimated that the corn crop of Pennsylvania will reach, this year, nearly 30,000,000 bushels.

— A young man named Bellows died in Providence, on Thursday, of cholera, caused by eating a piece of mince pie at a camp meeting.

— The plague of locusts which has broken out in Algeria causes great uneasiness to the French government, and now the troops are called out to destroy this new species of enemy. The amount killed is immense.

— Like an unfaithful servant, Mr. Seward cannot get a character from the party he last served, and is therefore naturally very anxious for some kind of an endorsement before seeking retirement.

A CINCINNATI PARTY ROBBED AT NEW PORT, R. I., OF $100,000.—One of the most daring and heavy robberies that has taken place for some time in this country occurred at Newport, R. I., a few days since, in which a party of gentlemen from this city were the victims to the tune of $100,000 and upward. The gentlemen were in attendance at the Saratoga races, and were quite successful, pecuniarily. After the races were concluded they decided to visit Newport on a trip of pleasure and enjoy the sight-seeing of that fashionable watering place.

Soon after their arrival the party repaired to the beach, and resolved on bathing in the surf. "Suiting the action to the word," they robed themselves in the bathing apartments and plunged into the waves of the Atlantic. While they were thus enjoying themselves to their topmost bent a party of pickpockets who had doubtless followed them from Saratoga leaped over the partitions of the bathing rooms and were soon rifling the pockets of the clothing of their contents, and obtained for their industry nearly $100,000 in money, a check on one of the Cincinnati national banks for $20,000 and one for $3000, and a note of hand for $3,000, besides a diamond pin valued at $6,000, and several valuable watches, pins, &c.

When our party returned and dressed themselves their astonishment at the sudden "presto change" of fortune may be better imagined than described. No others besides the party themselves were to be seen, and of course no clue whatever was then to be obtained of the thieves, who were very quickly made rich by dexterous management.

Yesterday morning Chief of Police Ruffin received two large envelopes through the post office containing the pocket books, checks and notes and other papers of less value. These envelopes were postmarked "Boston," and beyond the address on the backs gaxe no clue whatever by which the thieves could be identified. The thieves seem to be content with their haul of greenbacks, diamond pins, watches, &c., and concluded to be generous and return the checks, notes and private papers. It is exceedingly doubtful if ever the money and jewelry will be recovered.—Cincinnati Enquirer, 17.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Mothpatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of fair complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. Dr. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a speciality has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

The HOUSE and LAND on Freeman's Point, owned by Mr. MOSES WHEEREN, is offered for sale. The House is a well-built two-story dwelling, 18 by 36 feet, with an L 17 by 12 feet. It contains 8 rooms, conveniently arranged. The situation is one of the finest around the city, rivalling in its extent and variety of prospect the celebrated view from "Lincoln Hill." PORTSMOUTH GYMNASIUM.—The proprietors of this much needed institution have been obliged to close it on account of so large an increase of rent that they cannot sustain it without considerable personal expense. There are quite a number in our community who fully appreciate the delightful exercises of the Gymnasium; and of these not a few attribute to gymnastics a great degree of that enjoyment of health and vigor which contribute the largest share to human happiness. It is a pity that such an institution should be obliged to fall. It can be restored if on the one hand the rent is made more reasonable, and, on the other, all who are desirous to have such an institution flourish will unite in sustaining it. If those interested will leave their names at Mr. J. H. Foster's store, something may be accomplished.

THE REPUBLICAN ALLIANCE OF EUROPE.

Among the Poles, Italians and Hungarians, there is a seed planted, and nurtured by such men as Garibaldi, Mazzini, Langerwicz, Deakewicz, Prince Sopecha, and the like, who are exerting an influence which puts in peril the monarchical administrations, and gives encouragement that the Republican principles will eventually predominate throughout the leading powers of Europe.

It will be seen by the following letter which lies before us, in the handwriting of Gen. Mazzini, that the Republican Alliance is in active operation, and that they have made selection of Col. Julian Allen, of New York, (well known in this city,) to act as agent in this country. They could not have made selection of one more devoted, or better adapted to the service. The headquarters of the Alliance is held both in London and Paris.

TO COL. JULIAN ALLEN, NEW YORK.

Dear Sir,—You are a Pole by birth, and the United States is your second adopted country. You represent in yourself the double religion of European Nationality and Republican principles. You are active, energetic. May I claim your activity and energy in favor of a scheme of alliances which, if carried on to a powerful practical realisation, may be productive of important consequences for both Nationality and Republican triumph? May I reckon upon you—if you can reckon on us?

We have written our ideas concerning the Alliance, to be taken to the New York and Boston committees. In connection as you are with many of the members, you will easily get communications of them. Second, promote them as far as you can: besides the material requested.

The development of the Alliance in the U. S. will produce a revival of Republican life in Europe.

With esteem and all friendly feelings,
Yours, JOSEPH MAZZINI.

THE STATE FAIR AT NASHUA.

Preparations for the Twelfth Annual Fair of the New Hampshire State Agricultural Society, to be held in the city of Nashua on the 18th, 19th and 20th of September, are progressing rapidly under the direction of the Citizens' Committee of Arrangements. As the Directors of the Society did not deem it advisable to hold any exhibition during the war, they are especially desirous that the present display, the first since the exhibition at Manchester in 1860, shall be fully equal to any Fair ever held in the State. To attain this result the officers of the Society, who are heartily seconded by the General Committee of Arrangements at Nashua, are not sparing expense or pains in their preparations. Purposing to provide every facility for the convenience and comfort of exhibitors and visitors, they are confident that the Farmers and Mechanics of New Hampshire will present such an exhibit of their industry and skill as will be creditable to themselves and an honor to our State.

THE GROUNDS.—The exhibition will be given on the grounds and trotting park of the Mechanical Association, located less than a mile westward from the City Hall, and admirably adapted to the purpose. The officers of the State Society visited these grounds on the 22d inst., and were so highly pleased with their location and facilities, that they pronounced them unsurpassed by any on which the Fairs of the Society have been held. The enclosure embraces thirty acres, surrounded by a close board fence, ten feet high.

THE PARK.—The trotting course, a half-mile track, has been graded anew, and now presents a level and beautiful surface of "hard pan," which cannot fail to evoke the highest possible speed. The amphitheatre of seats will be arranged to accommodate two thousand persons. Equally excellent accommodations for stock have been provided, the pens ranging along the north and east sides of the field.

MAMMOTH TENT.—On the elevated ground in the inclosure the "Mammoth Tent," from the warehouse of Messrs. Baker & Prime, Boston, will be erected, to be used for the display of the products of the farm and shop, domestic and fancy work, fruit, flowers, vegetables, &c. The capacity of this tent is unequalled in this country. When pitched it covers an area 200 by 80 feet, or 16,000 feet, and presents an imposing spectacle.

RARE ATTRACTIONS.—A unique feature of the exhibition will be a pond, artificial pond, located on the northwest portion of the grounds, for the display of the domesticated stock of the poet-farmer of Manchester, Wm. Stark, Esq., who has consented to exhibit his entire collection, comprising the largest and rarest private collection in the country, among the birds and the beasts which Mr. Stark will exhibit are several American elk, red, fallow and American deer; cashmere, Assyrian and other breeds of goats; seven varieties of pheasants, twelve of ducks, ten of geese, and two of swans, besides many varieties of pigeons, rabbits, guans, cassowns, &c., and one of the famous sacred white Brahma cows, an object of singular oriental superstition.

ANNUAL ADDRESS.—Dr. George B. Loring, well known to the people of New England as a graceful orator and a high authority in the field of agriculture, has accepted an invitation to deliver the annual address. Several of the New England Governors, with their respective staffs, and Hon. John Minor Botts, of Virginia, who delivered the annual address of one of the early exhibitions of the Society, are expected to be present at the Fair as guests of its managers.

THE PROSPECT.—The indications are now promising for one of the most successful exhibitions ever held by the Society. Not only will the resources and skill of New Hampshire be fully represented, but it is expected that Northern Massachusetts will stoutly compete for the honors of the Society. Diplomas and medals will be awarded to the successful competitors, resident within or without the State, but money premiums will be paid to New Hampshire exhibitors only.

HALF FARE AND FREE TRANSPORTATION.—All the railroads in this State, and the Worcester and Lowell roads, will carry visitors to the exhibition for fare one way, and all stock and articles intended for exhibition will be transported free.

WHOM TO ADDRESS.—Communications for information or in reference to business connected with the Fair may be addressed to the Secretary at Portsmouth, Aaron Young, Esq.; or to Col. H. F. Morrill, Supt. of Grounds, at Nashua.

The Cherokee "Cure," "Remedy," and "Injection" are to be found in all well regulated drug stores, and are recommended by physicians and druggists all over the world, for their intrinsic worth and merit. Some unprincipled dealers, however, try to deceive their customers, by selling cheap and worthless compounds,—in order to make money—in place of these. Be not deceived. If the druggists will not buy them for you, write to us, and we will send them to you by express, securely packed and free from observation. We treat all diseases to which the human system is subject, and will be pleased to receive full and explicit statements from those who have failed to receive relief heretofore. Ladies or gentlemen can address us in perfect confidence. We desire to send our thirty-two page pamphlet free to every lady and gentleman in the land. Address all letters for pamphlets, medicines, or advice, to the sole proprietor,

A RECORD OF RUIN.—The gambling house reporter of a New York paper gives a faro record thus: "A well known newspaper publisher and politician has lost over a quarter of a million of dollars. A paymaster in the army was a defaulter $42,000, lost in the same way. A well known Californian has lost about $60,000. A well known citizen of Jersey city, doing a large manufacturing business, was completely ruined, within a short time, at the faro table. A young man, keeping books in Williamsburg, became a defaulter of $12,000 He was the only support of an aged mother, and was obliged to flee his home. A man, for over twenty years in the employ of an express company, and having the unbounded confidence of his employers, took to gambling, and in an evil moment, to get money to play with, robbed his employers, was detected, and sent to the State Prison for a term of years. A young man came into possession, on the 12th day of May last, of $56,000, and to-day he has not got a dollar, having lost it all at the gaming table."

PRESIDENT JUAREZ OF MEXICO.—The New Orleans Commercial says of this noted personage in Mexican affairs:

President Juarez has had to contend with two of the most powerful nations in Europe. He has led a divided people, and a feeble and ill-appointed army. He has had no legislative aid, no power to collect taxes, and no revenue system. The natural defences of his country have constituted his armory, and the hostility of his people to the invader the sole military chest from which he could draw his resources. He has been like Bruce, or Tell, or Sobieski, a fugitive in his own land, striving to keep the fire of freedom and resistance from expiring.

THE GOLD RING AGAIN.—The Traveller says:—

The New York speculators are easing the price of gold, in anticipation of the dividends which will soon be paid by the government, and which they are prepared to absorb at as low rates as possible. Even though gold was easier Thursday than it was Wednesday, yet parties who require cash are compelled to pay one-eighth of one per cent. per day for the loan of it.

Those who require it with which to pay duties, are buying it in small sums, because if they were to purchase according to their requirements the bulls, or those who are in with the New York "ring," would rush the price up to 150. Importers of foreign merchandise are well aware of the tricks of speculators, and buy, from different parties, small sums at a time.

The stock market is still the centre of attraction even with gold speculators, who are using their means to make fortunes at the expense of the foolish, who are dabbling in fancy stocks. Not more than fifty thousand dollars in gold changed hands among speculators Thursday forenoon, but the amount in stocks was very large.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1866.

☞ A pro-slavery sheet which speaks the sentiments of its party more truly than any other copperhead sheet in the State, lets the cat out of the bag in this fashion:

"Its Platform and Address to the country are better than we dared to anticipate, in view of the composition of the convention. True, in some respects, they are not up to the well-known standard of true Democratic principles. But they contain so many good points and positions that we accept them for the present as the best embodiment we can get of any practical value, in bringing about the one paramount object of replacing the Southern States in Congress. This is the prominent feature of the Platform, as it was the one grand object of the Convention."

[A very great object, indeed to increase and perpetuate an unequal, unfair representation,—by which the combined rebels and traitors may enrich themselves—and rule over the men who have just defeated them in arms! The people in New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine do not agree to it.]

DIGNITY.—An exchange says President Johnson is progressing in the use of strong language full as fast as he progresses toward the end of his pilgrimage. He commenced at Philadelphia by talking about the "tyrant's rod," and had got on so finely that when he reached Albany he could denounce those who differ from him as the "foul whelps of sin," and the press who do not support him as "a mercenary and subsidized press." The telegraph fails to give us some of the incidents which happened on President Johnson's tour. The following are among the omitted ones:

"While the President was speaking from the window of the Delavan House at Albany, he inquired 'To whom have I proved a traitor?' when an Irishman replied, 'To Gen. Sweeney and the Faynians.' He continued. 'I have held every office in the gift of the people, what more can I desire?' when a fellow sung out, 'Another term.'"

THE BOSTON MUSIC SCHOOL commences the first Monday in October next. This institution was founded in 1857, and is yearly gaining in strength and growing in public favor and artistic estimation. Prof. B. F. Baker, one of the best conductors of a choir or chorus, is at the head of the Corporation,—having numerous able assistants; and nowhere in the country are such advantages offered for procuring a musical education,—vocal or instrumental, partial or thorough. We commend the Boston Music School to all interested.

AN INCENDIARY FIRE and consequent explosions at Watertown, Mass., about daylight Sunday morning, destroyed three buildings connected with the Arsenal, much ammunition, valuable timber, many cannon, and 30 tons saltpetre. The grand explosion of this saltpetre blew the building where it was stored to fragments; and the shock was felt for many miles around. No person was known to be killed, only one or two injured, and they not dangerously hurt.

AT FORTRESS MONROE, on Friday morning, a nephew of the rebel Gen. Wise arrived from Richmond, with an order from Major General Schofield, commanding that Department, authorizing him to recover all property that could be found in that Department belonging to Wise, now being used by the officers of the government. Quite a large amount of furniture and other household goods were found, and their possessors despoiled of them in a hasty and rather unceremonious manner. The goods were stored preparatory to being turned over to ex-Gov. Wise.—On Friday evening, J. R. Davis, a nephew of Jeff. Davis, arrived, and permission being obtained, he visited his uncle.

HANNIBAL HAMLIN has resigned his office as Collector of Customs at Boston, because he cannot and will not sustain the wretched policy of his unworthy successor in the Vice Presidency. His letter of resignation will command attention.

☞ On Monday, at Philadelphia, Gov. Smyth was chosen temporary Chairman of the New Hampshire delegation. A much larger assembly comes together than was expected. The delaware delegation marched one thousand strong by Independence Hall. Flags are flying all over the city.

☞ The Commonwealth aptly says, in speaking of the ex-rebel press and leaders, since the great wigwam convention—"They despise the convention and its doctrines, but will accept its fruits as their gain."

☞ It was reported at Niagara Falls, 1st, that a deputation from the Southern States were on their way to meet President Johnson to induce him to extend his trip South.

— A gentleman just from the Red River country in Texas says that murders of freedmen are of daily occurrence, and that no efforts are made even to arrest the murderers. The condition of society in that section, he says, is terrible, and represents it as growing worse instead of better.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The General Association of Presbyterian and Orthodox Congregational Ministers in New Hampshire enjoyed a three day's session at Dover, last week, which included their missionary, education, and sabbath school operations. In the education meeting, Rev. Dr. Tarbox, of Boston, said New Hampshire had more men pursuing a course of education in comparison with her population than any other State. Rev. D. J. Noyes, D. D., Professor in Dartmouth College, spoke upon the subject "What means should be used to instruct youth in christian doctrines? Should the catechism be more used or bible lessons?" He said the catechism helps in instructing in the doctrines of the bible. It presents a clear, exact and concise statement of the things to be learned. It is the same mode used in institutions of learning. Rules are clearly stated and they are harder than rules in arithmetic, grammar, &c.

Rev. R. M. Sargent of Farmington gave explanation of the origin of the questions, and said he wished the Congregational Council had opened means for preparing a catechism adapted to the present time. He probably does not know that no new catechism could have been agreed upon by that body. Rev. S. Thurston, D. D., of Maine, said he wished a few statements could be modified, but the neglect of the catechism was connected with infidelity.

The reporter says there was a long discussion upon matters pertaining to an organ of communication among the churches of the State, which it would not be wise to publish. [They have a very useful organ of that kind, now, the Reporter, published monthly. They should make the most of it, and every able family among them should have it.]

☞ The Convention of Southern Union men (not ex-rebels) is in session in Philadelphia, because such a convention could not be safely held in a Southern State! The Boston Advertiser's Philadelphia correspondence of Sunday reverts to the Wigwam convention, to the first shot, and the Sunday drinking and carousing and then says:—

To-morrow another convention meets here, and one cannot help contrasting this Sunday with that other one. The city is crowded with delegates and their friends. The great hotel is so nearly full that some scores of cots are already spread in its parlors, although many of the delegates have been received as guests into private houses. The most perfect quiet and order prevails everywhere. The great majority of the Southern gentlemen attended church this morning, and a great social religious meeting of delegates is being held this evening, at which Senator Harris presides, and Rev. Dr. Newman of New Orleans and others are speakers. The bars and saloons have had a dull time, but a well attended temperance meeting was held in Independence square this afternoon, at which one or two delegates made brief speeches. Surely the promise of the week is favorable.

Among the numerous arrivals to-night are Chief Justice Chase, Governor Ward of New Jersey, Governor Hawley and the Connecticut delegation, Governor Burnside and three or four gentlemen from Rhode Island, Senator Fogg, Governor Smyth, and several other delegates from New Hampshire, Senator Wilson, B. F. Butler, Wm. Whiting, Frank Bird, Wm. B. Claflin of Massachusetts, Ex-Mayor and Ex-Postmaster Lincoln of Brooklyn, &c. The New York delegation is expected in the morning. Much enthusiasm prevails.

— Gov. Jenkins of Georgia, now at New York, had the credit of his State so good that he disposed of $500,000 of Georgia State bonds at 90 cents on the dollar.

— The old Atlantic Cable, broken and lost last year, was found on Sunday morning by the Cable Fleet, picked up and spliced,—and the Great Eastern begun to pay out.

— The tour of the Hawaiian Queen through the United States has suddenly terminated by the intelligence of the death of her mother, and her departure for the Sandwich Islands will be immediate.

— A fire occurred at the residence of Wm. H. Boyd, in Burlington, Vt., on Tuesday, caused by a youngster applying a lighted match to a load of hay standing in Mr. Boyd's yard, and the high wind prevailing at the time spreading the fire to the house and barn of Mr. B., both of which were consumed. The premises were insured for $1000.

— It is stated that a company of English capitalists, with a capital of two millions, are about to start in Charleston, S. C., an enormous cotton factory establishment for supplying European trade. They are backed by the wealthiest firms in England and France. Several other enterprises are under consideration, which, if successful, will speedily render Charleston the leading city of the South.

— A Soldiers' Convention of the 8th Congressional District of Indiana, held at Lebanon on the 28th, which was called in the interest of the President and Butternuts was an immense affair, but the joke of it is that the character of the meeting was changed by those present, and it turned out entirely radical. Speeches were made and resolutions passed of the most uncomfortable hostility to A. Johnson and copperheadism.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

PORTLAND, Aug. 31st, 1866.

Messrs. Editors:—No less than six hundred and forty buildings are now in process of erection upon the burnt district in this city; in dimensions from a cider stand to a six story block. Most of the buildings now going up, however, are cheap wooden affairs, that will afford but indifferent protection from the trenchant attacks of the grand potential army of General Jack Frost.

Artizans of all kinds find ready employment, although at no higher prices than are paid in most other cities:—masons from $3 to $3.50 a day; carpenters and joiners $2 to $3.00; painters and slaters about $3.00; laborers $1.50 to $2.00. There has been an immense rush of mechanics and laborers to this ill-fated city since the conflagration; and thousands have returned as they came,—for the reason that they were speedily undeceived of their "great expectations" as to receiving enormous wages for their services; as indeed is generally the case with regard to all such exciting reports about "tremendous pay and work as you may." Mechanics have to pay here from $6.00 to 7.00 per week for board, with very poor accommodations.

The prodigious piles of lumber, bricks and other building materials, occupying every foot of available space along the entire length of Commercial street and the adjacent wharves, is a sight well worth beholding. 13,500,000 feet of lumber and upwards of 5,000,000 bricks have been received in Portland since the fire. Surveyors of lumber are profitably busy,—easily netting their $10 per day.

The principal newspapers have their offices in what they have styled "Printers Exchange," a neat two story wooden structure on Commercial street, a few rods from the Western depot. If the independent Transcript (prosperity to its enterprising publishers!) can maintain the standard of fraternal feeling between the straight Republican Press on the one side, and the Democratic Johnsonian Argus on the other, it will surely merit the beatitude pronounced in favor of the peacemakers.

Barnum, at his model eating house in the Grand Trunk depot, is determined to disabuse his patrons of any notions they may have entertained concerning even remote relationship to his humbugging Bridgeport namesake; and no one who partakes of any dish of his is led to enquire, "What is it?"

SAUL.

☞ In general contrast with the like class from foreign countries, our American city population shows how much may be lost by neglect of a proper physical education, while our beautiful but fragile women fade at the age when an Englishwoman is just reaching her prime. To remedy this defect in our way of living has been a subject of study to a large number of reflective minds. Probably no one man has done so much toward this reform as Dr. Dio Lewis, who has made gymnastics his life study. The gymnasium proper has long been conceded its proper worth, but it failed to meet the requirements of the great mass of the community and so failed of its greatest good.

The "Musical Gymnastics," from their adaptation to the wants of both sexes, their great variety, and the social intercourse attending their practice, have met with a corresponding degree of favor wherever introduced and proved most beneficial in their results.

The tenth year of the Normal Institute of Physical Education will conclude on the 18th inst., with an exhibition at Tremont Temple, Boston, by about forty ladies and gentlemen of the graduating class, offering a rare opportunity to witness the elasticity of body and firmness of nerve to be acquired by a course of the new Gymnastics.

AT PHILADELPHIA, on Friday evening, a grand reception was given at the Union League Club to T. J. Durant of New Orleans, Governor Hamilton of Texas and Governor Brownlow. The principal speech was made by Mr Durant, who gave a graphic account of the late riots in New Orleans, and said the unfortunate men whose circumstances permitted them are now flying from their homes in the South to seek refuge and hospitalities here in the North. How long is this to continue?—How long is it before the loyal people of the Union will give loyal men in the South a government where opinion is free, and where every man shall have the right to express his sentiments in vote and in words? where he shall have the respect and privilege of communicating in every respectful way what he thinks and what he has to say?

Do you not know that now liberty of speech and liberty of the press is dead in New Orleans, and that American citizens were slaughtered in the streets of New Orleans under the American flag without provocation? Unless you sustain the principles of universal suffrage there can be no peace in this country.

Governor Hamilton declined making a speech, but advised the people to prepare their hearts and their arms for another conflict.

— Nature is the high priest, the noblest decorator, the holiest poet, and most inspired musician of God.

BE TRUE TO YOUR TEETH, and they will be true to you. Never will you need false ones, if you use the Sozodont, morning and evening. It imparts indestructibility to the enamel, keeps it white and spotless, and wonderfully improves the Breath. 42

—A household without the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap always on hand is like a garden without flowers, or a family without children. We pity each and all alike, but have no sympathy with the family who does not enjoy the luxury of nice, clean, white clothes, provided this celebrated and more than excellent soap can be obtained, for these luxuries can only be enjoyed by its use; so do not cease trying until you obtain it. 7

☞ Orange W. Judd & Co., New York city, have just published a neat volume of 168 pages, fully illustrated, entitled, Peat and its Uses, as Fertilizer and Fuel. By Samuel W. Johnson, A. M. Professor of Analytical and Agricultural Chemistry, Yale College. The title nicely expresses the subject of the book, and it is handled with much ability. The book is to be had in Portsmouth, at Mr. Shores' Bookstore.

SOLDIER'S CLAIMS.—A Washington letter of Aug. 31, states that the various bureaus charged with the settlement of soldiers' claims are daily receiving numerous letters from soldiers, complaining of delay in the settlement of their claims against the goverment. Those entitled to the bounties granted by Congress are especially indignant at the unnecessary postponment of this payment, and often express their dissatisfaction in terms more forcible than elegant. The soldiers, with hardly an exception, blame the Treasury for not executing the law of Congress, rewarding them for their gallant services during the war. The Treasury Department has taken no action whatever in regard to this matter, and it looks as if the question of bounties is destined to drag along until Congress takes it in hand again next session. The report of General Canby's board upon the subject is still locked up at the White House, and it is a question whether it will ever find its way into print.

WHOLESALE MURDER IN NEW ZEALAND.—A late arrival at Panama from New Zealand brings intelligence that some dreadful murders had taken place in Middle Islands, perpetrated by a gang of miscreants familiar with the prisons of Australia, and who have more recently been infesting the West Coast gold fields and systematically murdering the diggers for their money. The party went to Nelson and visited the Wakamarina district. Four men soon disappeared from the district, and the gang were apprehended. One of them disclosed the whole proceedings of the party, and confessed that they had murdered between thirty and forty persons, one of them a woman.

— By a curious mistake at Washington several thousands of Judge Kelley's address on suffrage were sent from the office of the Public Printer to the Bread-and-Butter Club rooms, instead of a batch of Doolittle's, and were sent out to the copperheads of Pennsylvania, under the frank of Senator Cowan.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

for the speedy cure of

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the miasma of miasmatic countries,

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "POISON" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One dealer says it is not a great medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. au29

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY;

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS FLUIDS is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re-animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in the Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE: In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to bear a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Chills, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1848. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, change of diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the trunk, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, Jr., Minister of the Gospel.

CAMPING OUT has grown more and more in favor of late years, and this season the tents of various parties have been pitched at Odiorn's Point, on Gerrish's Island and at the Shoals. The freedom and healthfulness of this method of summer recreation renders it especially fascinating to young men, while even boys of larger growth and ladies are not always able to resist its charms. A party from this vicinity enjoyed camp life for nearly a fortnight at Epping, thus acting as a vanguard to the great Hedding Camp Meeting.

☞ Geo. C. Gilmore, Esq., a well known citizen of Manchester, has accepted the position of Agent of the Rockingham Mills, in this city. These mills now manufacture elastic fabric of all kinds. The Manchester Mirror says:

He takes this position at Portsmouth in preference to a similar one at Philadelphia,—mention of which has been heretofore made in the papers. He has the good wishes of a host of friends for success in his new enterprise.

☞ The Station Agent at New Market Junction informs us that on Sunday afternoon, about five o'clock, two Irishmen, one a section-hand, named Halliban, on the C. & P. R. Mr. Halliban was a much respected citizen, and leaves a dependent family of seven persons.

The bodies had not been recovered when the down train passed, on Monday morning.

☞ A party of gentlemen in this city, owning a peat meadow in South Hampton, are now testing the various methods of preparing the same for market, with a view of retaining the best in permanent use.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN GERRISH.—Capt. George A. Gerrish, formerly commander of the First New Hampshire Battery, who was severely wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, while acting as Chief of Artillery of the First Division of the Army, died on Saturday at his residence in Chelsea, Mass., from the effects of his wound. His funeral took place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the Universalist church, under the charge of the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a member.

A HINT TO TOUCHY PEOPLE.—"I learned a good lesson when I was a little girl," said a lady. "One frosty morning I was looking out of the window into my father's farm yard, where stood many cows, oxen, and horses, waiting to drink.—The cattle all stood very still and meek, till one of the cows, in attempting to turn round, happened to hit her next neighbor, whereupon the neighbor kicked and hit another. In five minutes the whole herd were kicking each other with great fury. My mother laughed, and said:

"See what comes of kicking when you are hit.'

'Just so, I have seen one cross word set a whole family by the ears, on a frosty morning. Afterwards, if my brothers or myself were a little irritable, she would say:

"Take care, my children; remember how the fight in the farm-yard began. Never return a kick for a bit, and you will save yourselves a great deal of trouble."

GOLD, Monday, 145 1-2.

THE FIRST DAY AT SCHOOL.

The dew glints in the meadow,
The sun smiles through the tree,
The blue-bird and the robin
Ne'er sang so cheerily!
Within her eyes joy sparkles,
She laughs 'tween teeth of pearl;
No birdie's hail so happy
As my sweet little girl!

Across the floor she capers
Just like a pretty lamb,
Her arms she gaily tosses,
And shouts "how glad I am!"
The heavens look down in love-light,
And earth is joyful!
While fairies of fruition
Dance through my darling's heart!

The first day in the school-room!
Life's seed sprightings and grows;
From tender care maternal
The guileless child outgoes.
O, Father! guide my darling
Through time's unstable school,
That she may e'er inculcate
The sacred Golden Rule!

A BEAUTIFUL SENTIMENT.

"If men were wise in little things,
Affecting love in all their dealings,
If hearts had fewer rusted strings
To isolate their kindly feelings;
If men, when wrong beats down the right,
Would strike together and restore it—
If right made might
In every fight,
The world would be the better for it."

ONE OF GOUGH'S STORIES.—At a political meeting the speaker and audience were very much disturbed by a man who constantly called for Mr. Henry. Whenever a new speaker came on, this man bawled out, "Mr. Henry! Henry! Henry! I call for Mr. Henry!"

After several interruptions of this kind at each speech, a young man ascending the platform, and was airing his eloquence in a magniloquent style, striking out powerfully in his gestures, when the old cry was heard for Mr. Henry.

Putting his hand to his mouth like a speaking trumpet, this man bawled out at the top of his voice, "Mr. Henry! Henry! Henry! I call for Mr. Henry to make a speech!"

The chairman now rose, and remarked that it would oblige the audience if the gentleman would refrain from any further calling for Mr. Henry, as that gentleman was now speaking.

"Is that Mr. Henry?" said the disturber of the meeting. "Thunder! that can't be Mr. Henry! Why, that's the little cuss that told me to holler!"

Mr. Gough adds that, in telling this story to a man who could never be made to see the "point" of the joke, after studying for some minutes the man asked him: "Well, Mr. Gough, what did he tell him to 'holler' for?"

— One exceedingly warm day in July a neighbor met old Joe, H. and remarked that it was very hot, "Yes," says Joe, "If it wasn't for one thing, I should say we were going to have a thaw." "What is that?" inquired his friend. "There's nothing froze," says Joe. The man went his way much enlightened.

THE NEW ORLEANS RIOT.

OFFICIAL DISPATCHES.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 8—12 M.

His Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States:

I have the honor to make the following rep'y to your despatch of Aug. 6: A very large number of the colored people marched in procession on Friday night, July 27, and were addressed from the steps of the City Hall by Dr. Dostie, Ex-Gov. Hahn and others. The speech of Dostie was intemperate in language and sentiment. The speeches of the others, so far as I can learn, were characterized by moderation.

About 1 P. M. a procession, say from sixty to one hundred and thirty colored men, marched up Burgundy street and across Canal street toward the Convention, carrying an American flag. These men had about one pistol to every ten men, and canes and clubs in addition. While crossing Canal street a row occurred. There were many spectators on the street, and their manner and tone toward the procession unfriendly.

The procession entered the Institution with the flag, about six or eight remaining outside; a row occurred between a policeman and one of these colored men, and a shot was fired by one of the parties, which led to an indiscriminate fire on the building through the windows by the policemen. This had been going on for a short time, when a white flag was displayed from the window of the Institute, whereupon the firing ceased and the police rushed into the building. * *

From the testimony of wounded men and others who were inside the building, the policemen opened an indiscriminate fire upon the audience until they emptied their revolvers, when they retired, and those inside barricaded the doors.

The door was broken in and the firing again commenced, when many of the colored and white people either escaped through the door, or were passed out by the policemen inside, but as they came out the policemen who formed the circle nearest the building fired upon them, and they were again fired upon by the citizens that formed the outer circle. Many of those wounded and taken prisoners, and others who were prisoners and not wounded, were fired upon by their captors and by citizens.

The wounded were stabbed while lying on the ground and their heads beaten with brickbats. In the yard of the building, within sight of the colored men had escaped and partially secreted themselves, were fired upon and killed or wounded by policemen. Some men were killed and wounded several squares from the scene. Members of the Convention were wounded by the policemen while in their hands as prisoners—some of them mortally.

The immediate cause of this terrible affair was the assembling of the Convention. The remote cause, the bitter and antagonistic feeling which has been growing in this community since the advent of the present Mayor, who, in the organization of his police force, selected many desperate men, and some of them known murderers. People of clear views were overawed by want of confidence in the Mayor and fear of the Thugs, many of whom he had selected for his police force.

I have frequently been applied to by prominent citizens on this subject, and have heard them express fear and want of confidence in Mayor Monroe ever since the intimation of this last Convention. I must condemn the course of several of the city papers for supporting by their articles the bitter feeling of bad men. As to the merciless manner in which the Convention was broken up, I feel obliged to confess strong repugnance.

It is useless to attempt to disguise the hostility that exists on the part of a great many here towards Northern men, and this unfortunate affair has so precipitated matters that there is now a test of what shall be the status of Northern men; whether they can live here without being in constant dread or not; whether they can be protected in life and property, and have justice in the courts.

If this matter is permitted to pass over without a thorough and determined prosecution of those engaged in it, we may look out for frequent scenes of the same kind, not only here, but in other places. No steps have as yet been taken by the civil authorities to arrest citizens who were engaged in this massacre, or policemen who perpetrated such cruelties.

The members of the Convention have been indicted by the grand jury, and many of them arrested and held to bail. As to whether the civil authorities can meet out ample justice to the guilty parties on both sides, I cannot say it is my opinion unequivocally that they cannot.

Judge Abel, who course I have closely watched for nearly a year, I now consider one of the most dangerous men that we have here to the peace and quiet of the city.

The leading men of the Convention, King, Cutler, Hahn, and others, have been political agitators, and are bad men. I regret to say that the course of Gov. Wells has been vacillating, and that during the late trouble he has shown very little of the man. P. H. SHERIDAN,

Major General Commanding.

STORY OF SHIPWRECK AND MURDER.—Joseph McVane of Bothwell, Prince Edward Island, furnishes the Charlottetown Examiner of Aug. 17th with a strange narrative of the fate of two British Scotch vessels and their crews. The name of only one vessel is known, the Sirocco, Sterling master. The two vessels having left the Bay of Islands met with a violent gale of wind from the northwest, and being close on the coast, were unable to work off. The latter vessel drove and her crew must create a shudder in the recital, which is only equalled by similar cases in the barbarous East. Scarcely had the vessel touched the shore, when the French inhabitants set upon the crew, and cruelly murdered them in cold blood, and set fire to their splendid vessel.

The intention, evidently, was to share the booty thus obtained amongst them, and keep the matter a secret; but, disagreeing among themselves, they afterwards told the dreadful tale. It is asserted that they did not appear to have any compunctions about the matter, but spoke as if it were a matter of no consequence whatever. They gave a graphic description of the difficulty they had in despatching one of the men, whom they described as being a most powerful and active member of the unfortunate crew.

The other vessel met with a kindlier fate—she having struck on a rock and capsized—none of the crew reaching the shore alive. The locality was Cape St. George, on the Western coast of Newfoundland.

The papers there call for an investigation.

THE FEELING IN MAINE.—A gentleman who has recently travelled extensively in Maine, states that the people in Massachusetts have no idea of the intensity of repugnance which there is among the people of the Pine Tree State to the "My Policy" party and its platform. He says they talk right out strong against it, and what is more, that they will make their votes speak louder than their words on election day. New England will be found to be an uncongenial soil for the "My Policy" plant—and Maine will lead the van in uprooting such feeble shoots as may succeed in getting a temporary footing.—Boston Journal.

SOUTH BERWICK.—Hon. A. G. Jewett, Mayor of Belfast, addressed the people Saturday evening. He calmly and ably reviewed the course of Mr. Johnson, both before and since his accession to the Presidency, and showed clearly that he and not Congress now the legal people had changed. While the speaker denounced the President he was in no wise discourteous. It is a fact that which Mr. Johnson's most decisive condemnation.

CORRECTIONS.—The Biddeford Union has the following statement:

We are satisfied that an article in last week's paper did injustice to a worthy man—we refer to John H. Burleigh, Esq., of South Berwick. Mr. B. was appointed a delegate to Johnson's Convention at Philadelphia, and then the copperheads had the presumption to nominate him without his knowledge or consent as their candidate for senator in this county, which dishonorable position he absolutely refused by letter to accept; and as the Capt. himself says, "before he would vote with a party that opposed the war to put down the Rebellion, he would cut his right hand off." Capt. H. Burbank of Limerick was also appointed a delegate without his knowledge or consent. Capt. Burbank is as much of a supporter of the treacherous Andrew Johnson as we are, and not a whit more, and has no more of an idea of following Johnson and the copperheads into the rebel camp, than he has of going back to Andersonville and Libby prisons, where the southern wing of the Democratic party attempted to starve him and others, because they were soldiers in the army of the Union. He is at work with all his wonted vigor and energy for the success of the Republican cause.

— Charles Kean recently testified before a committee of Parliament that the audiences at the theatres in America were more quiet and orderly than anywhere else in the world. He might have said at once that they act more intelligently.

— Santa Anna made a mistake when he left his chatau at St. Thomas to reconstruct the Mexican Republic. Since his arrival in this country he has been in hot water. The letter he received purporting to come from Secretary Seward turns out to be a forgery.

— A Mobilian recently lost his life in vainly attempting to rescue a crippled old man from a burning building. The insurance company refuse to pay his life insurance, pronouncing it suicide. The company are dolts, then;—and the law will compel them to pay.

— The provisions of the new Internal Revenue law, designed to prevent the frauds that had become so common in the production and sale of whiskey and other alcoholic liquors, which goes into effect now, will compel more than half the distillers in New York to close their business.

— Bread, Biscuit, Cakes and Puddings, going through the process of baking, change all the substance of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus into carbonic acid gas, whic then passes away, so that there is not a particle of it remaining in the food in which it is used, thereby making it perfectly wholesome and healthy, and peculiarly adapted to weak stomachs and dyspeptic persons. Grocers and Druggists sell it. 7

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth N. H.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1866.

☞ Henry Ward Beecher has written a long letter, in which he reasons, (somewhat after President Buchanan's fashion,) that because States under our Constitution are only known as States, therefore the loyal Representatives and Senators should have come into Congress at once, when that body met. Very fortunately for the Country, Mr. Beecher is not the judge in the case,—but Congress is. We know them during the war, as States in Rebellion,—and, by the foolish policy of the executive, they are not much better now.

We observe many coppery sheets published and praise the letter. Has it occurred to any of their managers, that they have raved and stormed sometimes, because ministers meddled with politics? But no matter for this. Let them amuse themselves and cheat their dupes, with Br. Beecher's abstractions and theories. The stubborn fact is, that the Seward-Johnson folly has revived and strengthened the rebel spirit:—and this has worked up the Free People to put it down again: Vermont and Maine will tell how.

THE CONVENTION OF SOUTHERN LOYALISTS at Philadelphia is very full, free, earnest, and enthusiastic,—in all things a strong contrast to the cut and dried (very dry) wigwam gathering. Thos. J. Durant is temporary president. The Convention is composed of men from the South, the tried men who stood by the Union flag during the war, of that class whose devotion was often rewarded with death. The unanimous sentiment which they utter, is that unless speedy assistance comes to them from Congress, Unionism and loyalty in the South will be in a far more perilous condition than it was before the war.

Not the least noticeable fact is the enthusiastic welcome which, under the auspices of the Select and Common Councils of the city, the whole loyal people of the city have extended to the members. The spontaneous gathering of the loyal statesmen of the North to advise with and encourage their Southern brethren will have its influence. It will show that in spite of executive patronage and a pompous allegiance to the Constitution on the part of the President, the great heart of the nation beats in sympathy with them, and will not fail to make its pulsations felt during the coming elections. We have no apprehensions that this convention will raise the price of rebel bonds, or encourage massacres in our Southern cities. There will be no disgusting exhibitions of fraternizing with unrepentant rebels, or advocacy of a blind forgetfulness of the past without any security for the future.

This convention cannot fail to constitute an era in the history of the settlement of our national difficulties. It will be first free, untrammeled utterance of popular sentiment, coming from the South since the termination of the war, and it will be accepted as such by the people of the North. It will have its influence during the coming elections, when it will show the President that he is neither omnipotent, nor is Mr. Secretary Seward omnicient; that in their attempts to betray the people who have trusted them with office and loaded them with public honors, and to exalt rebels to office and crush the Union sentiment of the nation, they will ignominiously fail.

☞ Pres. Johnson's speech at Niagara Falls on Saturday evening, was one of the most elaborate which he has yet made, and was after the same style, only a little more so! The first portions of it alluded to the "humble individual" as usual, told how he had been Alderman, and everything up to President. He defended himself and Seward from the being traitors, pitched into the Freedmen's Bureau and Civil Rights bill, and was just issuing a grand challenge to the 182 members of Congress to meet him and the Cabinet and discuss the questions at issue between them before the American people, when, the dispatch says, Mr. Seward became exceedingly alarmed lest the balcony should break down, and personally went round to urge some of the persons to retire from it. He also urged the President to close his remarks, which he at once did.

With the close of the President's remarks the danger seems to have passed away, for Mr. Seward followed with quite a lengthy speech, in which he predicted 40,000 majority for "my policy" in New York. His former reputation as a "sixty" or "ninety days" prophet is not such as to induce sane men to "take much stock" in his predictions.

JUDGE SPEED was chosen President of the Southern Union Convention at Philadelphia, on Tuesday. 16 Vice Presidents were chosen, among them Botts and Brownlow. Both were cheered. 392 delegates are reported, from Southern States, with a great crowd of attendants. Impartial suffrage is demanded by a great majority of the Southern delegates.

GOLD, Tuesday, 146 1-2.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. Daniel J. Clark, post master of Manchester, died on Monday.

—— Rev. W. W. Wilson is to preach at South Hampton, Sunday, Sept. 9.

—— Rev. D. W. Faunce of Malden, Mass., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist Society of Concord, as the successor of Rev. Charles Flanders, D. D., now of Kennebunkport, Maine.

—— Wm. Winn of Greenfield, who was a soldier in the 4th N. H. regiment, and always a lucky hunter, killed a young cub weighing 28 lbs. on Sunday morning, 26th ult.

—— As Dexter Whittier of Orange was hewing a stick of wood on Tuesday 28th, the axe slipped and entered his leg just below the knee, inflicting a short but it is feared a serious wound.

—— A barn in Orange, owned by Zonas Whittier, Esq., and containing some 10 or 12 tons of hay, was burned about midnight, of the 28th ult. It stood on an unoccupied place, and must have been the work of an incendiary. No insurance.

—— Private A. S. Flint, Co. D, 3d New Hampshire, whose remains were found stowed away in a government warehouse, at East Bay, South Carolina, was the son of the Postmaster at Wilton, Nathan Flint, who sent out an officer last March to bring the body home, but during his temporary absence at Folly Island, the body mysteriously disappeared, and he could find no clue to its whereabouts until it was discovered as above stated.

NEWS FROM EUROPE.—Sunday, Sept. 2.—At Paris, M. Drouyn De L'Huys, French Minister for Foreign Affairs, has resigned, and the Marquis of Munster, Montholon, succeeds him.

At Berlin, the Prussian Diet is engaged in the discussion of a bill to indemnify King William for his violation of the Constitution in imposing taxes and raising funds for the support of the war without the consent of Parliament.

At Monich, the motion to close the union of Bavaria and Prussia was lost. The chambers then adjourned and will probably meet again in October.

At Vienna, the formalities of the cession of Vienna have been ended. The Austrians are to leave Venice and the Quadrilateral on the fifth of September.

HANIBAL HAMLIN addressed the people of Kittery Monday evening, and gave, to a full house, his views of the miserable policy which is encouraging the ex-rebels to renew their rebellion, and the ex-traitors to renew their treason. And in reply to a requisition from the citizens of Bangor, Me., that he would address them on public affairs, writes stating that, having no opinion on public affairs and the state of the country which he wishes to conceal, he will cheerfully comply with their request as soon as he can make it convenient. From these indications we presume he will speak each day this week, as he passes toward his home, where he will throw his vote for Gen. Chamberlain.

☞ A Baltimore dispatch of Sunday says,—Hilton Benson, who was shot at the camp meeting riot, it is now thought will recover. The local authorities of Anne Arundel county, in which the camp meeting was held, are at present investigating the case. A colored man was arrested at Baltimore, Sunday, on a warrant issued by them, charged with riotous conduct at said camp meeting, and using threats to kill a white man. So far as learned none of the white rioters have been arrested.

—In Maine, the Union candidate for governor, General Chamberlain, by vote of the faculty of Bowdoin College, is discharging the duties of President of that institution, made vacant by the resignation of Dr. Woods, who went down, in his old age, to worship Dagon in the Philadelphia Wigwam. "To what base uses do we come at last."

—In Portland about 8 o'clock Saturday evening, a train of cars on Commercial street, ran over and killed Bridget Kane, wife of Martin Kane. Sunday morning while some men were engaged in screwing up a house near the foot of Centre street, the building slipped from the screw and fell into the cellar. A young man named Daniel McCue was caught on the neck and breast by the building, pinned to the bricks in the cellar and instantly killed.

☞ Hall's Journal of Health for September contains an essay on Fever and Ague, embodying valuable hints, and especially recommending morning and evening fires in dwellings, as a preservative against malaria.

☞ The Phrenological Journal for September, among a great variety of contents, has an article on Phrenology and Physiognomy, by John Neal,—to be concluded in the next number.

☞ The Herald of Health has not only a table of contents every month, but also of the names of the writers, on the cover title. Both tables are attractive, in the September number.

☞ Among scenes that are solemn, sad and even terrible, there will now and then come in something ludicrous. So in the sublime movements of our noble President and grand Secretary, there are some dips into the ludicrous, too good to be lost. Speaking of the feast and speeches at New York city, Burleigh says:

Our Democratic friends have had their mouths closed for four years. They hurrahed themselves hoarse from the Battery to the Fifth Avenue Hotel with shouts for "Andy Johnson and the Constitution as it was." The President made a speech to the crowd after the review, as well as an address at the dinner. His propensity to speak was really hit off by Mr. Seward. The arrangement to visit Chicago was made four months ago. The President accepted the invitation to visit New York on the condition that he should not be called upon to speak in the city. Mr. Seward told him he could safely accept the invitation, for he would not be called upon to speak unless he wanted to more than the people wanted to hear him!!

At the town of Fonda, New York, the President, General Grant, Admiral Farragut and Secretary Welles appeared on the platform, the train having halted. Cheers were given for each of them. Repeated calls were made for Secretary Seward, who came forward and bowed his thanks, amid the applause. He said:

Let me tell you that one thing may be found in the scriptures, if you only carefully look for it, and that is: "A great man never lives at home." (Laughter and applause)

What scriptures are referred to by the learned Secretary, we cannot tell; but no such text can be found in our bible, as "a great man never lives at home." There is, however a verse in the book of Job, where Elihu says very truly, "Great men are not always wise!" And there is an old English proverb, to this purpose, "When the wine is in the wit is out." U. T.

HANNIBAL HAMLIN has resigned his office as Collector of Customs at Boston, because he cannot and will not sustain the wretched policy of his unworthy successor in the Vice Presidency. His letter of resignation will command attention. After addressing the President, and stating that he had held the office one year, he says:

I do not fail to observe the movements and efforts which have been and are now being made to organize a party in the country, consisting almost exclusively of those actively engaged in the late rebellion, and their allies who sought by other means to cripple and embarrass the Government. These classes of persons, with a small fraction of others, constitute the organization. It proposes to defeat and overthrow the Union Republican party, and to restore to power, without sufficient guaranties for the future and protection to men who have been loyal, those who sought to destroy the Government.

I gave all the influence I possessed to create and uphold the Union Republican party during the war, and without the aid of which our Government would have been destroyed and the rebellion a success.

With such a party as has been inaugurated, and for such purposes, I have no sympathy, nor can I acquiesce in its measures by my silence. I therefore tender to you my resignation of the office of Collector of Customs for the District of Boston and Charlestown, to take effect from the time when a successor shall be appointed and qualified.

☞ Parson Brownlow, now at Philadelphia, is suffering from the palsy. Senator Wright of New Jersey, who has been sojourning for a few weeks in Norfolk, Conn., was conveyed on Saturday to his home in Newark, being attended by two physicians, who stated that he is near his death.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

for the speedy cure of

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, inflicted for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest, and moreover, it is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over-estimated. Be sure it is to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One dealer says it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. au29

Hygienic Wine,

Approved by the Imperial School of Medicine, Paris.

Tested by the Committee on Chemistry of the American Medical Association, at their Convention, held in Baltimore, May 1st, 1866, and endorsed by its most prominent members.

This IMPORTED Tonic, recommended by the most eminent Physicians, is prepared in Paris from

PURE SHERRY!

Admits in its composition only Tonic, Aromatic, and Febrifuge substances. It replaces with a great superiority all other Bitters, which have for a base, nothing but Alcohol or Inferior Whiskies. It is richer than any other Bitters in and its taste is exquisite. Its soothing effects on the NERVOUS SYSTEM is most astonishing, for, while it gently exhilarates, by re animating the functions of the DIGESTIVE ORGANS, and dissipates Languor, by gently refreshing and stimulating the brain, giving a healthy tone to the whole organism, it leaves behind none of the baneful influences that follow Alcoholic stimulants.

Aromatic and Balsamic Principles,

HYGIENIC WINE

is moreover

MOST DELICIOUS TO THE TASTE,

Possessing wonderful virtues in all cases of DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY, and moreover is unexcelled as an

Appetizer,

IT IS NOT INTOXICATING IN THE LEAST.

MUSCAT PERLE, (Imported)

Is a rare fine Wine of most delightful flavor. It is the Pure Juice of a Most Delicious and generous GRAPE, and surpasses in excellence any Table Wine in this Country.

All who are solicitous about obtaining a pure and a superior Wine, will be delighted with

"Muscat Perle."

☞ Church people are solicited to examine this Wine for communion purposes. A Communion Wine should be above all things PURE: In the second place it should be MILD. "Muscat Perle" combines these two most essential qualities, and a trial will convince any one of its superiority over all other wines at present in the market.

These Wines are sold by all respectable Druggists and Dealers.

CHOLERA!

MR. PERRY DAVIS—SIR: The benefits I have received from the use of your invaluable remedy, the Pain Killer, induces me to bear a word in its praise. Experience has convinced me that for Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, or any other part of the system, severe Colds, Weariness, common Colds, Hoarseness, CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUS, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Toothache, etc., THERE IS NOTHING BETTER THAN THE PAIN KILLER. I have this hour recovered from a severe attack of the Sick Headache, by using two teaspoonfuls, taken at thirty minutes interval, in a wine-glass full of hot water. I am confident that, through the blessing of God, it saved me from the cholera during the summer of 1848. Travelling amid heat, dust, toil, exposure, diet, and constant exposure to an infected atmosphere, my system was daily predisposed to dysentery attacks, accompanied with pain, for which the Pain Killer was a sovereign remedy, one teaspoonful curing the worst case in an hour, or at the most, half a day! I have heard of many cases of Dysentery being cured by its use. Put in the teeth, it will stop the toothache. Gratitude, and a desire for its general use, has drawn from me this unsolicited testimonial in its favor.

D. T. TAYLOR, JR., Minister of the Gospel.

Perry's Moth and Freckle Lotion.

☞ Chloasma, or Motlipatch, (also called Liver-spot,) and Lentigo, or Freckles, are often very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, for the discolored spots show more plainly on the face of a blonde than of a brunette; but they greatly mar the beauty of either and any preparation that will effectually remove them, without injuring the texture or color of the skin, is certainly a desideratum. DR. B. C. PERRY, who has made diseases of the skin a specialty, has discovered a remedy for these discolorations, which is at once prompt, infallible and harmless.

Prepared by B. C. PERRY, Dermatologist, No. 49 Bond Street, New York, and for sale by all druggists; price $2 per bottle. Call for

Morning Chronicle.

ELECTIONS.—The elections for Members of Congress and certain State officers will occur as follows: The first will be upon the first Tuesday of September, in Vermont, after which will follow California and Nevada, upon the first Wednesday, and Maine upon the second Monday of September. Colorado will vote upon the first Tuesday in October; Pensylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa and Minnesota upon the second Tuesday; and West Virginia on the fourth Thursday. On the 6th of November will vote: New York, New Jersey, Illinois, Minnesota and Wisconsin; on the 6th, Maryland and Kansas; on the 13th, Massachusetts, Delaware, Michigan and Missouri. This closes the list of elections for the year 1866, and in 1867 New Hampshire votes on the second Tuesday of March, Connecticut on the first Wednesday of April, and Kentucky on the first Monday of August. Oregon will not have another election until the first Monday of June, 1868.

☞ North Carolina has rejected her revised Constitution by a majority of nearly 3000. The Newbern Times says:

"In every country, so far as our knowledge extends, where the leading men of influence are truly and honestly supporters of Mr. Johnson's policy, ratification was carried by handsome majorities, while in those counties where this class of our fellow-citizens hold the Raffin doctrine, that Mr. Johnson is a usurper and cannot call Conventions, &c., to remodel and resuciate State governments, ratification was lost by large majorities. 'Let the truth be told.'"

☞ The Manchester Union Democrat, which now upholds President Johnson and his policy, said of him in March 1865:

"What a shame to the American people that such a blackguard as this should be elevated to such a position over so pure, so scholarly, so accomplished a gentleman as George H. Pendleton! "Oh! but his politics," it will be said. Well, what of the politics of the two men? Mr. Pendleton has been a constitutional Union man all his life, while Andy Johnson was a fire eater always—a most devoted champion of slavery, and an advocate of secession until he was brought up in 1861.

He has been a very successful Demagogue, and is incapable of being anything better. He was a tailor, and was promoted to public position, not because he was qualified for it, but because his gift of gab was rather extraordinary for an untrained and illiterate man. Three quarters of the mechanics of this city have more education, and are better qualified, in every sense, except, perhaps, in habits of drunkenness, for Vice President, than Andrew Johnson.

In this connection, it may be proper to say that Johnson has no color of right to the position he occupies."

— If it be true that President Johnson cuts nothing but what is prepared by his daughter, how fortunate it is for him that the young lady was taught to cook! The lesson is suggestive. As every American has a right to aspire to the Presidency, and as any American may get the office, all Americans should have their daughters trained in the useful arts of the kitchen.—Traveller.

— "Why are so few convicts in the Michigan penitentiary this year?" asked Sam's friend, a day or two ago. "Why" said Sam, "they send them by the Pontiac railroad, and their time expires before they get there."

Gen. Grant's Speech at Niagara Falls.—"I have had a long nap since I have been here."

It's a pity the President and his stage manager, Mr. Seward, had not spent their time in as innocent and beneficial a manner. It would have been much more to their credit.

☞ It will be recollected that a few weeks since certain charges were made against Gen. Kilpatrick, U. S. Minister at Chili, by a Panama paper, alleging gross immorality, such as would undoubtedly lead to his recall. A letter signed by the U. S. Consul, and by several of the most respectable American citizens residing at Santiago, has been sent to Gen. Kilpatrick, giving the lie to the infamous imputation, and testifying that his social position is second to that of no one in the city.

— The Wilmington (N. C.) Journal says the new Collector of that port got drunk on his arrival there and became so noisy and offensive that he was arrested and put in the lock-up.

— The Indianapolis papers record the arrest of James Bennett, somewhat notorious for his numerous matrimonial alliances. About five rich widows are believed to have surrendered their hearts to his keeping.—He will probably be convicted of polygamy.

— The Richmond Times, which was established as an Administration paper, calls for an act of general amnesty, and demands the "immediate release of that illustrious statesman, brave soldier and noble patriot, ex-President Jefferson Davis."

— The venerable Mrs. Partington once asked us if we believed that everything was foreordained before hand in advance. We were compelled to answer that sometimes we did and sometimes we didn't. She remarked that her son Isaac says he knows one thing was foredained sure, and that is, that the J. Monroe Taylor Gold Medal Soap will supersede and run out every other kind of soap made. The old lady further remarked, that she believed so too, and was sure there was no other as good for she had tried it. 8
